Subject: Stop the Corruption

Ms. Collier and SCHAC:

I never read your prior email in detailed it was already assume that SCHAC would deny my access which is correct. SCHAC is so busy trying to be deceitful and corrupt until it is not understanding their own language that govern them. Ms. Collier the information that you sent verifies Susan Davis Bowers written document and justifies my request for information. The information stated in the email provides the release of information: except this subsection does not apply to disclosure to the parties or the attorneys where the disclosure is limited to matters necessary for determining appropriate relief and/or negotiating settlements or making conciliation offers.

I am self representing myself in this complaint against SCDEW, SCBCB and Office Of South Carolina Governor. Please provide the full access of SC Code laws that is referred in your email and not a partial law.

Gov. Haley a request is being made directly to you in this email to ensure that SCHAC provide the specific information pertaining to barred from applying.

Please send a response.
