A billion dollars for roads?

The latest news out of Columbia is that the state has a $1.2 billion in new revenue coming in 2017. Will lawmakers spend it on road repair, disaster relief, or the usual list of misguided priorities? The State newspaper published an interesting story on the "windfall" (if that's what it turns out to be). Better than the story, though, is the accompanying video featuring SCPC's Ashley Landess. more>>

Clemson's Number One!

As you might or might not know, Clemson is ranked number one in football right now. And as The Nerve recently revealed, it's also number one in the use of state-financed air travel, mostly for its president. more>>

Troubled Agency Creates Highly Paid Execs

Of all this problems this perennially troubled state agency has, a lack of well paid top staffers isn't one of them. Yet that's apparently not how Gov. Haley's appointee sees it. more>>
