Dear John,

Congratulations on your selection as a state honoree for the 2015 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards! In making and selling pink prayer bracelets to raise money for a mother in your community with breast cancer, you are not only setting an outstanding example on the importance of service but, ultimately, helping improve the quality of life for a family. I am so proud of you for getting involved in order to make a positive difference. Keep up the good work! God bless.

My very best,
