I understand -- good luck as session winds down and first week in July is good -- maybe tuesday the 3rd if you are going to be around?

I will if I can escape, but next T/W/R are the final critical days of session, so I probably won't be able to. Maybe we can catch up that first week in July?

Thanks for the note and glad our efforts are being noticed.

We have a team that worked on the SAP public budget module (before it was acquired by SAP) coming to talk with us next Tuesday from 12-1:30. I've invited Les Boles and Jimmy Early as well and wanted to see if you would be interested in joining us as well.

Hey,

I mentioned this to Tony yesterday - a friend of my from PA's Department of Public Welfare saw your talk at HITECH in Baltimore. He sent me a note last week with a real positive review.

Once we get through session (if?), we oughta get coffee again...
