Subject: muslim refugees

I moved here from Colorado not liking how I saw the State turning blue again. It was either here or Texas since I like their 'take no prisoners' attitude. I was concerned & didn't want to vote for Rubio in the primaries because of his weak stance on immigration. But you backed him & I thought it was a good idea. I've read a disturbing article that states you've allowed more Muslim refugees into SC and agree with Obama's stance on bring them into this country. I would like to know that's not true and that you're against their integration into SC.

Thank you,

One of your new constituents,

Darlene Sowa
