After considering the letter I sent to you yesterday, a clarification may be in order. I want to not have a specific comment misconstrued.

My use of the term "future killing field" is a simple expression of my concern as a law-abiding citizen who has watched numerous reports in recent years - several in my home state of Colorado - due to the criminal conduct that has been so frequently occurring in areas that are essentially "gun free zones" due to laws and/or policies banning concealed carry in those locations. It simply opens up a real potential for unstoppable mass crimes by mentally deranged individuals.

And, I happen to have a close friend who experienced an armed home invasion and he was fortunate to have survived it. Thus I have strong opinions on the subject.

There is absolutely no reason to construe my comment as any kind of threat, and I am sure that you understand that.

If you wish to discuss this, you can reach me at (970) 481-4603.

Thank you.
