Fox Morning News (News)

... ... the republican field is deeper and more talented than it was in 2012. senators are holding a second hearing to ask questions of the woman picked by gov. nikki haley to lead south carolina's embattled d-s-s. members of the senate general committee are meeting again with susan alford today. haley picked alford to replace lillian koller, who resigned last year only a day before the senate was expected to take up a no-confidence vote ...
