Nicole,
Thank you for the updated head shot of Gov. Haley and her bio.

In reference to some of your questions below, the conference general session will be in the Hyatt Regency Ballroom C. This is located on the first level of the hotel. The room will be set classroom style, while the stage will have a head table and seating as well as a podium. The podium will be equipped with a microphone. We will also have a lapel microphone available if she prefers.

Most of the attendees for this group are public works directors and supervisors. Typical attire has been business casual. I would imagine as people learn that the governor will be present, some may step up their game.

The opening session at which Gov. Haley will speak is scheduled to begin at 10:30am, and adjourn at noon. This will be followed by a luncheon that the governor is welcome to attend if her schedule allows.

My staff and I handle all the conference logistics prior to the conference and onsite. If I can be of any assistance, please let me know. My contact information will be listed below.

Also, please see the attached revised advertisement. This is a low resolution copy so that I could email it easily.

If you have any additional questions, please let me know.

Thanks,
Shaun

Nicole,

Thanks for the quick response. The promotional flyer is a draft only and has not yet been printed. We will change the headshot and send back to you for approval before printing.

Steve Price, SC APWA President, whom I have copied on this email will be able to provide the timeline for the opening session.

The event will be in the conference space on the bottom floor of the Hyatt Regency in their large ballroom. Attendance will be 300 – 400 people.

The room will be setup with seating on stage. The Governor will be introduced by Steve Price, SC APWA President.

The governor will be allotted 25 – 30 minutes to speak. Some of that time can be Q&A if the Governor desires. The Governor may speak on the topic of her choice, but the conference theme will be “Public Works After the Storm” and will focus on the Public Works response to the flooding in SC last summer. The general theme of the conference is professional development for Public Works Professionals and Public Service.

Attire will be Business for conference presenters and Business Casual for attendees.

I will contact our Police Chief and get you a contact person for the Governor’s security detail.

Oni-

Thank you for your email. Governor Haley is still planning to attend on August 8th in Greenville. Is the attached promotional information already printed? It has the Governor's old headshot on it. Attached is her updated headshot. It also can be found on the Governor's website. Please send all future promotional items to me for our press office to take a look at before going to print.

I have a few questions for your below regarding the Governor's attendance:

Can you send me a timeline/line-by-line for the time that the Governor will be at the conference?

Where in the Hyatt Regency will the event take place?

How will the room be set-up? Podium? Stage? Microphone? Seating on stage? Head table?

What is the attire for the event?

Who is the best onsite contact for the Governor's security detail to reach out to?

How many attendees do you expect to be present?

Who will introduce the Governor?

Here is a link to the Governor's most updated bio: <http://governor.sc.gov/about/Pages/GovernorBio.aspx>

The Governor will speak for 12-15 mins. Is this ok?

Is it appropriate to do 5-7 mins of Q&A?

Is there anything in particular you would like for the Governor to touch on during her remarks?

Thanks,
Nicole

What time WOULD work? We'd like to get her there, too, and I think the Conference Committee would have some flexibility. Oni is the Conference Committee chair and can hopefully provide some guidance. Thanks, y'all. MPB

Mary Pat,

The Governor's schedule will not allow for her to be there at that time in the morning. Is there an opportunity for her to speak at some point later in the morning? I would like to try to make it possible for the Governor to attend, but understand if the schedule just does not work out.

She'd be speaking in the 8:30am-10am opening, so probably by 9 am. There's no need for her to have to sit through our opening housekeeping remarks. If you need additional information, please contact me. Thank you! MPB

Mary-

My sincere apologies. I believe your email address just got crosses with another email I was sending. I am so sorry for the confusion. I have received your invitation to Governor Haley to be a speaker at the 2016 Annual Conference: Public Works After the Storm on Monday, August 8th at the Hyatt Regency Greenville. I am checking Governor Haley's availability and will be in touch soon.

Thanks,
Nicole
