Ex-Muslim Imam Unleashes Information On Hillary's Involvement With Muslim Brotherhood... [VIDEO]

I've never heard of this guy before, but this definitely has the ring of truth about it. Dr. Mark Christian converted from Islam to Christianity. He is an ex-Imam from Egypt and he is exposing the ties between Hillary Clinton and the Muslim Brotherhood. Given her close association to Huma Abedin and others who have ties to the Muslim Brotherhood, I am not surprised by this.

Clinton simply sold the country out to the highest bidder... unfortunately for us it was radical Islamists.

This started all the way back in 1996, when Clinton invited Islamic leaders to the White House. One of them was quoted as saying that when the US becomes an Islamic state ruled by Sharia law, Hillary Clinton will be the reason why. That should make your blood run cold. At least Donald Trump is not doing that and is taking some type of stand against the Islamists.

From Mad World News:

An Egyptian ex-Muslim Imam with family ties to the Muslim Brotherhood has just come forward with disturbing information concerning Hillary Clinton and her involvement with the designated terrorist group. Just in time for the presidential debate, he's leaking the startling details that further criminalize Hillary and could absolutely devastate her shot at the White House.

Dr. Mark Christian is not only a Muslim convert to Christianity but an expert on Islam who's dedicated his life to exposing the planned Islamization of America. Along with his passionate fight against the Democratic Party and Sharia law, Christian has insider information about Egypt's Muslim Brotherhood and its sinister ties to American politicians. Fortunately, he's managed to share these shocking details just before Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton's big debate on Monday.

Christian explains that the Clintons' involvement with the Islamic political movement began in 1996 when Hillary personally invited Islamic leaders to the White House. During the event, the keynote speaker was Dr. Hassan Hathout, an MB operative and close companion to MB founder Hassan al-Banna. Dr. Hathout's involvement with the MB was so crucial that he served several prison terms for his work with the organization.

Dr. Hassan concluded his speech by reiterating that if the U.S. becomes an Islamic state governed by Sharia law, they would have none other to thank than Hillary. This was just the beginning of Hillary's relationships with some of the most influential and dangerous Muslim leaders in the political world.

One of the Muslim leaders invited was Abdurahman Alamoudi, who founded the American Muslim Council (AMC) and the American Muslim Foundation (AMF). She asked him to organize an Islamic iftar dinner at the White House to celebrate Ramadan. Alamoudi is now serving a 23-year prison sentence for being involved in Islamic terrorism and the financing of it.

Hillary is also connected to the Organization of Islamic Cooperation's former Secretary General Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu. Christian emphasizes that at the end of a meeting between them, Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu publicly stated, "The Istanbul Process initiated with Secretary of State Hillary Clinton...must be carried forward," to which Hillary shockingly added, "We now need to move to implementation." That implementation includes:

- the death penalty for those leaving Islam
- punishing women who are victims of rape
- allowing men to be polygamous
- permitting wife beating
- censoring speech insulting Islam

Hillary Clinton is the classic definition of a political whore. She sold out long ago and wants even more power, control and wealth. To elect her is to permanently install Islamists in power here in the US. Think about it.
