

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20160426South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10154120951933166

South Carolina State Parks

at 12:00:00 on 4/26/2016 UTC · 🌐

During May and June the high climbing, woody vine called Dutchman's Pipe (Aristolochiaceae macrophylla) produces a unique flower resembling the curved shape of a 19th century Dutch smoking pipe. These interesting plants are associated with rich cove forests and can also be found near ridgetops above the steep valleys where sunlight is plentiful and the soil is moist. Check them out at Table Rock: www.southcarolinaparks.com/tablerock

