Not sure this event is one we'd be able to get to given how busy the year, particularly while we have session, is going to be. Especially in the month of April. I have no strong case to make for doing the event.

Hi Nicole,

I wanted to follow up on my email below to see if Gov. Haley might be interested in doing an event here at the Y.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Many thanks!

Hi Nicole,

I hope this finds you well! My name is Kris Simmons and I'm part of the programming team here at 92Y in New York City. On behalf of our moderator Jeff Greenfield and 92Y, we'd like to extend Gov. Nikki Haley an invitation to be a guest in Jeff's upcoming "In the News" series. The interview series is now celebrating its 35th year of presenting newsmakers, thought, and political leaders who have impacted the world we live in. Past guests have included: Doris Kearns Goodwin, Rachel Maddow, David Brooks, Tom Brokaw, John McCain, Madeleine Albright, among others.

Along with our 900 seat hall, we also have the opportunity to share our content with the wider world through our on-demand site. Should the Governor be interested in participating, the dates we have available are Sunday evenings, April 3 or 24. However, if neither of these dates suit the Governor's schedule, we will work with her schedule and offer alternative ones.

We believe the time is ripe for a real civic and civil dialogue on the future of America and Election 2016. Governor Haley's voice on our stage will make a difference in the quality of this discourse and will mean so much to our audience.

I very much look forward to hearing from you and please let me know if you have any questions.

Many thanks!

Kris Simmons
