IF YOU ARE AN INDIVIDUAL...

There are two ways to register:

INDIVIDUAL TAXPAYERS

- Option One: Sign up online.
  - * Go to www.protectmyid.com/scdor and use the activation code: SCDOR123 to initiate the registration process. All future notices from Experian® will be sent to you by email.
  - * Only one email address may be associated with one registration for ProtectMyID™.
- Option Two: Call the Experian® Call Center.
  - * Call 1-866-578-5422 to complete the process with a live agent. You may <sup>choose</sup> have all future notices from Experian® sent to you by postal mail or email.

Experian® Call Center Hours:

Monday – Friday: 9:00a.m. – 9:00p.m. EST
Saturday and Sunday: 11:00a.m. – 8:00p.m. EST } Bold

IMPORTANT: If a taxpayer has no access to the internet, does not have a working email address, or if there is another reason why he or she cannot access the internet, then he or she must call the Experian® Call Center.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Never give out your Social Security Number or other identifying information to people you do not know or who contact you.
- There are no fees charged to the enrollee to register with ProtectMyID™ for the first year.
- <sup>taxpayers</sup> Individual with a Social Security Number should register with ProtectMyID™ separately, because credit histories are tied to individual's Social Security Numbers.
- ~~While the investigation is still ongoing, South Carolina taxpayer's Social Security Numbers, debit card numbers, credit card numbers, and information that would be found on the front of a check like bank account and routing numbers may have been exposed.~~

Do not give out your Credit Card Information.

January 31, 2013 is the deadline to register <sup>free of charge</sup> for one year of identity theft protection with ProtectMyID™.
