INSPIRING TODAY'S YOUTH ONE BOOK AT A TIME

January 5, 2016

Governor Nikki Haley
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, SC 29201

Good day Governor Haley and Happy New Year!!

Knowing your passion for children's education and learning about your initiatives, I was moved to invite you to my event: Freedom Readers, Inc., a fundraiser at the Dead Dog Saloon in Murrells Inlet on Monday, January 25th. (www.Freedomreaders.org)

This is our Third Annual Books & Boogie and Mr. Charlie Campbell is very happy to host us at his restaurant. We will have 5 local writers attending to discuss their work, sell, and sign copies of their books. We have 2 musical acts and a lovely young lady making balloon creations for the Young Scholars attending who will also perform!

We will also have an auction for some really special prizes for all those who purchase raffle tickets, including a Yeti cooler! The cost of the event itself is only for those who wish to experience the sumptuous buffet style dinner the Dead Dog will be providing; they are famous here on the marsh for their food and great entertainment!

We would love to have you grace us with your presence whether you purchase a ticket or not. I do understand that previous and more important commitments dictate your time but I thought this invitation was worth a shot!

Thank you so much for your time in considering this.

Sincerely,

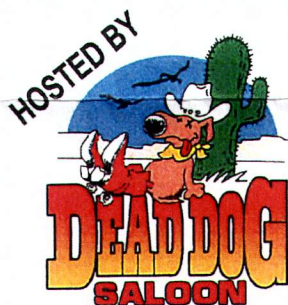

Cheryl Bell
