

From: Alison Caliguire <acaliguire@rgppc.org>

To: Alison Caliguire <acaliguire@rgppc.org>

CC: Janel Broderick <jbroderick@rgppc.org>

Brian Sanderson <bsanderson@rgppc.org>

Date: 3/1/2016 12:00:09 PM

Subject: RGPPC Call re: CPP TODAY March 1 at 2:00 PM EST

Attachments: WI EO #186 - Prohibition on Implementation of EPA Regulation.pdf
Effect of the stay on deadlines.pdf

All:

Thank you for RSVP'ing to today's call on the February 9th court-ordered stay of the EPA's Clean Power Plan, and how states have responded or are planning to respond. The call will take place TODAY, March 1st at 2:00 PM EST. Call-in information and agenda are below.

Conference line:

877-896-5923

Pass: 1404315#

Agenda:

1. Intro—RGPPC
2. Katie Ignatowski, General Counsel, Wisconsin
3. Elbert Lin, Solicitor General, West Virginia
4. Ryan Flynn, Secretary of Environment, New Mexico
5. Tyler Powell, Deputy Secretary of Energy, Oklahoma
6. Q& A

Attached to this email are two documents:

1. The first document is a PDF of the Executive Order issued by Governor Scott Walker on February 15th prohibiting any state agency from developing a state implementation plan until the pending litigation is resolved.
2. The second document is in response to some states who have asked how the court ordered stay will affect the deadlines for compliance with the CPP if the Court rules in favor of the Obama Administration. To help answer some of those questions, attached is a PDF detailing how previous court cases have addressed that issue.

Alison Caliguire
Policy Analyst
Republican Governors Public Policy Committee (RGPPC)
1747 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Suite 250
Washington, DC 20006
(202)-464-8561
acaliguire@rgppc.org