<http://floridamultifamilysummit.com/wp-content/uploads/2014/07/A-Falcone-CBREFL-100x150.jpg> Art Falcone, Founding Principal, Miami Worldcenter

Arthur Falcone has over 35 years of executive experience and a proven track record of success in all areas of real estate. As the founding principal of Miami Worldcenter, his vision and expertise were pivotal to its creation. Mr. Falcone is also the cofounder and managing principal of Encore Capital Management, a diversified, multiple-fund real estate investment and development firm with more than $1 billion under its management. Prior to founding Encore, he was the CEO and chairman of the board of the Falcone Group, a vertically integrated real estate and land development organization. Mr. Falcone serves on the board of trustees for Nova Southeastern University, where, in 2006, he was inducted into the school's Entrepreneur Hall of Fame. He is also actively involved in Crohn's and Colitis charities, the Junior Achievement Hall of Fame, and SOS Children's Village.

<http://floridamultifamilysummit.com/wp-content/uploads/2014/07/N-Motwani-CBREFL-100x150.jpg> Nitin Motwani, Managing Principal, Miami Worldcenter

Nitin Motwani has been the managing principal of Miami Worldcenter since 2006. He is responsible for everything from land acquisition, zoning, and entitlements to financing, joint ventures, and development. Mr. Motwani is also a managing director of Encore Capital Management, which currently has over $1 billion of investments across the country, including holdings in Florida, California, Texas, and Arizona. Earlier in his career, Mr. Motwani was the president of Merrimac Ventures. He is also actively involved in building the Miami community, through his roles as the chair of the Economic Development and Technology/Marketing and Communications Committees of Miami's Downtown Development Authority. Mr. Motwani is a member of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and the Beacon Council. He is also a co-chair of the nonprofit Operation Hope for Haiti, which has helped Haiti position itself for a sustainable, long-term recovery tied to economic development, education, and health.

As President and Chief Development Officer of All Aboard Florida, P. Michael Reininger is responsible for delivering the project's built environment, including the rail infrastructure, stations and transit-oriented real estate development. He and President and Chief Operating Officer Donald C. Robinson will work together to define All Aboard Florida's brand and customer service experience. Prior to joining All Aboard Florida in 2012, Mr. Reininger was managing partner for the Union Station Neighborhood Company in Denver, Colo. He also managed the development of several major projects during a 12-year tenure with subsidiaries of The Walt Disney Company, including Disney Vacation Club, Disneyland Paris and Disney Cruise Line. Mr. Reininger previously served as Executive Vice President and Chief Development Officer for AECOM and Senior Vice President of Creative Services and Corporate Marketing for the St. Joe Company. Mr. Reininger holds a Bachelor of Architecture, Design Specialization from Texas Tech University and executive certifications in resort and hotel master planning, financial engineering and business management from Harvard University School of Design, Harvard Business School and Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
