RE: A Fresh Start

Dear Dir. Kerr:

I am David Taylor in the above caption and incarcerated in South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC) Institution at Lee Correctional Institution. I am writing toward some assistance upon a fresh start toward my maxout date on August 1, 2008. The only things SCDC provides to its release prisoners are a ticket back to their county. I will be living with a family member for ~~two~~ to three months, or until I can get some assistance from Hud and other assistance programs whom, I have wrote to. When I am release on August 1, 2008, I will have nothing. With the support of this program to assist me toward a place to live; I would like to live in North Charleston, S.C.. This will be my mailing address after August 1, 2008: 7663 Peppercom Lane, North Charleston, S.C. 29420.

Sincerely,

Mr. David B. Taylor Jr.

Dear Mr. Taylor:

Thank you for writing the South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services regarding information on programs in South Carolina to assist you following the completion of your incarceration.

Our agency administers Medicaid, which is a healthcare program. To qualify for Medicaid, an individual must meet certain federal and state financial and categorical requirements. A Medicaid eligibility worker can determine if you qualify based on the information provided from an application if you decide to apply. We have enclosed an overview of the Medicaid program, as well as, material on other healthcare options. If you have questions about the Medicaid program, you may call toll free at 1-888-549-0820 or visit our website at www.dhhs.state.sc.us.

While Medicaid does not provide financial assistance to pay for food, housing, utility bills, or other living expenses, we have included a list of state agencies that may be of help to you. You may also wish to contact charitable or non-profit organizations in the South Carolina County where you intend to reside.

We hope this information proves helpful and informative to you.

Sincerely,
