sorry to bother you, but I was looking at the amended hours page and there are two different sets of times for Charles Towne Landing. Could you clarify what the two different sets of times refer to? planning on visiting next weekend and wondering what time to show up! thanks!

The time in the red travel alert box is the correct time as of now.

I just want to say that the guy you have at the gate at Paris Mountain is NOT a great fit. I think the parks are operating at limited capacity, but his way of letting you know is to kind of gesture at the sign. No further info. No "but wait a few minutes and you'll be able to come in." He basically told us to just leave. Meanwhile, 5 or 6 cars came OUT, so we have no idea why we were not allowed in. Pretty crummy customer service.
