South Carolina State Parks

at 20:02:19 on 5/11/2010 UTC ·

The lilies are coming! The lilies are coming! Make sure you head out to Landsford Canal State Park this Sunday for Lily Fest! If you can't make Lily Fest, now is the time to view the awesome lilies at Landsford. It is one of the largest known stands of rocky shoals spider lilies -- and we're extending operating hours this year, so you will have plenty of time to see them! Make sure you make the trip!

About This Park - Landsford Canal State Park - South Carolina State Parks

Landsford Canal has the best preserved 19th-century South Carolina river canals. Also rocky shoals spider lilies and American Revolutionary War history

Gregory Pratt Thursday the 13th, planned photo shoot for Tripleblaze.com contributions. Will also do a review of Lansford. I already know this will be a 5-star review. Just been waiting for the lilies before I make the trip. Been looking forward to this for many months!
