A bond rally will soon be held in the Gardens, sponsored by the association. All military and civilian personnel are expected to assist. Mrs. J. C. Mello, president, announced at a business session, that plans for February will be both civic and recreational.

Mrs. E. I. Hicks will be chairman for the civilian defense to arrange for the collection of papers for the Gardens.

A square dance with a good orchestra and a real old-fashioned caller, will be enjoyed next Thursday evening. The soldiers of Fort Jackson are especially invited and there will be open house all evening at the social hall.

The President's ball will be held Monday evening, January 31, from 9 until 12 o'clock at the social hall. Final plans are being made for this to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season. A popular orchestra, Henry Suydam's, will play. All service men of Fort Jackson, the Army Air Base will be welcome and the hall will be open to the public. Proceeds will go to the infantile paralysis fund.
