I have a park pass but haven't been able to use it this year yet. Do I need to make a reservation to get into a park or just arrive super early? Thank you.

It depends on when you plan on visiting, and which park. During the week most of our parks do not fill up. On the weekends, some parks do fill to capacity and close, so yes, I would recommend that you arrive early. The only two parks with reservable parking sites are Devils Fork and Jones Gap.
