Subject: Thank you for your support

Hi Anthony,

You've been a great supporter of ASA and because of your participation I wanted to let you know that we still have copies of the Aging in America Conference announcement in case you would like us to send you one or more to share with friends and colleagues. There are not that many left and I thought about how you would know just who would be interested. Word of mouth marketing by supporters such as you is very effective. Simply respond to this email and let me know how many you are able to distribute and we'll send them out to you right away.

This is a great opportunity to share the experience with colleagues and take advantage of the group discount as well! If you would rather send the announcement electronically, click here or download it from our website. If you send the announcement by email, will you let me know by reply to this message how many you forwarded it to? It's ok to pass along your 'friend of ASA' discount code AIA50, so your colleagues can save as well.

I also wanted to remind you that you can still use discount code AIA50 to save $50 on your registration if you have not registered yet, and others in your organization are able to use it as well. Please remember the early rate deadline is fast approaching, but if you register by January 31, you will save $50 more as rates go up after that date.

I hope to see you in Chicago at Aging in America!

Best,
Bob
