Georgia O'Keeffe, Red Canna; 1919

Columbia, S.C. - The Columbia Museum of Art is hosting a diverse line-up of events celebrating the exhibitions Georgia O'Keeffe: Her Carolina Story and Independent Spirits: Women Artists of South Carolina this week.

Creating Her Carolina Story with Will South and Jackie Adams

Friday, October 16 | Noon

In this talk, CMA Chief Curator Will South and Columbia College's Goodall Gallery Coordinator Jackie Adams discuss the process behind the organization and installation of the Georgia O'Keeffe exhibition, the O'Keeffe centennial celebration, and the artist's time in Columbia. Free with membership or admission.

Indie Spirit Concert

Sunday, October 18 | 2:00 - 5:00 p.m.

The CMA, along with Girls Rock Columbia, is excited to celebrate the women who continue to keep the pioneering spirit of Georgia O'Keeffe alive in the arts with the Indie Spirit concert. This concert and day of family-friendly activities is a celebration of women and the arts featuring live performances from local ladies Paisley Suttlemyre, My Brother My Sister, Falling Off a Building, Debbie and the Skanks, and The Prairie Willows. Indie Spirit is an all-ages event and is held outside on Boyd Plaza. Bar sponsored by The Whig. Food provided by The Wurst Wagon . Free admission.

SCETV Documentary: A Woman on Paper

Thursdays | 2:00 p.m.

Sundays | 3:00 p.m.

During the exhibition Georgia O'Keeffe: Her Carolina Story, the CMA screens SCETV's documentary exploring O'Keeffe's time in Columbia on Thursdays and Sundays in the auditorium. Free.

Batik Workshop with Independent Spirits Artist Mary Edna Fraser

Saturday, October 17, and Sunday, October 18 | 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Every individual has a sense of place and personal landscape to map. Working with procion dyes, master dyer and educator Mary Edna Fraser helps you realize your design ideas. Fraser demonstrates the ancient processes of layering color through painterly techniques and other tricks of the trade. Fraser brings thirty-five years of experience to this two-day workshop. $350 / $280 for members.

As a thank you for the incredible efforts responding to the effects of the recent flooding, the CMA also announces that free admission is offered through November to first responders and their families. These members of our community have been working tirelessly to help our city in this tough time.

About the CMA

The Columbia Museum of Art is a charitable nonprofit organization dedicated to lifelong learning and community enrichment for all. Located in the heart of downtown Columbia, SC, CMA ranks among the leading art institutions in the country and is distinguished by its innovative exhibitions and creative educational programs. At the heart of the CMA and its programs is its collection, which encompasses nearly 7,000 works and spans thousands of years of history, representing a range of world cultures. Established in 1950, the CMA now welcomes more than 135,000 visitors annually and is a catalyst for community creativity, engaging people of all ages and backgrounds with a diverse spectrum of programming, from exhibitions and lectures to concerts, Arts & Draughts parties, and free family programs. It is the recipient of a National Art Education Association award for its contributions to arts education and an Elizabeth O'Neill Verner Governor's Award for the Arts for outstanding contributions to the arts in South Carolina.
