I'm trying to confirm if it is going to reopen tomorrow or not because I am trying to figure out if I'm going to have to find another place to go camping. I was told it was reopening tomorrow by someone I talked to on the phone yesterday and I'm trying to find out if this is true. I talked to someone from reserveamerica and someone from sc state parks and I'm just trying to find out the correct information

I am trying to find out about Poinsett State Park. I placed two phone calls yesterday and one person said the park wasn't closed, and another said it will be re-opening tomorrow the 13th. The number to the park is temporarily disabled so I can't reach anyone there. We are supposed to be camping there the 14, 15, 16 (this weekend) and I'm trying to find out if the park is actually open or not.
Thank you

Please see our latest update here: <http://bit.ly/2e6gXJY> Poinsett is still closed. We will post more information as it becomes available.
