Love the new State Park guides - the stamps don't smear! I have a question - does each person in a family need their own guide, or can they share one and each get a t-shirt?

We'd like for each family member to have their own, BUT you can share and get a shirt too. You will need to make sure you tell the ranger who signs the book at your final park that you need more than one shirt and mark that accordingly. Glad you like the books!

Thank you for your reply. I'm the director of a homeschool association (Carolina Homeschooler <https://www.facebook.com/carolinahomeschooler> and also do trips around the world <https://www.facebook.com/travelinghomeschoolers/>) and plan a lot of "Outsiders" events for my members/travelers. We do day trips, campouts, ranger programs, special programs like sleepovers at Atalaya, and rented the whole campground at Dreher for a Solar Eclipse Campout. I *love" SC state parks! I just wanted to make sure I was advising families correctly (I was telling them one book per person, so I'll keep telling them that since it's what you prefer.
