Hi, I'm Jasmine Commerce, a professional female musician new to Charleston (solo guitarist/singer). I would love to be added to your roster of artists. I've worked extensively as a soloist (mainly in California) playing weddings, corporate events, 5 star hotels, clubs, etc., as well as having toured with my original music.

Here are some links to YouTube vids where you can hear me live:

Collaboration with Taylor Guitars:

I play most Sundays 2-5pm at the Vendue Rooftop downtown if you want to stop by to listen live (not this Sunday as it's July 4th weekend and I won't be in town).

If you think I'd be a good fit, please feel free to text or call or email. Text is usually fastest! :)

Thank you!
