A full page of blank graph paper with a uniform grid of small squares. The grid consists of 20 columns and 20 rows, creating a total of 400 small squares. The lines are thin and black, set against a white background. There are no margins or additional markings on the page.This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The page is divided into three equal-width vertical columns by two faint vertical lines. Each column contains ten sets of horizontal lines, with each set consisting of four parallel lines. This format is commonly used for teaching handwriting or basic typing skills.
