Great!
Can you meet here at 11:00AM?
ETV dropped off several discs for you to view of the previous Carolighting.
Thanks, Katherine

Sure! We are making lots of progress on this end and I do have a number of updates to share. Things are really taking shape. Lee Ann and I met yesterday and hammered through a lot. I've been in meetings since and haven't had a chance to type up a recap but should be able to do that this afternoon, email it to you and then we can discuss. I'm open tomorrow before 2 or Thursday before 10 for a call or meeting. Let me know if either would work.

Kelly,

Thank you for reaching out to Justin. Would you be available for a follow up this week either in person or by phone? Also any other updates to report?

Thank you,
Haley

Hi Justin,

I will be one of the main points of contact for you regarding logistics for the Governor's Carolighting. Your other point of contact will be Lee Ann Kornegay.

The event itself will run from 6:00-7:30PM on Monday December 1. Lee Ann and I are meeting Monday afternoon to review our list of participants and pull together an outline for the program. One thing that will help us with the task of setting the program would be for you to tell us how many people you will bring with you for the event. Do you know approximately how many will be participating?

After Lee Ann and I meet Monday we will be in touch with you and the other participants with some more specific times for arrival, sound check, music selections and other details. We are delighted that Clemson is planning to participate. We look forward to working with you and your group.

Regards,
