Mr. Delgado: I'm requesting that you take the initiative and file the dismissal in the clerk's office immediately. It has been one month since the case was been dismissed. As you are aware, these false charges has created extreme hardship in my life. I need to have everything expunged in order that the official record can reflect the false charges. Again, I request that you take immediate action concerning this matter.

It's a shame that people of color in the state of South Carolina has to go through such injustice and ridicule for speaking out against misconduct.

I look forward to the dismissal with prejudice being forwarded to the Clerk of Court immediately.

Cordially,

Early Graham

Me. Graham- there is no Order of Dismissal filed in the Clerk of Court's office yet. If the AG does not file one soon I will do so. Nonetheless the Arson and related fraud charges are dismissed. If you cannot meet next week beginning the 24 how about Thursday the 3rd to meet and prepare. It would have to be in the morning. I have not heard back from the AG as to when the case may be called for trial in September.

Mr. Delgado: Thank you for your email of July 31, 2015 concerning the dismissal of the alleged charges. However, I have not received any official signed order concerning the dismissal. I have been released by the Bond Company of the $150,000.00 Bond as of two weeks ago. The Clerks office still shows this case as pending, please forward to me immediately a copy of the written order. Please keep me in the loop as to the facts and circumstances surrounding the process of clearing my record of these false charges.

In the Case of Daniel E. Johnson and former wife Kana Rahman alleged harassment charges. You mentioned Daniel E. Johnson being away on official military duty. Please note, Kana is a vital part of this alleged harassment charge initially brought by both parties before the S.C. Supreme Court's public sanctioning her for blatant misconduct. Rushing to get this into court within a month period of time appears to be inappropriate. Please note, I'm now back in town if you would like to meet. Please alert me immediately if you would like to schedule a meeting. I'm trying to put my life back together and will not be available next week.

Cordially,

Earl O. Graham
