Hi, Chaney,

I'm a politics reporter for Business Insider and I noticed Gov. Haley's State of the Union response getting a lot of attention online tonight. People from both sides of the aisle seemed to hail the speech as a success.

I'm wondering if Gov. Haley would have a few minutes to talk over the phone tomorrow about her reaction to all the support she received tonight. If you think we could arrange something, please let me know... I'm free anytime.

Best,
Pam
