

COSTA PLEICONES

November 23

Dear Ambassador-Designate,

Please know how glad I am for you, and how proud I am for the credit you reflect upon our state.

As I move into the next phase of my life - whatever that will be - I look forward to following you ever more illustrious career of public service.

Yours is a great American story which I believe is destined for even greater things.

Congratulations and best wishes. CP