South Carolina State Parks

at 17:39:13 on 8/14/2009 UTC

We had a great day at Sesquicentennial in Columbia. There's so much to do at Sesqui -- and it's hard to believe it's right smack dab in the middle of town. Come out and picnic, rent a peddle boat or canoe, fish, camp and more! For more information on the park check us out at:

Sesquicentennial State Park in Columbia

Reid Price I used to do Volunteer work at Sesqui from age 12-17. I miss The Park Naturalist Tammy Southerland, and the many summers that I worked out there in the Nature Center. (Last I checked, the Nature center is no more... I think the building is used as the Park Offices now T_T) Good Memories though.
