Displaying the confederate flag at state facilities promotes continued racial discrimination and sends the message that the state supports that behavior and continued hatred and violence against others. You have a responsibility to take a strong stand against racial discrimination and take down the confederate flag. It is a message that reflects poorly on the entire nation.

I too grieve for the nine victims of the heinous Charleston massacre, for their families as well as members of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church. I hope you will take time out of your schedule to attend services for the victims.

I know that now is not the moment to demonstrate leadership concerning the symbols of hate that may have influenced the killer. That said ignoring our state's festering wounds has gone on far too long. After the victims have been laid to rest, I hope you will speak up and speak out. It's delusional to claim that flying the Confederate flag on the South Carolina State House grounds is about heritage. I will not bother to go into depth about the Tillman statue other than to say it needs to be moved to a museum as well.

Excerpted from Ta-Nehisi Coates piece in The Atlantic.

"Take down the flag. Take it down now.

Put it in a museum. Inscribe beneath it the years 1861-2015. Move forward. Abandon this charlatanism. Drive out this cult of death and chains. Save your lovely souls. Move forward. Do it now."

Dear Governor Haley -

My husband and I were very close to finalizing plans to spend 3 nights at the Vendue in downtown Charleston, followed by a week in a condo at a beach/golf resort further down the coast.

Last night while following the news of the race-motivated slaughter at Emmanuel Church, we heard that the confederate flag was nevertheless flying at full staff on the South Carolina Capitol grounds and we were horrified.

Suddenly, Charleston, S.C. has lost it's former perceived "charm" for us.

We decided this morning to bag the Charleston vacation plans entirely, in favor of a trip to St. Augustine, Florida but will continue to follow with interest any news regarding the confederate flag in your sad state.

I am a 66 year old white man with a college education and retired professional management career.

I have traveled to SC many time for business and pleasure and have enjoyed my time there. I have now decided not to travel to SC any longer. There appears to be an old culture present that conflicts with many of my values, beginning with the flying confederate flag. While I hold the 1st amendment dear, there are some symbols that do not represent anything good and decent to reasonable people. That flag is polarizing and condones a certain culture of disrespect to others.

While I can not do anything about your politics, I can choose to spend my recreational dollars elsewhere.

Respectfully yours,

It's this law that Republican Gov. Nikki Haley is falling back on to excuse the flag's glaring presence during this time of mourning; a spokesman says the governor "does not have legal authority" to do anything about it.

But that's actually not true. The law itself says that the provision preventing the flag's removal "shall not apply to the maintenance and repair of the monument." All Haley has to do is send a member of the grounds crew up there and say that something needs fixing. Then we'd see if any Republican legislators have the temerity to complain. It won't happen-Haley would never have the guts-but it should.

"What we hope is that we do the things South Carolinians do, which is have the conversation, allow some thoughtful words to be exchanged, be kind about it, come together on what we're trying to achieve and how we're trying to do it," Haley told CBS on Friday. "I think the state will start talking about that again, and we'll see where it goes."

I am hoping you honor the lives of the people murdered in Charleston by being honest and apolitical. Take down the confederate flag, acknowledge this was a terrorist attack by a racist, and acknowledged there is a real need for gun control.

If you don't admit that is what is needed, you are being dishonest....typical conservative Republican, full of empty words.

This is your moment of history - a true revolutionary fork in the road for South Carolina.

This is your opportunity to lead South Carolina out of its historical roots of white racism and white prejudice.

This is the time to stop characterizing the racial murder as a "mental health" event. It is a racist-hate-crime borne out of the filthy hate that your supporters voice in the quiet of your private conversations with them.

This is the time to tell your prejudiced supports and bigot acquaintances that you will no longer ignore the conditions that our government treats minorities.

This is the time to let the U.S. Federal Courts to try this murderer as a racist that he is; not a sick misguided deranged person as you are attempting to do. The entire racist history of this state needs to be exposed in an historical record, as it is what gives rise to this one incident driven by our historical racial hate. We need this to disavow this inheritance. Future generations need to learn from where we came from.

This is the time to advance hate crime legislation in South Carolina.

This is the time to recognize the past injustices created out of our wealth disparities supported by the political establishment of South Carolina and provide a modicum of health services either through enhanced state services or enrollment into Medicare, invest in equity in the distribution of the educational funds.

This is the time to remove that racist flag off the capital grounds.

And I must say I cannot understand why a company like Volvo will move to South Carolina as the racism will work its way into the worker-supervisor relationships as they do at Boeing. No responsible corporate leader should consider relocating to our state in the face to the subvocal racism that permeates this state's legislative leaders despite the financial incentives provided.

The opportunity afforded you today, if you take the challenge, can move our state forward; or backwards if you fail to lead in making the changes needed.

You above all should know that what the state needs is leadership to lay the foundation for a healthy future in South Carolina.

Please take us down the road leading out of the two-tiered values now held to a place where we are free of the current bigotry, contradiction and prejudice.

South Carolinians DO NOT "absolutely want" the death penalty for alleged shooter Dylann Roof. They absolutely want the end of the silent racism and political racial hypocrisy.

Dear Governor Haley,

In the name of all that is respectful and respectable, remove the confederate flag from the state capitol.

Also, the murder of nine innocent people the other day was a hate crime. In addition, the killer ASSASSINATED a public official - which no one has mentioned. This is absolutely outrageous and infuriating.

How long with this insanity and racism continue?

Thank you for reading.

Sincerely,

Ruth [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, my heart aches for you and your state but in the name of all that is good please consider taking down the confederate flag, it is a symbol of all that is wrong in this world and symbolizes a still divided south from the north. The Civil War has long since ended the symbols of hatred still remain. I urge you to do what is proper and correct. Thank you for your courtesies in these most trying times.

Though it is a legislative prerogative,i think that an executive order ordering the obscene confederate battle flag removed from the statehouse grounds would not be out of place.Isn't it enough that the civil war started here,that Strom Thurmond was your long time senator.I would like to suggest divesting in the Army and instituting the KKK as the official militia of your proud state.

How can a person of South Indian heritage be the darling of such a racist organization as the tea

In the interest of preventing more racist murders in your state, don't you think it's time you took that racist flag down from your capitol? It's time to rid your state of the ignorance of the confederacy once and for all. Your heroes shouldn't be people who actually fought to own their fellow human beings.

I have only traveled through South Carolina, not in it, so it was quite a shock for me to learn the following:

There is no hate-crime legislation in South Carolina.

The pro-slavery Confederate Flag still very prominently displayed in public places.

Is it possible I am still living in the 60s? There are HUGE issues associated with the recent murders in Charleston, and there are a lot of reforms needed. I hope you and others in South Carolina State government can work to ensure that all SC citizens are treated with respect and dignity, not just selected populations.

If you are truly shocked and want to make a change in your state, take that DAMN confederate flag down! You are sending very mixed messages. Do the right thing! Don't allow a few old white men run your state.

The last time my husband and I visited Hilton Head and Charleston, the presence of clear racism in South Carolina was so obvious that my relatively conservative husband said he would never step foot in your state again.

It is time that you look in the mirror and see what others see. It isn't very pretty. When you breed hatred it has consequences. Unfortunately the consequences have once again fallen on the black community.

It is time to take down that flag, stop singing Dixie at public gatherings, take down the confederate statues, rename your streets, highways and buildings and emerge from the dark ages. How is it possible for you to be surprised?

Shame on you all!

Dear Governor Haley,

My wife, daughter, son-in-law, and I are in the process of planning a 10 day driving vacation for early December. One of the options we were seriously considering was a drive that would take us through South Carolina, a state none of us have ever been to. In light of the choice your state has made to leave the Confederate Flag flying even after the horrible, racist-filled act of terrorism in your state this week, the unanimous decision was that not only would we not be traveling to your state and spending our money there this December, but that none of us will be doing so at any time until your state decides to enter the 21st Century and remove that symbol of hatred and racism from any and all state properties. We will also be vigorously encouraging our friends to cease their golfing trips to Myrtle Beach, etc. and will be encouraging all of our business and professional organizations to stop all plans to bring conventions, etc. to South Carolina.

First, I thank you for your service to this country and to the state of South Carolina. I have a request, if you have time to read it and take action, I would be eternally grateful.

Please help stop the ignorant, violent white-supremacist thugs in South Carolina who perpetrate racial attacks. PLEASE. These inbred, depraved hicks who fly the Confederate flag have the audacity to speak for ME???? I am a white woman and I have never been raped by a black man. I do NOT want to be "spoken for" or "acted on the behalf of" by TERRORISTS. I am a law abiding, peaceful American and I ask that my tax dollars be used to track down these white supremacist terror groups and that they be handled as terrorists. Subject them to the same procedures as all other terrorists. OR put them in the general population of the most violent prisons and let the inmates handle it. But, maybe not, since there are so many white power idiots already there, they would just be welcomed with open arms as freedom fighters. So, never-mind. Please handle them as terrorists.

I thank you for your time and your service,
 Mrs. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley and Staff,

In light of this week's tragedy here in Charleston, I hope you will hear the voices of the citizens of this state. It's time to make a change. It's time to move forward in unity and progress. We have a chance to show the country what is right before another tragedy strikes, before another innocent life is lost. This is no longer about individuals. It's about the country. It's about the community. It's time to make changes by fighting for gun safety and control and it's time to show ALL the citizens of our state that we are proud to be standing with them, united for the greater good.

Please work with our people to provide better gun control. Work with us to get the Confederate flag - a symbol of hate - off the state house grounds. Change the names of streets that shame the African American community into making them feel they are less than what they are. We need to unify with them and for them. It's 2015. And it's time for change.

Please make South Carolina proud. Make us stand out as an example from this tragedy of how to unite as both a state and a nation.

Elizabeth [REDACTED]

This horrific tragedy in your state SHOULD be enough to give you the courage to stand up to the NRA and do something about guns. Other countries have the same rates of mental illness, and they have racism--what they don't have is these tragedies because those people cannot obtain guns. And, please, get rid of that horrible confederate flag. It may as well be a swastika--and that would not be allowed. Thank you.

Dear Nikki Randhawa Haley--I you REALLY want to promote healing in your state, I would respectfully suggest that you begin by removing the confederate "battle flag" that is displayed in your state capital. To anyone outside of a small group of fanatics, it represents a sad time in our history when people fought to keep a way of life that depended upon the enslavement of human beings to maintain their economic system. It is disgraceful, and impedes any progress toward racial reconciliation in our nation. As a second step, you should seriously consider a Peace and Reconciliation commission to tell the truth about racism in your state.

Sincerely,

Helen [REDACTED]

I am a property owner in McCormack S.C. I am a registered voter in Pa. Please extend my condolences to the people of Charleston. We need leadership at all levels of government to unites this country. Your state flies a flag of a "country" that attacked the USA. I have your statements on this, whick basically no answer. Get some courage and stand up! Your stand on this issue is a sign to me that you have no courage. You all the governor of all SC citizens.

This country is crying out for leadership; you stance on this issue shows me a total lack of courage and leadership.

If you response to this, no political gobbley-gook please.

Stand up,help South Carolina and the USA!!

Dear Governor

I noticed you appeared to chock up and appeared bewildered, on your comments about the murder of some of your citizens in a house of worship in Charleston, and you appeared to be baffled by it all.

MY understanding is that there are at least 8 hate organizations based, or have offices in your state including the KKK, and that your state fly's the confederate flag with pride I assume, and have a memorial to the soldiers of that war, that parents sent/approved going to kill and be killed so that those that lived might have the right to own people of color, and that same mindset appears to be held by that 21 year old admitted murderer, and you and those in power can not understand that. You need to look in the mirror or read a history book if you are still bewildered, is my opinion

Thanks

Bob [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

Please make sure the confederate flag is removed from the capitol grounds. It's a damned sorry thing that has no place there. It is gross, embarrassing and hurtful to ALL South Carolinians, especially those who think it's good.

If you say it is for the Legislature to decide, I say you must come out against it. You are for the good of South Carolina. You are for a future that cannot include racist government. There is so much that needs improvement here. Removing that backward symbol of hate, a history of hate, is a necessary beginning.

My sincerest best wishes,
Allison [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

You yourself acknowledged that the terrible events in Charleston are a hate crime. Why are you allowing a symbol of hate to continue flying about the state house? It's time for my home state to accept that the Confederate flag is not history, it's hate.

Also, please remember, South Carolina does not have a hate crimes law, so despite you calling it a hate crime, the shooter can't be prosecuted for it by the state - you have to wait for the federal government to get involved - and that is, in part, YOUR fault because you argued against it. You do not have the right to act outraged about something that you have failed to do anything about.

Signed,
A sad South Carolina native

Dear Governor,

I just saw your interview where you were questioned about the Confederate flag still flying near the statehouse. Your comments on bringing people together and having a "thoughtful" conversation were a clear demonstration of weakness as a leader and lack of consideration for the people of your own state as well as the image of the nation. Show some true leadership and tell the country that YOU do not plan on tolerating this anymore and that YOU will do all that you can to make this change.

Take a stand, just like the members of the civil rights movement did.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor,

My family were deeply sadden by the killings this week. Our thoughts and prays are with those families and the people of South Caroline.

My hope is that the leadership of South Caroline will take action to remove the Confederate flag from any public building in your state. It's a symbol of hate, slavery and all things bad. Yes, it is part of the history but a sad part of history.

Best Regards,

Gayle King asked you the above question this morning....and You BLEW IT!
 I don't even live in your state and I'm furious.

"But, what's your position on issue?" plain and simple...and you would not take one. What a coward! This was your chance to be on the right side of history and you blew it.

"I'm not doing that to the people of my state." - Are you serious?!!!! By not acting with courage, you are exactly doing "that" to the people of your state. Whatever "that" is...because you never said what "that" is...in my opinion....it's oppression.

Take the flag down. you've had to terms. If you don't get elected again, you can at least leave office with some dignity.

You, Governor, helped put the shooter in that church. You, governor, fly that Confederate battle flag over the capitol. You, governor, promote legislation that puts guns in the hands of racists and murderers.

You, Governor, are responsible. Not as responsible as he who pulled the trigger. But YOU, for political gain, gave it to him and his fellow travellers. YOU, for cheap political expedience, promote the theology of hatred that infected him and his fellow travellers.

Change your ways. Save your soul.

Governor Haley, you are wrong, now IS the time to discuss sensible gun regulation. When the blood is still on the hands of people such as yourself who do not support sensible gun regulation. By your criteria there will never be a good time to discuss this matter, as Americans will be killed every day as long as you favor the paranoid National Rifle Association agenda over common sense and ordinary citizens' rights not to be killed by lunatics.

Your failure to remove the racist Confederate flag is equally appalling. Heritage be damned, black people are being murdered.

No, governor Haley. When the heart and soul of South Carolina is broken, then racism in America will be dead. You can start by taking down the traitorous, racist flag flying so high over your hateful state. Then get behind gun-control in a nation in love with guns and violence. Shame, shame shame on all of your hate-enabling souls...

In addition to my previous email urging you to push for gun control legislation in our state, I have another message for you: take down the Confederate flag in Columbia. Put it in a museum along with other Civil War relics. It should be a teaching tool to show people what a symbol of hate and betrayal looks like, and how people are swayed to rally behind such objects. As a symbol of racism and divisiveness, it does not belong in our state capital. Thank you.

Every day the Confederate flag flies over the South Carolina state house is a day that you endorse the slaughter of African Americans.

Here is an excerpt from the Corner Stone speech by Alexander H. Stephens, given in Savannah, Georgia on March 21, 1861:

"Our new government is founded upon exactly the opposite idea; its foundations are laid, its corner-stone rests, upon the great truth that the negro is not equal to the white man; that slavery subordination to the superior race is his natural and normal condition. This, our new government, is the first, in the history of the world, based upon this great physical, philosophical, and moral truth."

Don't pretend it is about anything else. You and every member of the legislature that has keep that symbol of slavery, murder and plunder of black lives displayed are accessories to Dylann Roof's crime.

Take it down now and repudiate everything it stands for.

An appropriate response to this terrorist act would be to change the state flag to one that is not a symbol of violent racial oppression.

Those who do not learn from our history, are doomed to repeat it.

Thank you,

Dear Governor Haley,

I write to ask you to please remove the confederate flag from government places. It is a divisive symbol that is undermining our unity in the wake of the shooting in Charleston. I was born and raised in Charleston, and I'm a proud South Carolinian. I'm an attorney in Charleston, I follow South Carolina politics closely, and I love our state. I know this is a difficult choice, and you will face some opposition, but I'm confident it is the right choice for our state.

I think we have done a great job of showing the world that South Carolina is a place where all people are respected and loved. We need to take it one step further. We've forced black South Carolinians to listen to the pretextual historical justifications long enough. It's time to drown those arguments out with the voice of progress and unity. What better time to make this move than the anniversary of the abolition of slavery? Thank you for taking the time to read this and I truly hope you dig deep and consider the morality of this choice and the unifying message that will reverberate across the nation if you take action on this point.

With kind regards,
Lindsay [REDACTED]

South Carolina has become a national disgrace, your state has provided the world with a view of the very alive and ever increasing racism and bigotry that exists in the US.

I am a decorated war veteran, and your state makes me ashamed to ever have served this country! The fact that you embrace, dignify and glorify racist symbols like the confederate flag, your confederate monuments, and the roads, schools and institutions you've named after confederate generals. I will do my best to hurt tourism and business in your state.

The world finally sees South Carolina for what you are, a state steeped in terrorist violence against African Americans, for hundreds of years, and one that loves the history of that state sponsored terrorism. You should feel as disgusting as you are to let these things continue. If you glorify them as a state, than the people that live in your state will glorify them as well. This disgusting terrorist is just a footnote in your history.

Shame on you Nikki Haley, shame on any politician pushing for confederate symbols in your state. Shame on those of you that stand by and do nothing while those symbols are so carefully tended to with dollars from your African American tax payers. Complicit or complacent, you are all disgusting and should be ashamed!
