RE: Estate of Jennie S. Schultz
Case No. 2008-ES-01-~~68472~~

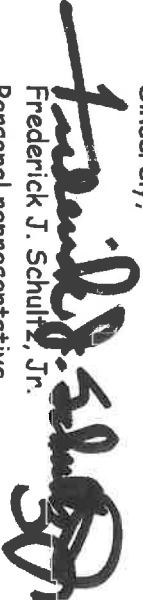

Dear Ms. Kennerly

Just to acknowledge that I received your initial package on Friday, October 03, 2008. After opening the package, I had several questions about the content and exactly what I was to do since your instructions were not clear and most confusing. As your letter stated, call if I had any questions. I did call in the afternoon and your administrative assistant told me that you were on the telephone, just to leave you a voice mail and you would call me back before you left that afternoon. Well, I left a voice mail with the questions and eagerly waited until 5:15 PM that afternoon, but no return telephone call. Since I had left telephone numbers where I could be reached, I expected a call on the following Monday at one of the locations. No reply was forthcoming from you in the way of responses to the questions. I have waited 6 weeks now and you have still not replied.

Furthermore, you have sent an additional letter dated November 04, 2008 requesting information that could have been provided subsequent to October 03, 2008 had you responded to the original telephonic voice mail on Friday, October 03, 2008. Unfortunately, my 30 day clock to respond to you does not start until such time as I have satisfactory response from you to allow me to proceed with the probate action. As I understand the Probate process, it will not finish until May 2009.

Please indicate how the State of South Carolina plans to reimburse the estate for the costs associated (labor, mailing, copying, telephone, letters, etc.) with gathering all of the information that you have requested? The estate is of a small value and there will be expenses associated with the information you have requested.

Sincerely,

Frederick J. Schultz, Jr.
