NEW RESIDENT AT CROFT! This Bald Eagle has taken up residence on Lake Craig at Croft for the past several months, and soars the shorelines daily. Next time you're at Croft keep your eagle eye out for our newest resident.

Sylvia Ligon We saw him a couple weeks ago. One of many times caught w/o my camera in hand!!

Neil Owens Any particular place it hangs out most? I'll have to get by there this weekend.

Terri Farkas How Awesome. Where is Croft?

at 13:28:48 on 4/13/2011 UTC

Sylvia Ligon We were camping in the "30's" From there we took the trail on edge of lake heading north [go left if facing lake] probably hiked 15-20 mins when we saw him.

South Carolina State Parks Neil, the eagle has been spotted more often on the Kelsey Creek side of Lake Craig. However, it does move a lot so it may be seen in different places on Lake Craig. Terri, Croft is located in Spartanburg. Here's a link:

Sue Ann Tarkenton Fabulous! I've been following the Eagle Cam in VA. Has anyone else been watching the three eaglets? We will take a road trip to Croft this weekend!
