

From: Hayden Grooms
To: Danny VaratDannyVarat@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 5/19/2017 11:56:23 AM
Subject: Clips 5-19

Gowdy is considering running for chairman of the oversight committee

<http://www.greenvilleonline.com/story/news/politics/2017/05/18/trey-gowdy-considering-running-oversight-chair/101845308/>

Quinn's lawyers will move to disqualify Pascoe, saying his motives are highly questionable. Arraignment is scheduled for Tuesday.

<http://www.thestate.com/news/local/crime/article151420612.html>

Recount starts today for 5th District election

<http://www.thestate.com/latest-news/article151496812.html>

Budget compromise likely to not be achieved Tuesday

<http://www.thestate.com/news/politics-government/article151414637.html>

The Southeast Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives presented the best Commercial Service Airport – Architectural Project award to Charleston

http://www.postandcourier.com/business/charleston-airport-lauded-by-peers-for-million-terminal-improvement-work/article_d4da43da-3c94-11e7-a5cb-0f67ab9b47ba.html

Nikki Haley is in hotwater after she stated that the Western Wall was in Israel, instead of the US's diplomatic stance that the Western Wall is in Jersusalem.

http://www.postandcourier.com/politics/nikki-haley-finds-herself-in-diplomatic-hot-water-after-she/article_1d2fe839-59eb-51d6-b650-66bc691039f9.html

About 150,000 low-income SC residents could receive a tax break totaling $43 million as an offset to the Gas Tax

<http://www.goupstate.com/news/20170519/how-150000-low-income-workers-in-sc-will-get-tax-break>

Hayden Grooms
Manager of External Affairs
Office of the Lieutenant Governor
(803) 734-0107