Mr. Stringer,

I'm slightly embarrassed to send this to you in the form that is in, but I wanted you to have something over the weekend.

The blue language is conforming stuff we have added.

I have made slight changes to the tax stuff, but may continue to tinker. I was a part of that language from the start, and evidently I want to make changes to my own stuff.

I also added the road tax provisions that the Governor's Office forgot, but is included within the estimate from RFA.

We will be back at it Monday morning, but again, just wanted you to have something.

David
