Subject: Sit-down request

Hey Chaney,

I'm requesting a sit-down with the governor to discuss the 2016 election. Jamie will likely conduct the interview, but she's out this week so I'm trying to get the request in early for your planning purposes. Ideally, we'd like to have the sit-down happen before Thursday.

We (through Vera) are talking to members of the federal delegation. We also plan to reach out to other S.C. GOP leaders - Matt Moore, Henry McMaster, etc.

Questions include:

- Can GOP nominee Donald Trump keep saying whatever he wants?
- Have your feelings changed about Trump from the beginning of the election cycle until now?
- Is there a point where a good Democrat or a good Republican has to set aside party and vote according to what they think is best for America? what is that point for you?
- What do you think Trump should do between now and November that could reassure voters he is the best candidate?

Thanks,
