ALERT

U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP) and Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Programs (OJJDP) are pleased to announce:

Multi-Disciplinary Response to High Risk Victims

October 17-18, 2016 | Lexington, SC

Training Description

This workshop will provide participants with the opportunity to construct a multi-disciplinary response to high risk victims. Participants will learn how to quantify the problem of sex trafficking locally, define the high risk victim and the correlation and commonalities between the chronic runaway, repeat victims of sexual abuse, and the child victimized through sex trafficking, as well as effective interview techniques when working with these victims. Participants will learn about a 5-point strategy to combat the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC), and engage in a group exercise to develop their own local response for child victims of sex trafficking.

Who Should Attend

Law enforcement investigators, human trafficking task force members, social service providers, prosecutors, and NPO/NGOs are strongly encouraged to attend.
