Script to load up on teleprompter ahead of governor's visit:

In the wake of historic floods, some of our neighbors are still struggling, and they need our help.

That's why some of our friends, including South Carolina's own Stephen Colbert, Darius Rucker, Coach Dawn Staley and Coach Dabo Swinney, got together to start the One SC fund.

We're one people, one state, one S.C.

The purpose of One SC – Flood Relief Fund is to help South Carolinians re-build and repair their homes that were damaged or destroyed during the flood.

Our family hopes you'll join us in helping our neighbors re-build their homes by making a donation to the One SC – Flood Relief Fund. 100% of the donations will go to assisting South Carolinians and are tax deductible.

Visit www.onescfund.org or text 'onesc' to 843-606-5995 to make a donation.
