Fort Stewart Home of the 3rd Infantry

ExpoStewart and the Lecture Series are an effective way to meet face-to-face with military & government contracting officers, program directors and people who can influence purchase decisions, as well as contractors looking for teaming agreements.

Fort Stewart-Hunter Army Airfield is the largest Army installation east of the Mississippi River, covering 280,000 acres. It is close to Savannah, Georgia (42 mi), and Charleston, South Carolina (142 mi), and is the home of "the 3rd Infantry Division, and the First Battalion, Seventy-fifth Ranger Regiment, Rapid Deployment Force. The "Rock of the Marne" and nearly 30 tenant units are some of the most deployed units in the United States Army.

I Want To Exhibit
at ExpoStewart 2017

Fort Stewart Tenant Units

As a training base and power projection platform, it is responsible for training, equipping, deploying and redeploying both early deploying and follow-on active component Army units. It is also responsible for mobilizing, training, equipping, deploying and redeploying Army National Guard and Army Reserve units and Soldiers.
