

Gazette of the State of South-Carolina
Charlestown, South Carolina
12 May 1777 to 9 February 1780

DR. ANDERSON; mustee; doctor

Valk, Jacob

RUN AWAY, A MUSTEE FELLOW; he was seen about a Month ago, near Strawberry [Ferry]; amongst others of his villainous Practices, gives himself out for a DOCTOR, by the Name of Mr. or DOCTOR ANDERSON, pretends to be free, and from Virginia. Whoever will apprehend the said Fellow, and deliver him to me, in Charles-Town, shall have Fifty Pounds currency Reward. JACOB VALK.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 12 May 1777.]

YORK

Russell, Nathaniel

RUN away from the Distillery at Rumney, Three Negroes, viz. YORK, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and about 26 Years old; JACK, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high; these two had on blue Jackets, white Negro Cloth Trowsers, Osnabrug Shirts, and each an Iron Clog, on his Leg. CATO, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high, about 32 Years old, has a Blemish in one of his Eyes. They are all well known on

Charles-Town Neck. Whoever will bring them, or either of them, to the Work-house, or to the Subscriber in Charles-Town, shall be paid Ten Pounds for each of them. NATHANIEL RUSSELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 12 May 1777.]

JACK

Russell, Nathaniel

RUN away from the Distillery at Rumney, Three Negroes, viz. YORK, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and about 26 Years old; JACK, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high; these two had on blue Jackets, white Negro Cloth Trowsers, Osnabrug Shirts, and each an Iron Clog, on his Leg. CATO, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high, about 32 Years old, has a Blemish in one of his Eyes. They are all well known on

Charles-Town Neck. Whoever will bring them, or either of them, to the Work-house, or to the Subscriber in Charles-Town, shall be paid Ten Pounds for each of them. NATHANIEL RUSSELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 12 May 1777.]

CATO

Russell, Nathaniel

RUN away from the Distillery at Rumney, Three Negroes, viz. YORK, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and about 26 Years old; JACK, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high; these two had on blue Jackets, white Negro Cloth Trowsers, Osnabrug Shirts, and each an Iron Clog, on his Leg. CATO, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high, about 32 Years old, has a Blemish in one of his Eyes. They are all well known on

Charles-Town Neck. Whoever will bring them, or either of them, to the Work-house, or to the Subscriber in Charles-Town, shall be paid Ten Pounds for each of them. NATHANIEL RUSSELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 12 May 1777.]

JUNE; fisherman; carter; wife: Charlotte

Gaillard, Theodore; Simons, Benjamin

RUN away some Time ago, a stout likely Negro Man, named JUNE, and his Wife CHARLOTTE, a likely lusty Wench, both of them lately belonged to Mr. Benjamin Simons of Scott's Ferry. It is imagined that they are harboured in or about Charles-Town, or the lower part of Goose-Creek Parish: the Fellow was formerly a Carter about the Town, and sometimes followed Fishing. A Reward of FIFTY POUNDS will be paid for apprehending and delivering the said Fellow in Charles-Town, and TEN POUNDS for the Wench. THEODORE GAILLARD, jun. If they will return within thirty Days, of their own free Will, their past Offences will be forgiven.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 26 May 1777.]

AUGUST

Doughty, Thomas

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 26 May 1777.]

See AUGUST in other newspapers.

TOM

Benfield, John

RUN away from the subscriber the 12th Instant, his Negro Boy TOM, about 16 Years of Age, stout and well made, he is known well in Town and at Dorchester. Whoever will take up the said Boy, and send him to the Workhouse, may receive FIVE POUNDS Reward: But if any Person will give Information of his being harbored and employed (which I have Reason to believe he is) a Reward of Fifty Pounds will be given on Conviction of the Person So offending. JOHN BENFIELD.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 26 May 1777.]

SAMPSON; b. South Carolina

Evance, Thomas; Lewis, Daniel

RUN away from the Subscriber's Plantation on Wambaw Swamp, St. James Santee, about a Month ago, a Negro fellow, this country born, named SAMPSON, of a yellowish Complexion, about 5 feet seven Inches high, and speaks good English. Whoever takes him up, and will deliver him to Daniel Lewis, at said plantation, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to me in Ansonborough, shall receive Seven Pounds Reward, besides reasonable Charges. THOMAS EVANCE.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 2 June 1777.]

JENNY; b. South Carolina; seamstress; laundress; 1 daughter

Hort, William

RUN away on Wednesday the 11th Of June, Instant, from my Plantation on John's Island, a Negro Wench, named JENNY, Country born, about 27 Years of Age, about five Feet high, Slim made, and has a round Face; she took her Child with her, a Girl near threeYears of Age. She absented herself last Summer, passed for a free Wench, and both workt out and took in Needle-work, Washing and Ironing, in and near Charles-Town; she is very artful and plausible, and may attempt to do the same again. All Persons are hereby forewarned from carrying her out of the State, or over any River or Ferry, or harbour, conceal, entertain or employ her, on any Pretence whatsoever, as they may depend upon being Prosecuted with the utmost Rigour of the Law. On Conviction of any so offending, if a white Person, a Reward of One Hundred Pounds currency will be paid; if a Negro, Indian, or Mulatto, Twenty Pounds. Likewise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, with all reasonable Charges, will be paid to any Person that shall apprehend and deliver her and the Child to me on John's Island [Johns Island], or in Charles-Town. WILLIAM HORT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

ANONYMOUS GIRL; mother: Jenny

Hort, William

RUN away on Wednesday the 11th Of June, Instant, from my Plantation on John's Island, a Negro Wench, named JENNY, Country born, about 27 Years of Age, about five Feet high, Slim made, and has a round Face; she took her Child with her, a Girl near threeYears of Age. She absented herself last Summer, passed for a free Wench, and both workt out and took in Needle-work, Washing and Ironing, in and near Charles-Town; she is very artful and plausible, and may attempt to do the same again. All Persons are hereby forewarned from carrying her out of the State, or over any River or Ferry, or harbour, conceal, entertain or employ her, on any Pretence whatsoever, as they may depend upon being Prosecuted with the utmost Rigour of the Law. On Conviction of any so offending, if a white Person, a Reward of One Hundred Pounds currency will be paid; if a Negro, Indian, or Mulatto, Twenty Pounds. Likewise a Reward of Twenty Pounds, with all reasonable Charges, will be paid to any Person that shall apprehend and deliver her and the Child to me on John's Island [Johns Island], or in Charles-Town. WILLIAM HORT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

SAMPSON; b. South Carolina; wife: Phebe; Phoebe; Fibbey

Dwight, Samuel

RUN away from the subscriber, at Little River, in Prince George's Parish, and supposed to have made for the Back Parts of the state, two NEGROES, viz. SAMPSON, a likely, well-made, strong, black Fellow, about five Feet ten Inches high, born in this State, has a scar on the top of his Head, and another on the top of his right Foot, leading from his great Toe upwards. PHEBE, Wife to Sampson, she is of a yellowish complexion, and of the Eboe Country, speaks tolerably plain, her Teeth filed, has very clumsy legs, and her great Toes turn inwards, she is about 5 Feet 5 or 6 Inches high. I will pay Twenty Pounds to any Person that will deliver them to me, or confine them in any of the Gaols of this State, or Ten Pounds for either, and all reasonable Charges. SAMUEL DWIGHT. N.B. Sampson stands convicted of a murder committed in North-Carolina, and if taken must be well confined, he being an artful Villain.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

See SAMPSON in other newspapers.

PHEBE; PHOEBE; FIBBEY; b. Africa; Ibo; filed teeth; Namibian mutation?; husband: Sampson

Dwight, Samuel

RUN away from the subscriber, at Little River, in Prince George's Parish, and supposed to have made for the Back Parts of the state, two NEGROES, viz. SAMPSON, a likely, well-made, strong, black Fellow, about five Feet ten Inches high, born in this State, has a scar on the top of his Head, and another on the top of his right Foot, leading from his great Toe upwards. PHEBE, Wife to Sampson, she is of a yellowish complexion, and of the Eboe Country, speaks tolerably plain, her Teeth filed, has very clumsy legs, and her great Toes turn inwards, she is about 5 Feet 5 or 6 Inches high. I will pay Twenty Pounds to any Person that will deliver them to me, or confine them in any of the Gaols of this State, or Ten Pounds for either, and all reasonable Charges. SAMUEL DWIGHT. N.B. Sampson stands convicted of a murder committed in North-Carolina, and if taken must be well confined, he being an artful Villain.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

See SAMPSON in other newspapers.

DILCH; husband: Free Harry?

Izard, Ralph?; Collins, John; Parker, George

RUN away from the Subscriber at Goose-Creek the 28th of December 1776, a tall, lusty, black Wench, named DILCH. Had on when she run away, a white Wrapper and Coat, and took with her a Blanket Coat, a blue Coat, a red Coat and a Blanket. Whoever delivers her to me, at Mr. Izard's Camp [plantation called The Camp], or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charles-Town, shall have a Reward of Ten Pounds; or any one who will give Information of her being harboured by a white Person, shall have Fifty Pounds, or Twenty Pounds if by a Negro. She is supposed to be harboured by Free Harry, at Mr. George Parker's Plantation, as she has been seen there. Reasonable Charges will be also allowed, by JOHN COLLINS, at Mr. Izard's Plantation.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

FREE HARRY; HARRY; wife: Dilch?

Parker, George

RUN away from the Subscriber at Goose-Creek the 28th of December 1776, a tall, lusty, black Wench, named DILCH. Had on when she run away, a white Wrapper and Coat, and took with her a Blanket Coat, a blue Coat, a red Coat and a Blanket. Whoever delivers her to me, at Mr. Izard's Camp [plantation called The Camp], or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charles-Town, shall have a Reward of Ten Pounds; or any one who will give Information of her being harboured by a white Person, shall have Fifty Pounds, or Twenty Pounds if by a Negro. She is supposed to be harboured by Free Harry, at Mr. George Parker's Plantation, as she has been seen there. Reasonable Charges will be also allowed, by JOHN COLLINS, at Mr. Izard's Plantation.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

BEN

Robinson, Robert

RUN away about a fortnight since, from his Master in Charles-Town, a Negro Boy, named BEN: He is 17 or 18 Years old, about 5 Feet high, and had on an Osnaburghs Shirt, a Ravens Duck Pair of Breeches, without Buttons to the Knees, but tie with Strings, and a Raccoon's Tail to his Hat: Whoever will bring him to the subscriber, or deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house, shall be well rewarded. ROBERT ROBINSON.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

JACK; b. South Carolina; carpenter

Dart, Benjamin

RUN away from the Subscriber, a Negro Man named JACK, this Country born, he is short and very black, about 22 Years of Age, has been several Years at the Carpenter's Trade, and is very well known in Charlestown. Whoever apprehends the said Run-away, and delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house, shall be intitled to Ten Pounds currency, besides lawful Charges. BENJAMIN DART.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 16 June 1777.]

CHARLES; mustee; speaks French & English; lived SC and Georgia

Rose, Alexander

RUN away about the Beginning of June Inst. from Mr. Alexander Rose's House in Town, a Mustee Fellow named CHARLES, well known in this State and Georgia; he is a short, well made Fellow, has bushy hair, and speaks remarkably good French and English. Ten Pounds Reward, With all reasonable Charges, will be Paid on his being delivered to the Warden of the Work-house or the Subscriber, who hereby forewarns all Masters of Vessels, French and English, not to carry him off, as they will answer the same at their Peril; he is a Very artful sensible Fellow, and may probably attempt to pass for a free Man. JOHN TORRANS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 30 June 1777.]

SCIPIO; Namibian mutation?

Clapperton, Alexander; Stoutenburgh, Mrs.; Stoutenborough

RUN away about the middle of April last, an elderly Negro Fellow, named SCIPIO, lately bought at Mrs. Stoutenborough's Sale; he is remarkable for having one of his great Toes turn in; had on when he went away a white Woollen Jacket and Trowsers. He has been seen at a Plantation at Ashley Ferry, and very lately on John's Island, and is supposed to be harboured by some of his Relations there. Whoever apprehends the said Fellow, and delivers him to the Warden of the Work-House in Charles-Town, or to the Subscriber, shall receive Twenty Pounds currency Reward, with all reasonable Charges. ALEXANDER CLAPPERTON.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 30 June 1777.]

WANNY; JUAN; mustee; branded IS

Thomson, William; Sellar, Jacob

THE subscriber having lately purchased at Mr. Jacob Sellar of the Congarees, a Mustee Fellow, named WANNY, branded on the Cheek I.S. Said Fellow was absent at the Time the Subscriber made the Purchase, and then Supposed to be in the Woods, since which it is imagined he is gone to Charles-Town. All Persons are hereby forbid carrying him off the State, and from concealing, harbouring or entertaining him; any one who will give Information of his being harboured by a white Person, shall have a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, and Twenty if by a Negro, on Conviction of the Offender; also a Reward of Twenty Pounds will be given to any Person for apprehending him and delivering him at my Plantation in Amelia, together with all reasonable charges. WILLIAM THOMSON.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 7 July 1777.]

BOSTON

Darrell, Joseph; Shirley, Thomas; Lesesne, Mrs.

RUN away from the subscriber about 15 days a Negro boy named BOSTON, formerly the property of Thomas Shirley, he is very remarkable having a bump over his right eye; he had on when he went away, a pair of osnabrugs trowsers and shirt; he has a mother on Daniel's Island, belonging to Mrs. Lesesne, where he probably may be harboured. Whoever will deliver the said boy to the subscriber, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive a reward of Ten Pounds; and if information can be given of his being harboured by a white person, the informer shall receive one hundred pounds, and if by a Negro twenty pounds. All masters of vessels are hereby forewarned not to carry him off. JOSEPH DARRELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 7 July 1777.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; son: Boston

Lesesne, Mrs.

RUN away from the subscriber about 15 days a Negro boy named BOSTON, formerly the property of Thomas Shirley, he is very remarkable having a bump over his right eye; he had on when he went away, a pair of osnabrigs trowsers and shirt; he has a mother on Daniel's Island, belonging to Mrs. Lesesne, where he probably may be harboured. Whoever will deliver the said boy to the subscriber, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive a reward of Ten Pounds; and if information can be given of his being harboured by a white person, the informer shall receive one hundred pounds, and if by a Negro twenty pounds. All masters of vessels are hereby forewarned not to carry him off.

JOSEPH DARRELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 7 July 1777.]

JOE; b. Bermuda; sailmaker

Rudolph, Eaton; Rudolph; Sheldon, Peter, Captain; Stewart, Andrew

RUN away from on board the ship General Moultrie, lying at Rose's Wharf, on Wednesday the 2d inst. a Negro fellow named JOE, smooth faced, about 5 feet, 8 or 9 inches high, a sail-maker by trade, born in Bermuda, lately purchased from Capt. Peter Sheldon. Whoever will deliver said Run-away to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the Subscriber at Mr. Andrew Stewart's on the bay, shall receive a reward of Ten Pounds currency, from EATON RUDULPH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 7 July 1777.]

PRIMUS; b. South Carolina

Harris, Charles; Harris, James Mortimer

RUN away from the subscriber, two negro fellows; PRIMUS, country born, about five feet eight inches high, about thirty years old, stout and well made, speaks good English, sour face, but yellow complexion, lost some of his fore teeth, and has a very deceitful tongue. PRINCE, Jamaica born, about five feet ten inches high, about twenty-six years old, stout and well made, speaks good English, and is very much marked with the small pox; they had got their blankets with them, a blue jacket, a white shirt, a white jacket, and a white jacket with a coarse seam down the back, which suppose they may change with each other; Prince wears a round hat and Primus a cock'd; they stole a blue broad cloth great coat, a white shirt, and a pair of Russia drab breeches; they took with them a brindle coloured dog, and a bitch between a white and a yellow colour, and both long tails: It is supposed they are gone towards North Carolina, through a place called White Marsh. Ten Pounds reward for each fellow, with all resonable charges, on delivery of them to CHARLES HARRIS in Charles-Town, or to JAMES MORTIMER HARRIS, St. Mark's parish, near Neilson's ferry. April 11th, 1777.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 14 July 1777.]

PRINCE; b. West Indies; Jamaica

Harris, Charles; Harris, James Mortimer

RUN away from the subscriber, two negro fellows; PRIMUS, country born, about five feet eight inches high, about thirty years old, stout and well made, speaks good English, sour face, but yellow complexion, lost some of his fore teeth, and has a very deceitful tongue. PRINCE, Jamaica born, about five feet ten inches high, about twenty-six years old, stout and well made, speaks good English, and is very much marked with the small pox; they had got their blankets with them, a blue jacket, a white shirt, a white jacket, and a white jacket with a coarse seam down the back, which suppose they may change with each other; Prince wears a round hat and Primus a cock'd; they stole a blue broad cloth great coat, a white shirt, and a pair of Russia drab breeches; they took with them a brindle coloured dog, and a bitch between a white and a yellow colour, and both long tails: It is supposed they are gone towards North Carolina, through a place called White Marsh. Ten Pounds reward for each fellow, with all resonable charges, on delivery of them to CHARLES HARRIS in Charles-Town, or to JAMES MORTIMER HARRIS, St. Mark's parish, near Neilson's ferry. April 11th, 1777.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 14 July 1777.]

SAM HOLLYBUSH

Hinds, Patrick

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 4 August 1777.]

See SAM HOLLYBUSH in other newspapers, advertised by Plowden Weston.

NED; carpenter

Hume, John, Esq.; Simmons, Ebenezer, Esq.

RUN AWAY from the plantation of John Hume, Esq; in Georgia, about the 6th of July last. A negro man named NED, by trade a carpenter--a stout, well made, sensible fellow; has a large bushy head of hair, which he wears remarkably high; and is about 35 years of age. He formerly belonged to Ebenezer Simmons, Esq; is well known in Charles-Town, and has several relations upon Johns Island, where it is supposed he will endeavour to find his way and conceal himself. TEN DOLLARS reward will be paid, to any person who delivers the said fellow to the warden of the work house in Charles Town; and the same reward, with all reasonable charges, will be paid, if taken up in this state and delivered to his master in Georgia.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 4 August 1777.]

SAM; b. Bermuda

Lusher, Daniel; Smith & Darrell

RUN AWAY from the Brigantine Anne, James Darrel master, a remarkably Stout NEGRO MAN, near six feet high, of a black complexion, called SAM; was born in Bermuda, and is the property of Mr. Daniel Lusher of that island. He took with him a parcel of seamen's cloathing. All masters of vessels, and others, are hereby forbid to harbour, conceal, or carry off the said slave from this state. And whoever will apprehend him, shall be intituled to a reward of five pounds, on delivering him to said master or SMITH & DARRELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 4 August 1777.]

DICK

Gibbes, John, Esq.; Gibbes, Robert, Esq.; Strobel, Daniel

RUN away two nights ago, a Negro Fellow named DICK, belonging to John Gibbes, Esq; he is middling, stout, had on when he went away, a light blue coat, jacket and breeches almost new. Whoever delivers the said Fellow to Robert Gibbes, Esq; or to the Warden of the,Work-house, shall receive a reward of Twenty Pounds, besides all reasonable charges. DANIEL STROBEL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 15 September 1777.]

SYLVIA; alcoholic

Milling, David; Easton, William

RAN away from the subscriber, a negro wench named SYLVIA, formerly the property of William Easton, is about 45 years of age, pock marked, speaks good English, and is much addicted to liquor. She is supposed to be about the plantations on James Island. I will give one hundred pounds to any person giving information of her being harboured by a white person, so that he or she may be prosecuted and convicted; twenty pounds if harboured by a negro; or ten pounds for the delivery of her to the Warden of the workhouse, or to DAVID MILLING.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 30 September 1777.]

JOE; b. South Carolina

Ham, Richard

RUN away from the subscriber, on the 23d of February, a Negro man named Joe, this country born, had on when he went away, an old white cloth jacket, white homespun linen shirt, canvas trowsers, a Forester's hat, and worsted cap. I imagine he is about town; all masters of vessels are forwarned not to carry him off. Whoever takes him up and delivers him to the warden of the workhouse, shall receive ten dollars reward. RICHARD HAM.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 30 September 1777.]

NERO

M'illwraith, John; McIlwraith; Roche, Thomas

RUN away from my Plantation at the Four-holes, a likely young and sensible Negro Fellow named Nero, late the property of Mr. Thomas Roche; also, a young and likely sensible negro wench named Marianne, late the property of John Parker, Esq; and Jacob Valk. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes and deliver them to me or to the Warden of the workhouse in Charlestown will be intituled to a reward of Fifty Pounds, and all reasonable charges, and be paid by me at my plantation, or in Charlestown, by Mr. Jacob Valk. JOHN M'ILLWRAITH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 30 September 1777.]

MARIANNE

M'illwraith, John; McIlwraith; Parker, John, Esq.; Valk, Jacob

RUN away from my Plantation at the Four-holes, a likely young and sensible Negro Fellow named Nero, late the property of Mr. Thomas Roche; also, a young and likely sensible negro wench named Marianne, late the property of John Parker, Esq; and Jacob Valk. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes and deliver them to me or to the Warden of the workhouse in Charlestown will be intitled to a reward of Fifty Pounds, and all reasonable charges, and be paid by me at my plantation, or in Charlestown, by Mr. Jacob Valk. JOHN M'ILLWRAITH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 30 September 1777.]

JACK FELL; EBO JACK; EBOE JACK; b. Africa; Ibo; tailor

Butler, James Henry; Fell, Thomas

Ten Dollars Reward. The subscriber will give the above reward to any person who will bring to him, or the Warden of the Workhouse, a young negro man, lately bought of Mr. Thomas Fell, taylor, at which trade he can work a little: He is commonly called Jack Fell, or Eboe Jack, he being of that country; he is about 5 feet 6 inches high, 17 years old, strait limbed, yellowish complexion, and is very remarkable for carrying his head high and looking up; had on when he went away last month, a brown jacket without sleeves, an Osnabrugs shirt, and nankeen breeches but his dress I hear is changed. There is great reason to believe he is harboured in town, or between town and the Quarter-house, he has been seen on board several vessels. I forewarn all manner of persons not to harbour or employ the said negro. I will give FIFTY POUNDS to any free person, and TWENTY POUNDS to any slave, that will inform me of his being harboured, on conviction of the offender. If the fellow will return he shall be forgiven. JAMES HENRY BUTLER.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 14 October 1777.]

GORING

Samways, Henry; Smith, Solomon

Absented themselves on Saturday the 20th of September last from James Island two Negro Fellows, nam'd Goring and Harford, late the property of Solomon Smith; Goring is a small thin visaged fellow, has a large mouth, is bowlegged, and had on a home-spun jacket and breeches and a blue and white shirt. Harford is a short thick fellow, with remarkable large eyes, and had on a London brown cloth coat; he has several marks about his back. Twenty Pounds reward for Goring and Ten for Harford will be paid on the delivery of the said negroes to the Warden of the Work-house in Charles-Town, or to the subscriber on James island, HENRY SAMWAYS. All master of vessels and others, are hereby cautioned against carrying off, concealing, or employing the said negroes, as they must expect to answer for the same as far as the law directts.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 14 October 1777.]

HARFORD; HARTFORD; whipping scars?; ritual scarification?

Samways, Henry; Smith, Solomon

Absented themselves on Saturday the 20th of September last from James Island two Negro Fellows, nam'd Goring and Harford, late the property of Solomon Smith; Goring is a small thin visaged fellow, has a large mouth, is bowlegged, and had on a home-spun jacket and breeches and a blue and white shirt. Harford is a short thick fellow, with remarkable large eyes, and had on a London brown cloth coat; he has several marks about his back. Twenty Pounds reward for Goring and Ten for Harford will be paid on the delivery of the said negroes to the Warden of the Work-house in Charles-Town, or to the subscriber on James island, HENRY SAMWAYS. All master of vessels and others, are hereby cautioned against carrying off, concealing, or employing the said negroes, as they must expect to answer for the same as far as the law directts.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 14 October 1777.]

LONDON; bricklayer

Farr, Thomas; Elfe, Thomas (cabinetmaker); Horlbeck, Mr. (stonemason)

RUN away from my plantation in Saint Mark's parish, a negro man named London, a Bricklayer by trade: he did formerly belong to the late Mr. Thomas Elfe, deceased, and served his time to Mr. Horlbeck in Charles-Town, where he has worked ever since, until lately, and where he is well known: As he has lately been frequently seen in town, I have reason to believe, that he is harboured by some person in it. Whoever will apprehend the said negro man London, and deliver him to me, or the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive Ten Pounds reward. And any person who will give me information, by whom he is harboured or employed, shall receive Twenty Pounds, upon conviction of the offender. THOMAS FARR.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 21 October 1777.]

QUACO; SAM; b. South Carolina

Cattell, Catherine

RUN away about a month ago, and have since been seen beyond Ponpon, supposed to be gone towards Indian Land or Georgia, two sensible young Carolina-born negroes, viz. QUACO, about 20 years of age, a small limb'd fellow, without a beard, had on or carried with him, a white negro cloth robbin, a pair of leather Breeches, another of osnabrugs, and a white shirt, and has since called himself Sam. SARY, about 17 years of age, a likely yellowish wench, a good seamstress, and has since called herself Sally: She carried away, or had on, an Osnabrugs shift, a white Joseph, a white handkerchief about her head, a striped petticoat, one of osnabrugs, and one of purple dyed wollen. They travelled together, and may change their dress as well as names. Whoever delivers them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charles-Town; to the subscriber at Long-Savannah, or gives such information of them that they may be found and taken, shall be suitably rewarded. CATHERINE CATTELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 14 November 1777.]

SARY; SALLY; b. South Carolina; seamstress

Cattell, Catherine

RUN away about a month ago, and have since been seen beyond Ponpon, supposed to be gone towards Indian Land or Georgia, two sensible young Carolina-born negroes, viz. QUACO, about 20 years of age, a small limb'd fellow, without a beard, had on or carried with him, a white negro cloth robbin, a pair of leather Breeches, another of osnabrugs, and a white shirt, and has since called himself Sam. SARY, about 17 years of age, a likely yellowish wench, a good seamstress, and has since called herself Sally: She carried away, or had on, an Osnabrugs shift, a white Joseph, a white handkerchief about her head, a striped petticoat, one of osnabrugs, and one of purple dyed wollen. They travelled together, and may change their dress as well as names. Whoever delivers them to the Warden of the Work-house in Charles-Town; to the subscriber at Long-Savannah, or gives such information of them that they may be found and taken, shall be suitably rewarded. CATHERINE CATTELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 14 November 1777.]

PHILLIS

Remington, Margaret

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 November 1777.]

See PHILLIS in other newspapers.

ELSIE

Remington, Margaret

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 November 1777.]

See ELSIE in other newspapers.

JACK; b. North Carolina; sailor

North & Trescott; Hancock, Edward; Seymour, Stephen, Captain; Morgan, Francis, Captain

RUN away from the subscribers on Wednesday morning the 19th of November, a negro fellow named JACK, about 25 years old, tall and well made, very black complexion, reddish eyes, speaks good English, and is North-Carolina born; he had a new shirt, frock, trowsers, and a blue jacket just given him; he carried away some shirts and other clothes, stamp'd with the owner's name. He is just returned from a cruise with Capt. Stephen Seymour of the Notre Dame, and was again entered with Capt. Francis Morgan. As he was bought from Mr. Edward Hancock of North-Carolina, it is supposed he is endeavouring to get back again to that place. Whoever will deliver him to the subscribers, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive Fifty Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. NORTH and TRESBOT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 November 1777.]

SCIPIO

Arwin & Rugge; Montgomery, Robert

RUN away from the subscribers, on the 25th ult. a Negro Man named SCIPIO: He is about 30 Years of age, short and well set when he went away, had on a brown split shirt very much torn, particularly in the right sleeve, a new check shirt, cloth boots, and coarse home-spun trowsers; tis supposed he is gone towards Thicketty Creek, in Ninty-six district, where his former master (Robert Montgomery) lives, and from Whom the subscribers bought him: He has been much accustomed to the Back Woods, which is known by his speech. Whoever will deliver the aforesaid negro to the subscribers on the Bay [East Bay Street, Charlestown], or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive a reward of Fifty Pounds, exclusive of all necessary charges. ARWIN and RUGGE.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. December 1777.]

SHADRACK; butcher

Russel, John; Russell; Hopkins, Mr.; Beresford, Mr., estate of

Absented himself from his master's service on Friday the 10th instant, a negro fellow named SHADRACK; he formerly belonged to the estate of Mr. Beresford, and served Mr. Hopkins some time as a butcher. Whoever will deliver the said fellow to Mr. John Russel, ship-carpenter, at his shipyard; or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have ten Pounds reward, and all reasonable charges. If he will return to his business, he shall have a free Pardon. All masters of vessels are forwarned employing the said negro, or carrying him off the State.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 29 July 1778.]

SAM

Hinds, Patrick

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 12 August 1778.]

See SAM in other newspapers.

CLARINDA

Mordecai & Levy; Gordon, Mrs.

RUN AWAY the 4th of August, inst. a negro wench named Clarinda, of a yellow complexion, had on when she went away a cross-bar check coat, a coarse white linen shift, and a blue handkercher on her head, and formerly belonged to Mrs. Gordon. Whoever will deliver the said wench to the warden of the work-house in Charlestown, or to the subscribers in King-street, Shall receive a reward of Fifty Pounds currency and all reasonable charges and whoever harbours or entertains her, may depend upon being prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. MORDECAI & LEVY.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 12 August 1778.]

HARRY; cabinet-maker; carpenter

Desering, Sophia, Mrs.; Packrow, John

Ten Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, a negro man named Harry, who was sent to me by his Mistress, Mrs. Sophia Desering, to go to Combahee, but he has taken the advantage of his mistress's letter, and gone to work at the cabinet maker's business in Charles-town, upwards of six weeks since. I do offer a reward of one hundred pounds to any person that will give information of his being employed or harboured by a white person, and twenty if by a negro; or the above reward of Ten Dollars to any one that will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to me at Combahee. JOHN PACKROW.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 12 August 1778.]

WILL

Cochran, Robert; Reeves, Captain; Broughton, Andrew, Jr.

THE subscriber having purchased from Captain Reeves, a negro fellow named WILL, late the property of Mr. Andrew Broughton, jun.; he ran away about seven months ago; if he will return of his own accord to his master in Charles-town, he will be forgiven, or to the Warden of the Work-house, he [sic; they] shall receive Fifty Pounds reward, with all reasonable charges. One hundred Dollars will be given to any person who will inform of his being harboured by a white man, and Fifty pollars if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender. ROBERT COCHRAN.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 19 August 1778.]

JEMMY; waiting-man; barber; hair-dresser
Clifford, Charles

RUN away from the subscriber at the Horse-shoe, a young negro fellow named JEMMY: He is about eighteen or twenty years old, has a small scar on his jaw, is well known in Charlestown, and by the officers and soldiers of the 1st regiment, and also in the country, as he was the subscriber's waiting man. He is supposed to be harboured in Charles Town, as has been seen sundry times there, and particularly on board a French ship; he is an artful sensible fellow, can shave and dress hair very well, and it is probable may attempt to pass for a free man. I will give twenty pounds currency with all reasonable charges, to any Person that will deliver him to me at the Horse shoe aforesaid, or to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charlestown, and one hundred pounds to any that can prove he is harboured by a white person, and twenty pounds if by a free negro, mulatto or slave, to be paid on conviction. All masters of vessels are particularly cautioned not to harbour, conceal, or carry him off the State, as they may depend on being prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. CHARLES CLIFFORD.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 26 August 1778.]

ESTHER

Spence, Peter; Doyley, Daniel, Esq.; Sabb, Mr.; Thomson, Colonel

RUN away on the 19th of last month, a negro woman named Esther, she is about 32 years of age, and formerly belonged to Daniel Doyley, Esq; is well known in Charlestown and Christ-church parish, her mother and family live at Mr. Sabb's, in Melia [Amelia] Township, near Col. Thomson's. From some expressions to her fellow servants, I have reason to think she has been preparing for this jaunt during my absence from the state, as she went away immediately on my return. I will give two hundred pounds on conviction of her being harboured by a white person, and fifty if by a negro, and 25 pounds reward, besides charges, to any person who will deliver her to Mr. Alexander Rose, or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, or to me in Jacksonborough. PETER SPENCE. All masters of vessels are forwarned from carrying off or harbouring her.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 12 August 1778.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; daughter: Esther

Sabb, Mr.

RUN away on the 19th of last month, a negro woman named Esther, she is about 32 years of age, and formerly belonged to Daniel Doyley, Esq; is well known in Charlestown and Christ-church parish, her mother and family live at Mr. Sabb's, in Melia [Amelia] Township, near Col. Thomson's. From some expressions to her fellow servants, I have reason to think she has been preparing for this jaunt during my absence from the state, as she went away immediately on my return. I will give two hundred pounds on conviction of her being harboured by a white person, and fifty if by a negro, and 25 pounds reward, besides charges, to any person who will deliver her to Mr. Alexander Rose, or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, or to me in Jacksonborough. PETER SPENCE. All masters of vessels are forwarned from carrying off or harbouring her.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 12 August 1778.]

TOM; b. Africa?

Rockmore, James

RUN away from my habitation in the Long-canes settlement , about ten months ago, a negro fellow named TOM, about 45 years of age, has near the half of his hair grey, can hardly speak any English, is about 5 feet 9 inches high, stoops a little, and is round shouldered: Whoever apprehends the said slave, and will deliver him to any of the gaolers in this state, or to me at New Bourdeaux, shall have a reward of Fifty Pounds. JAMES ROCKMORE.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 2 September 1778.]

BRISTOL

Donovan, James

RUN away from the subscriber the 24th of last month, a likely well-set Negro Boy, named BRISTOL, about 16 years of age; he has lost one of his fore teeth, speaks good English, and had on when he went away, a blue cloth coatee and Osnabrug breeches. A reward of Four Dollars and reasonable charges will be paid to any person who will deliver him to the subscriber, and a further reward of Twenty-five Pounds if harboured by a white person, and Ten Pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction. All masters of vessels are forwarned carrying [him] off the State, as they will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. JAMES DONAVAN.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 2 September 1778.]

DIANA

Hind, Owen; Pearson, John

RUN away about a month ago, a middle aged negro wench named DIANA; she is about five feet high, late the property of Mr. John Pearson on the Bay. Whoever will deliver the said Wench to the Warden of the Workhouse, Mr. John Pearson aforesaid, or to the subscriber, shall be handsomely rewarded. OWEN HIND.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 9 September 1778.]

YORK; butcher; field-hand

Crouch, Henry; Hume, Robert, Esq., estate of

RUN away about six weeks since, a Negro Fellow named York, purchased of the estate of Robert Hume, Esq; in December last: He is by trade a butcher, but for some years past has worked in the field, at Mr. Hume's Goose creek plantation, where he has a wife and is supposed to be harboured. Twenty Pounds reward will be given to any person who will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse, and Five Hundred Pounds reward for an effectual information of his being harboured by a white Person and One Hundred Pounds if by a Negro, to be paid upon conviction of the offender. HENRY CROUCH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 September 1778.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; husband: York

Hume, Robert, Esq., estate of

RUN away about six weeks since, a Negro Fellow named York, purchased of the estate of Robert Hume, Esq; in December last: He is by trade a butcher, but for some years past has worked in the field, at Mr. Hume's Goose creek plantation, where he has a wife and is supposed to be harboured. Twenty Pounds reward will be given to any person who will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse, and Five Hundred Pounds reward for an effectual information of his being harboured by a white Person and One Hundred Pounds if by a Negro, to be paid upon conviction of the offender. HENRY CROUCH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 September 1778.]

ROBIN; mutilated

Ekells, William; Heyward, Colonel (d)

RUN away from the subscriber about the 10th of May last, a Negro Fellow named ROBIN (but may probably go by some other name.) He is about 40 years old, 6 feet high, strait limbed, slim made, thin visaged, has lost some of his fore teeth, and a joint of one of his fingers, which finger he cannot straiten: He had on when he went away a homespun jacket, blue breeches, and a blue great coat, and carried away with him a blue broad cloth coat, with silver buttons, a fustian and an Osnabruks ditto, a pair of blue plush, a pair of brown velvet, and a pair of blue negro cloth breeches: He is imagined to be gone towards the southward, where he is supposed to be harboured by some of the late Col. Heyward's negroes, as he has a mother and some other relations among them. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow and deliver him to me at Wassamsaw, or to the Warden of the Work-house, in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of Twenty Dollars, and a further reward of one Hundred Pounds to whoever will give information of his being harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender. WILLIAM EKELLS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 23 September 1778.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; son: Robin

Heyward, Colonel (d)

RUN away from the subscriber about the 10th of May last, a Negro Fellow named ROBIN (but may probably go by some other name.) He is about 40 years old, 6 feet high, strait limbed, slim made, thin visaged, has lost some of his fore teeth, and a joint of one of his fingers, which finger he cannot straiten: He had on when he went away a homespun jacket, blue breeches, and a blue great coat, and carried away with him a blue broad cloth coat, with silver buttons, a fustian and an Osnabruks ditto, a pair of blue plush, a pair of brown velvet, and a pair of blue negro cloth breeches: He is imagined to be gone towards the southward, where he is supposed to be harboured by some of the late Col. Heyward's negroes, as he has a mother and some other relations among them. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow and deliver him to me at Wassamsaw, or to the Warden of the Work-house, in Charlestown, shall receive a reward of Twenty Dollars, and a further reward of one Hundred Pounds to whoever will give information of his being harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender. WILLIAM EKELLS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 23 September 1778.]

JACKO; mustee

Ward, John; Purcell, Rev.; Purcel

RAN away from the subscriber's plantation near Wappeau [Wappoo] bridge, about the middle of last month, a negro man named JACKO, about 5 feet 7 inches high; he is a kind of Mustee negro, has a bushy head of hair, down look, and stoops in the shoulders: He had on a blue cloth pair of breeches, a white jacket with blue edging, and formerly belonged to the Rev. Mr. Purcel, he is well known at Wando Neck and in St. Thomas's parish. A reward of ten Pounds will be given for delivering him at said plantation or the Warden of the workhouse, and upon proof of his being harboured by a white person, one hundred Pounds, and by a negro twenty Pound. JOHN WARD, Taylor.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 23 September 1778.]

JEMMY; b. Africa; Calabar

Edwards, Uriah; Valk, Jacob

One Hundred Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber in April last, a negro man of the Calabar country named JEMMY; he is of black complexion, thin visaged, of middling stature, and speaks good English. Whoever will deliver the said fellow to Mr. Jacob Valk in Charlestown, or to me on the Little Salcatcher [Salkehatchie], shall receive Fifty Pounds reward, and a further reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid, to any Person making information of his being harboured by a white person on conviction of the offender. URIAH EDWARDS.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 October 1778.]

HAGAR; mulatto; husband: David

Elliott, Barnard; Cox, Mr.; Gibbes, John

RUN away on Monday the 21st of Sept. ult. a wench named Hagar, Mulatto, about 5 feet 6 inches high, with a bushy head of hair, has a sulky impudent look, is near 24 years old, had a variety of good gowns, jackets and coats of cotton and callicoos, which she took with her; she also carried off her blankets and bedding, and is supposed to be harboured at Mr. Cox's Plantation on James Island, or at his house in town on White Point, where she has a husband named David; or, at Mr. John Gibbes's, where she has a mother. A reward of Ten Dollars will be paid for taking up said Wench and delivering her to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber in Charlestown. BARNARD ELLIOTT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 October 1778.]

DAVID; wife: Hagar

Cox, Mr.

RUN away on Monday the 21st of Sept. ult. a wench named Hagar, Mulatto, about 5 feet 6 inches high, with a bushy head of hair, has a sulky impudent look, is near 24 years old, had a variety of good gowns, jackets and coats of cotton and callicoos, which she took with her; she also carried off her blankets and bedding, and is supposed to be harboured at Mr. Cox's Plantation on James Island, or at his house in town on White Point, where she has a husband named David; or, at Mr. John Gibbes's, where she has a mother. A reward of Ten Dollars will be paid for taking up said Wench and delivering her to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber in Charlestown. BARNARD ELLIOTT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 October 1778.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; daughter: Hagar

Gibbes, John

RUN away on Monday the 21st of Sept. ult. a wench named Hagar, Mulatto, about 5 feet 6 inches high, with a bushy head of hair, has a sulky impudent look, is near 24 years old, had a variety of good gowns, jackets and coats of cotton and callicoos, which she took with her; she also carried off her blankets and bedding, and is supposed to be harboured at Mr. Cox's Plantation on James Island, or at his house in town on White Point, where she has a husband named David; or, at Mr. John Gibbes's, where she has a mother. A reward of Ten Dollars will be paid for taking up said Wench and delivering her to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber in Charlestown. BARNARD ELLIOTT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 October 1778.]

MARIANNE

Valk, Jacob

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 14 October 1778.]

See MARIANNE in other newspapers.

DELIA; mustee; whipping scars

Stattlar, John; Coachman, Widow, estate of

RUN away from the subscriber a negro woman named Delia; she is a short, junky [chunky] young Mustee, with a round face and bushy head of hair, has a mark from the whip on the back of her neck, and formerly belonged to the Estate of the widow Coachman at Goosecreek; she had on when she went away a callico wrapper, and two Osnabruugs petticoats and an apron. Whoever takes up the said negro and will deliver her to me or to the warden of the workhouse, shall be entitled to Ten Pounds and all reasonable charges. JOHN STATTLAR.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 4 November 1778.]

ABRAM; mustee; mestizo; his murder solicited

Bee, Joseph

Twenty Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber the 4th of September last, a Mestizo Fellow named ABRAM, so well known thro' the State, that a particular description of him would be needless. The above reward will be given for his Head, and ten pounds to whoever will deliver him to the subscriber at Ponpon, or to any of the Wardens of the gaols or workhouses in this State. JOSEPH LEE.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 11 November 1778.]

JUNE; (male); sailor

Cole, Richard; Young, Josiah, Captain

RUN away from the subscriber about four days ago, a Negro Fellow name JUNE; he formerly sailed with Captain Josiah Young, and lately on board the Fair American: He is well made, about five feet eight inches high, had on when he went away, a white jacket, a check shirt, a pair of black broad cloth breeches, a cocked hat with a cockade; he may probably attempt to ship himself on board some vessel as a free fellow; therefore all masters of vessels are desired not to ship or employ him. Twenty Dollars will be paid to any person that will deliver him to the subscriber, near the White Meeting [church], or to the warden of the Workhouse, with all reasonable charges.

RICHARD COLE.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 December 1778.]

CLOE; CHLOE; son: Barney; daughter: Jezebel

Buttler, Thomas; Butler; Eveleigh, Col.; Dart, John Sandford

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday night, last a Negro Wench named CLOE, about 27 years of age, lusty and well made, has a remarkable bushy head of hair; she carried with her her two children, Barney, about two years old, and Jezebel, a mulatto, about three months old: She formerly belonged to John Sandford Dart, Esq; who sold her to Col. Eveleigh, from whom I purchased her in September last. She has a scar under one of her shoulders, where she was stabbed with a bayonet. I will give eight Dollars reward to any person that will deliver her to the warden of the workhouse or to me, and a further reward of fifty Pounds to any person who can prove she is harboured by a white Person and ten pounds if by a negro. All persons are hereby forbid harbouring or concealing her, as they may expect to answer it at their peril; it is supposed she is about the plantation of John Sandford Dart, Esq; in Christ-church parish, as she has an extensive acquaintance there. THOMAS BUTTLER.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 December 1778.]

[NOTE: This woman was sold at the time she gave birth to a mulatto child, whom someone has named Jezebel; possibly the child of her former master, Colonel Eveleigh, or John Dart, disposed of by owner's wife, who also named the child.]

BARNEY; mother: Chloe; sister: Jezebel

Buttler, Thomas; Butler; Eveleigh, Col.; Dart, John Sandford

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday night, last a Negro Wench named CLOE, about 27 years of age, lusty and well made, has a remarkable bushy head of hair; she carried with her her two children, Barney, about two years old, and Jezebel, a mulatto, about three months old: She formerly belonged to John Sandford Dart, Esq; who sold her to Col. Eveleigh, from whom I purchased her in September last. She has a scar under one of her shoulders, where she was stabbed with a bayonet. I will give eight Dollars reward to any person that will deliver her to the warden of the workhouse or to me, and a further reward of fifty Pounds to any person who can prove she is harboured by a white Person and ten pounds if by a negro. All persons are hereby forbid harbouring or concealing her, as they may expect to answer it at their peril; it is supposed she is about the plantation of John Sandford Dart, Esq; in Christ-church parish, as she has an extensive acquaintance there. THOMAS BUTTLER.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 December 1778.]

JEZEBEL; b. South Carolina; mulatto; mother: Chloe; brother: Barney
Buttler, Thomas; Butler; Eveleigh, Col.; Dart, John Sandford

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday night, last a Negro Wench named CLOE, about 27 years of age, lusty and well made, has a remarkable bushy head of hair; she carried with her her two children, Barney, about two years old, and Jezebel, a mulatto, about three months old: She formerly belonged to John Sandford Dart, Esq; who sold her to Col. Eveleigh, from whom I purchased her in September last. She has a scar under one of her shoulders, where she was stabbed with a bayonet. I will give eight Dollars reward to any person that will deliver her to the warden of the workhouse or to me, and a further reward of fifty Pounds to any person who can prove she is harboured by a white Person and ten pounds if by a negro. All persons are hereby forbid harbouring or concealing her, as they may expect to answer it at their peril; it is supposed she is about the plantation of John Sandford Dart, Esq; in Christ-church parish, as she has an extensive acquaintance there. THOMAS BUTTLER.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 December 1778.]

JACOB; b. South Carolina
Gerley, John

Twenty Dollars Reward. RUN away from the Subscriber last Friday, the 4th inst. a Negro Fellow named JACOB, about 5 Feet two Inches high, this Country born, a well set, large lip'd bandy-legged Fellow: He took away with him a Roan Horse about 14 hands high, branded on the mounting Buttock F, his mane and Tail are same Colour, between 6 and 7 Years old, the Mane dressed on the Right Side. The said Fellow is well known by a Number of Gentlemen in Town and Country to be a notorious Villain: whoever shall meet with him, is desired not to take his Life, as I intend to bring him to Justice: Any Person delivering him to me will be entitled to the above reward with all reasonable Charges. JOHN GERLEY, warden of the work-house.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 16 December 1778.]

MELIA

Cunnington, William; Stoutenburgh, William, Esq.

RUN away from William Stoutenburgh, Esq; a negro woman named MELIA, so well known in Charles-Town as to need no description; a reward of thirty Pounds will be given to any person who will bring her to the subscriber in Bedon's Alley. As she is harboured in town, those concerned in concealing her are cautioned to deliver her up immediately, on pain of the utmost rigour of the law being prosecuted against them. WILLIAM CUNNINGTON.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

ANONYMOUS SLAVES

Miller, William, estate of; Smith, Josiah, Jr.; Darrell, Edward

Pursuant to the last will and testament of William Miller, late of Charlestown, carpenter, deceased, will be sold to the highest bidder, on Thursday the 11th day of February, at his late dwelling-house, on White Point, the following real and personal Estate of said deceased viz.....Also twelve Negroes of which five are carpenters, a young waiting man....Josiah Smith jun. Edward Darrell. Executors.P.S. One of the carpenter negroes, a young fellow named LONDON, having absconded about two months since, a reward of Twenty Dollars will be paid, for delivering him to the Warden of the Workhouse, or double that sum to such person as shall inform where or by whom he is harboured, to be paid on conviction of the offenders.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

LONDON; carpenter

Miller, William, estate of; Smith, Josiah, Jr.; Darrell, Edward

Pursuant to the last will and testament of William Miller, late of Charlestown, carpenter, deceased, will be sold to the highest bidder, on Thursday the 11th day of February, at his late dwelling-house, on White Point, the following real and personal Estate of said deceased viz.....Also twelve Negroes of which five are carpenters, a young waiting man....Josiah Smith jun. Edward Darrell. Executors. P.S. One of the carpenter negroes, a young fellow named LONDON, having absconded about two months since, a reward of Twenty Dollars will be paid, for delivering him to the Warden of the Workhouse, or double that sum to such person as shall inform where or by whom he is harboured, to be paid on conviction of the offenders.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

PETER

Eveleigh, Thomas; Villeponteaux, Benjamin; Villeponteaux; Villeponteux

RUN away from the Subscriber, from Nelson's Ferry, on their Way from his Plantation at Stono to the Wateree, Four Negro Fellows and one Wench: The four Fellows are named PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN and CHESHIRE, and the Wench named SYLVIA, Wife to Cheshire. Peter and Bacchus formerly belonged to Mr. Benjamin Villeponteaux of Goose-creek; Dublin, to Mr. John Sandford Dart of Christ-Church Parish, and Cheshire and Sylvia to the late Mr. Algernoon Wilson of Stono. Peter is a likely black young Fellow; Bacchus a thin Fellow of the same Colour, of a middle Age, with a large Scar under his Throat, and a small Beard round his Chin. Dublin is a short fat Fellow of a brownish Complexion and of a middle Age, looks as if he was bloated, and speaks very bad English. Cheshire is a middle aged Negro, and his Wife Sylvia a young lusty wench, both of yellow Complexions. The Fellows had each a new brown jacket with Sleeves, and Breeches made of French nap Cloth, the Wench a Wrapper & Petticoat of the same Stuff; also new Blankets and new Shoes: They took out of the Waggon that carried the Luggage their Bundle of old Clothes. Whoever takes up either of the said Negroes, and delivers them to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the Subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS Reward for each and every reasonable Charge, on bringing them to THOMAS EVELEIGH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

BACCHUS

Eveleigh, Thomas; Villeponteaux, Benjamin; Villeponteaux; Villeponteux

RUN away from the Subscriber, from Nelson's Ferry, on their Way from his Plantation at Stono to the Wateree, Four Negro Fellows and one Wench: The four Fellows are named PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN and CHESHIRE, and the Wench named SYLVIA, Wife to Cheshire. Peter and Bacchus formerly belonged to Mr. Benjamin Villeponteaux of Goose-creek; Dublin, to Mr. John Sandford Dart of Christ-Church Parish, and Cheshire and Sylvia to the late Mr. Algernoon Wilson of Stono. Peter is a likely black young Fellow; Bacchus a thin Fellow of the same Colour, of a middle Age, with a large Scar under his Throat, and a small Beard round his Chin. Dublin is a short fat Fellow of a brownish Complexion and of a middle Age, looks as if he was bloated, and speaks very bad English. Cheshire is a middle aged Negro, and his Wife Sylvia a young lusty wench, both of yellow Complexions. The Fellows had each a new brown jacket with Sleeves, and Breeches made of French nap Cloth, the Wench a Wrapper & Petticoat of the same Stuff; also new Blankets and new Shoes: They took out of the Waggon that carried the Luggage their Bundle of old Clothes. Whoever takes up either of the said Negroes, and delivers them to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the Subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS Reward for each and every reasonable Charge, on bringing them to THOMAS EVELEIGH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

DUBLIN

Eveleigh, Thomas; Dart, John Sandford

RUN away from the Subscriber, from Nelson's Ferry, on their Way from his Plantation at Stono to the Wateree, Four Negro Fellows and one Wench: The four Fellows are named PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN and CHESHIRE, and the Wench named SYLVIA, Wife to Cheshire. Peter and Bacchus formerly belonged to Mr. Benjamin Villeponteaux of Goose-creek; Dublin, to Mr. John Sandford Dart of Christ-Church Parish, and Cheshire and Sylvia to the late Mr. Algernoon Wilson of Stono. Peter is a likely black young Fellow; Bacchus a thin Fellow of the same Colour, of a middle Age, with a large Scar under his Throat, and a small Beard round his Chin. Dublin is a short fat Fellow of a brownish Complexion and of a middle Age, looks as if he was bloated, and speaks very bad English. Cheshire is a middle aged Negro, and his Wife Sylvia a young lusty wench, both of yellow Complexions. The Fellows had each a new brown jacket with Sleeves, and Breeches made of French nap Cloth, the Wench a Wrapper & Petticoat of the same Stuff; also new Blankets and new Shoes: They took out of the Waggon that carried the Luggage their Bundle of old Clothes. Whoever takes up either of the said Negroes, and delivers them to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the Subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS Reward for each and every reasonable Charge, on bringing them to THOMAS EVELEIGH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

CHESHIRE; wife: Sylvia

Eveleigh, Thomas; Wilson, Algernon; Algernoon (d)

RUN away from the Subscriber, from Nelson's Ferry, on their Way from his Plantation at Stono to the Wateree, Four Negro Fellows and one Wench: The four Fellows are named PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN and CHESHIRE, and the Wench named SYLVIA, Wife to Cheshire. Peter and Bacchus formerly belonged to Mr. Benjamin Villepontaux of Goose-creek; Dublin, to Mr. John Sandford Dart of Christ-Church Parish, and Cheshire and Sylvia to the late Mr. Algernoon Wilson of Stono. Peter is a likely black young Fellow; Bacchus a thin Fellow of the same Colour, of a middle Age, with a large Scar under his Throat, and a small Beard round his Chin. Dublin is a short fat Fellow of a brownish Complexion and of a middle Age, looks as if he was bloated, and speaks very bad English. Cheshire is a middle aged Negro, and his Wife Sylvia a young lusty wench, both of yellow Complexions. The Fellows had each a new brown jacket with Sleeves, and Breeches made of French nap Cloth, the Wench a Wrapper & Petticoat of the same Stuff; also new Blankets and new Shoes: They took out of the Waggon that carried the Luggage their Bundle of old Clothes. Whoever takes up either of the said Negroes, and delivers them to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the Subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS Reward for each and every reasonable Charge, on bringing them to THOMAS EVELEIGH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

SYLVIA; husband: Cheshire

Eveleigh, Thomas; Wilson, Algernon; Algernoon (d)

RUN away from the Subscriber, from Nelson's Ferry, on their Way from his Plantation at Stono to the Wateree, Four Negro Fellows and one Wench: The four Fellows are named PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN and CHESHIRE, and the Wench named SYLVIA, Wife to Cheshire. Peter and Bacchus formerly belonged to Mr. Benjamin Villepontaux of Goose-creek; Dublin, to Mr. John Sandford Dart of Christ-Church Parish, and Cheshire and Sylvia to the late Mr. Algernoon Wilson of Stono. Peter is a likely black young Fellow; Bacchus a thin Fellow of the same Colour, of a middle Age, with a large Scar under his Throat, and a small Beard round his Chin. Dublin is a short fat Fellow of a brownish Complexion and of a middle Age, looks as if he was bloated, and speaks very bad English. Cheshire is a middle aged Negro, and his Wife Sylvia a young lusty wench, both of yellow Complexions. The Fellows had each a new brown jacket with Sleeves, and Breeches made of French nap Cloth, the Wench a Wrapper & Petticoat of the same Stuff; also new Blankets and new Shoes: They took out of the Waggon that carried the Luggage their Bundle of old Clothes. Whoever takes up either of the said Negroes, and delivers them to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the Subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS Reward for each and every reasonable Charge, on bringing them to THOMAS EVELEIGH.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 20 January 1779.]

MELISSA

Adamson, Thomas

RUN away from the subscriber the 19th of December last, an old Negro Wench, named Melissa, has been often seen about Charlestown. Ten Pounds reward will be given on delivering her to the Warden of the Workhouse, and Twenty Pounds on conviction of her being harboured by an white Person. THOMAS ADAMSON.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 3 February 1779.]

ADAM; lived Georgia

Colcock, Job; Woodward, William

RUN away on the Evening of the 26th January, a Stout Young Negro Fellow named Adam, had on when he went off a new brown Waistcoat and Trowsers, the Trowsers long and Waistcoat short, double breasted, with yellow Metal Buttons on one Side, except the upper Button which was white: He had with him an old white coat, and a pair of leather breeches, both much torn. He is about 6 Feet high, smooth faced, thick lipped, and wears a hat made of the same materials used for Baskets. Ten dollars reward if caught in town, if in the country the same with all charges, will be given to any person who will deliver him to JOB COLCOCK. N.B. The Fellow was bought about 25 Days ago of William Woodward, late of Georgia, to which Place it is likely he intends going.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 3 February 1779.]

MONMOUTH

Edwards, William

RUN away from the subscriber on Saturday the 21d of January, 1779, a negro boy, named MONMOUTH, about 15 years of age, short and thick; had on when he went away, a blue striped linen Jacket without sleeves, and short blue negro cloth trowsers, has a rising in the left side of his neck about the size of a marble. Whoever delivers him to the subscriber, shall receive Fifty Dollars reward and all reasonable charges. All masters of vessels and others are cautioned from taking him off the State as they will answer it at their peril. WILLIAM EDWARDS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 10 February 1779.]

MARCUS

Delahowe, Ann

RUN away, a Stout Young Fellow called MARCUS, of a yellow complexion; he had on when he went away, a Brown Surtout Coat, works frequently on board Vessels. All Captains are desired to take Notice, and not to employ him or carry him off. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house or to Ann Delahowe, shall be well rewarded.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 10 February 1779.]

BILLEY; BILLY; mustee; carpenter

Brailsford, John

One Hundred Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber some time last month, a Mustee Fellow named BILLEY, a Carpenter by trade; he is stout and well made, about five feet ten inches high, has a scar on one of his cheeks, is very artful and Probably may be a working at his trade about the town: A reward of one hundred Pounds is hereby offered to any person giving information of his being harboured by a white person, and twenty if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender. And twenty pounds will be paid for the delivery of him in Charlestown to the subscriber. JOHN BRAILSFORD.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 10 February 1779.]

JACK; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Joiner, Nathan; Westcott, Samuel

RUN away from the Subscriber, on Sunday the second of August last, a negro man named JACK, about five feet four or five inches high, is a thick well-set fellow, marked on each breast with his country marks, which is in form of a diamond. Whoever apprehends and delivers him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to Samuel Westcott at Manigault's Ferry, shall receive Twenty Dollars Reward. NATHAN JOINER.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 17 February 1779.]

JOHN, mulatto

Trapier, Benjamin

RUN away from the subscriber, the first Day of February inst., a mullatto Fellow named JOHN, 23 years of age, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, well set, thin visaged, and has a prominent nose; he had on when he went away, an Osnabrugs shirt, thin blue jacket and an homespun Robbin of black wool and cotton, a pair of striped breeches, and a pair of woollen trowsers. It is apprehended he is gone for Charlestown, as he lately met with some free relations there: A reward of one Hundred Pounds will be given to any person that will apprehend and deliver him to me, or Seventy Pounds if delivered to the Warden of the Workhouse. All masters of vessels and other persons are hereby forwarned from entertaining, employing or harbouring him, as they will be prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. BENJAMIN TRAPIER.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 24 February 1779.]

JACOB

Elliott, Samuel; Elliott, Thomas O.

Winyah, February 7, 1779. RUN away from the Subscriber, a Negro Boy named JACOB, about seventeen or eighteen years of age, five feet four or five inches high; had on when he absented himself, a blue homespun coat and jacket with white metal buttons, an Osnabrugs shirt, a pair of leather breeches and a fashionable cocked hat.

Whoever will apprehend and deliver the said boy to the subscriber in George-Town, or to Thomas O. Elliott, in Charles-Town, shall receive a Reward of Fifty Pounds currency. Any person giving information on oath of his being harboured by a white person, so that the offender can be brought to justice, I will give a further reward of one hundred dollars, and if by a negro the one half. SAMUEL ELLIOTT.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 24 February 1779.]

ABRAHAM; b. Virginia; drummer; lived Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina White, J.; Gadde, Mr.; Colcock, Job

Twenty Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday evening, the 9th of February inst. a negro boy named ABRAHAM, about 16 years of age, 4 feet 10 inches high, he is well made, likely, beats the drum, is very artful and active, and speaks remarkable good English; he was born in Virginia, and formerly the property of Mr. Gadde, of Halifax, in North Carolina. He had on when he went away, a black coat edged with white, pewter buttons, with No. 4 on them, white cloth breeches, an Osnabrugs shirt, and leather cap; it is supposed he is lurking about the wharfs, or on board of some vessel, as he is fond of the sea. Whoever takes up said boy, and delivers him to the subscriber, in Dorchester, or to Mr. Job Colcock, in Charles-Town, shall receive the above reward, with all reasonable expences. Twenty Dollars more will be given on proof of his being harboured by a white person, and Ten Dollars if by a negro. J. WHITE.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 3 March 1779.]

TOM; b. South Carolina
M'Pherson, Isaac; McPherson

ON Monday the 15th of February, ran away from my plantation in St. Paul's parish, Horse Savannah, a likely country born negro man, named TOM, about five feet 6 inches high, bowlegged but well made, he has a scar on his forehead, and one on his cheek down to his mouth, is about thirty years of age, and well known on the Saltcatcher [Salkehatchie] and Savannah rivers. Any Person that will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me, shall receive thirty dollars, and all reasonable charges paid by ISAAC M'PHERSON.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 10 March 1779.]

MERRY; b. South Carolina; pregnant
Willeman, Jacob

RUN away two months ago, a negro Wench named Merry, about 17 years of age, this country born; she had on when she went away, a homespun coat and blue callico wrapper; she has been frequently seen on the wharfs, and is supposed to be harbored on board some vessel. I forwarn all persons from harboring her, and all masters of vessels from carrying her off, as they will be prosecuted according to law. Twenty dollars reward will be Paid to any person who delivers her to me in Charles-Town. She is big with child. JACOB WILLEMEN.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 10 March 1779.]

BELLA
Tennant, Susanna, Mrs.

A Reward of Ten Dollar, will be given by Mrs. Susanna Tennant to any Person that will take up and secure her Negro Girl, Bella. She is a likely young Wench, her complexion inclining a little to yellow, well made and in good flesh, thick set and Strait, not 5 Feet high and near 15 Years old: She has a modest pleasant Countenance, and speaks very good English, is very obliging, sprightly and active; had on, when she left the House, a Habit of Chocolate colour coarse cloth, and a new Check Apron. The Person in whose Hands she may be found must expect to be treated with all the Severity of the Law.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 17 March 1779.]

MARY
Grimke, John Paul; Grimké, Jean-Paul; Grimkie

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 17 March 1779.]

See MARY in other newspapers.

STATE; cooper
Rusk, David; Simons, Maurice

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Fellow named STATE, by trade a Cooper. He had on when he went away an old Wool Hat, a short grey Jacket with pewter Buttons, and an old Pair of Osnabrugs Trowsers: He is about 5 Feet 10 Inches high, walks upright, speaks very good English, is smooth faced and well made: He is supposed to be gone for George-Town or Col. Maurice Simons's Plantation in St. John's, as he has Relations at both Places. Twelve Dollars reward will be given to any Person who apprehends said Negro, and delivers him to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to me on Gadsden's Wharf, and all reasonable Charges. Masters of Vessels are forwarned [not] to employ him, if they do after this Notice, they will [be] prosecuted. DAVID RUSK. P.S. If said Negro should be found harbored by a white Person, Twenty Dollars will be paid on Conviction, and if by a black 10 Dollars, exclusive of the 12 Dollars above mentioned.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 24 March 1779.]

WILL; speaks French

Barrere, John; McQueen, John, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber, a NEGRO MAN named WILL, 5 feet 5 inches high, of a thin visage, about 32 years old, had on a light coloured cloth coat, claret coloured breeches, and a red check shirt, speaks French, and formerly belonged to John McQueen, Esq. Any person delivering him to me or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive FIFTY POUNDS reward. JOHN BARRERE. March 15, 1779.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 24 March 1779.]

DICK

Gibbes, John, Esq.; Gibbes, Robert, Esq.; Strobel, Daniel

RUN away two nights ago, a Negro Fellow named DICK, belonging to John Gibbes, Esq; he is middling stout, had on when he went away, light blue coat, jacket and breeches almost new. Whoever delivers the said Fellow to Robert Gibbes, Esq; or to the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive a reward of Twenty Pounds, besides all reasonable charges. DANIEL STROBEL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 24 March 1779.]

QUASH; drummer; literate

Postell, John

RUN away from the Subscriber, a negro Fellow named Quash, formerly a drummer, and well known in most parts of St. Bartholomew's [Parish]; he is about 5 feet 10 inches high, spare and well made, very likely and sensible; he carried off with him a drummer's suit of clothes which he formerly wore when a drummer to the Borough company, with a green coatee and sundry other half worn clothes, as also a gun and a portmantua, containing a few books, papers, clothes, &c. One hundred pounds reward will be paid for said fellow, on his delivery to the subscriber, and two hundred pounds on conviction of his being harboured by a white Person; if said fellow returns of his own accord he will be forgiven. JOHN POSTELL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 31 March 1779.]

HAMPSHIRE; carpenter; wife: Sally

Simons, Maurice; Brewton, Mr.; Marion, John

One hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from my plantation in St. John's Parish, the following Negroes, HAMPSHIRE, a sensible, stout well-made black Fellow, a Carpenter by trade, and his wife SALLY, a short black Wench. MINGO, a tall, slim likely Fellow, a Cooper by Trade: Bob, a short, elderly Fellow, with his wife PHEBY. 'Tis imagined that they will incline toward Georgia, as they lately came from Mr. Brewton's Plantation, below the Town of Savannah. A Reward of Twenty Dollars for each will be paid for delivery of either If them at the Work house in Charles-Town, or to Mr. John Marion at said Plantation in St. John's Parish. MAURICE SIMONS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 April 1779.]

SALLY; husband: Hampshire

Simons, Maurice; Brewton, Mr.; Marion, John

One hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from my plantation in St. John's Parish, the following Negroes, HAMPSHIRE, a sensible, stout well-made black Fellow, a Carpenter by trade, and his wife SALLY, a short black Wench. MINGO, a tall, slim likely Fellow, a Cooper by Trade: Bob, a short, elderly Fellow, with his wife PHEBY. 'Tis imagined that they will incline toward Georgia, as they lately came from Mr. Brewton's Plantation, below the Town of Savannah. A Reward of Twenty Dollars for each will be paid for delivery of either If them at the Work house in Charles-Town, or to Mr. John Marion at said Plantation in St. John's Parish. MAURICE SIMONS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 April 1779.]

MINGO; cooper

Simons, Maurice; Brewton, Mr.; Marion, John

One hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from my plantation in St. John's Parish, the following Negroes, HAMPSHIRE, a sensible, stout well-made black Fellow, a Carpenter by trade, and his wife SALLY, a short black Wench. MINGO, a tall, slim likely Fellow, a Cooper by Trade: Bob, a short, elderly Fellow, with his wife PHEBY. 'Tis imagined that they will incline toward Georgia, as they lately came from Mr. Brewton's Plantation, below the Town of Savannah. A Reward of Twenty Dollars for each will be paid for delivery of either If them at the Work house in Charles-Town, or to Mr. John Marion at said Plantation in St. John's Parish. MAURICE SIMONS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 April 1779.]

BOB; wife: Phoebe, Pheby

Simons, Maurice; Brewton, Mr.; Marion, John

One hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from my plantation in St. John's Parish, the following Negroes, HAMPSHIRE, a sensible, stout well-made black Fellow, a Carpenter by trade, and his wife SALLY, a short black Wench. MINGO, a tall, slim likely Fellow, a Cooper by Trade: Bob, a short, elderly Fellow, with his wife PHEBY. 'Tis imagined that they will incline toward Georgia, as they lately came from Mr. Brewton's Plantation, below the Town of Savannah. A Reward of Twenty Dollars for each will be paid for delivery of either If them at the Work house in Charles-Town, or to Mr. John Marion at said Plantation in St. John's Parish. MAURICE SIMONS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 April 1779.]

PHEBY; PHOEBE; husband: Bob

Simons, Maurice; Brewton, Mr.; Marion, John

One hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from my plantation in St. John's Parish, the following Negroes, HAMPSHIRE, a sensible, stout well-made black Fellow, a Carpenter by trade, and his wife SALLY, a short black Wench. MINGO, a tall, slim likely Fellow, a Cooper by Trade: Bob, a short, elderly Fellow, with his wife PHEBY. 'Tis imagined that they will incline toward Georgia, as they lately came from Mr. Brewton's Plantation, below the Town of Savannah. A Reward of Twenty Dollars for each will be paid for delivery of either If them at the Work house in Charles-Town, or to Mr. John Marion at said Plantation in St. John's Parish. MAURICE SIMONS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 7 April 1779.]

SCIPIO

Lloyd, Martin

RUN away from the subscriber, about the 14th of February, a negro fellow named Scipio, about 25 years of age, and about five feet high. Whoever delivers the said negro to the Warden of the Workhouse, or the Subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive twenty dollars reward, from Martin Lloyd.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 21 April 1779.]

GEORGE; b. Africa; ritual scarification; speech impediment

RUN away about 6 Weeks ago, a Negro Fellow named GEORGE: He is about 17 years of Age, stammers a little in his Speech, is about 5 Feet 3 Inches high, strong and well made, generally when he is spoken to smiles and looks down: He had on a blue Coat with red Cuffs and Collar, blue Breeches, and a half silk striped Jacket, but took a white Coat and Jacket with him. Whoever brings said Negro to the Subscriber, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive 300L Reward. HENRY BLANKENHORN. N.B. He has 3 or 4 cuts (his country Marks) on each Side his Face.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 28 April 1779.]

DILCH; b. Africa; Guinea; husband: Venture

Collins, Mary

RUN away from the Subscriber some time in January last, a lusty black negro Wench, named DILCH: Had on when she went away, a blue and white homespun coat, an old black wrapper, and an iron on her leg. Also, on the 7th of April last, her husband, named VENTURE, he is a tall lusty black Fellow, with remarkable large legs, and his toes turn inwards: He had on when he went away a pair of black stocking breeches and an old blue Robin--it is very probable he may produce a ticket I gave him to work out, at 40 shillings a day: They are both Guiney negroes. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes, and deliver them to the Warden of the workhouse, or to me in Berresford's Alley, shall receive a Reward of Thirty Dollars for each, and all reasonable charges. Mary Collins.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 5 May 1779.]

VENTURE; b. Africa; Guinea; wife: Dilch

Collins, Mary

RUN away from the Subscriber some time in January last, a lusty black negro Wench, named DILCH: Had on when she went away, a blue and white homespun coat, an old black wrapper, and an iron on her leg. Also, on the 7th of April last, her husband, named VENTURE, he is a tall lusty black Fellow, with remarkable large legs, and his toes turn inwards: He had on when he went away a pair of black stocking breeches and an old blue Robin--it is very probable he may produce a ticket I gave him to work out, at 40 shillings a day: They are both Guiney negroes. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes, and deliver them to the Warden of the workhouse, or to me in Berresford's Alley, shall receive a Reward of Thirty Dollars for each, and all reasonable charges. Mary Collins.
[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 5 May 1779.]

SARAH; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification; filed teeth

Motte, Charles

RUN away about a Month ago, a Negro Wench named Sarah, formerly the Property of Mr. Darby, Carpenter: She is a Guiney Negro, has her country Marks, and sharp Teeth, had when she went away an Osnabruugs Coat and Apron and a brown Jacket: she speaks broken English, and is supposed to be harboured amongst the low People, or the French [exiled Acadians?]. Whoever will give information of her being harboured by any such Person shall receive 100£ Reward, if by a Negro 50 pounds: if she will return of her own accord she shall be forgiven; 50 Dollars Reward will be given to whoever will put her in the Work-House, or bring her to me in Friend street. Charles Motte.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 9 July 1779.]

JOHN; b. South Carolina

Daniel, Robert

One Hundred and Eighty Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, about 5 weeks ago, three Negro Men and one Wench, viz. John, York, Cato, and Dargues: John is a tall slim fellow, country born, is about 30 years old, of a black complexion, a down look, speaks well, and is very artful. York is near 5 feet 7 inches high, well made, about 45 years of age, and is of a yellowish complexion. Cato is about 5 feet 8 inches high, a stout well made fellow, near 35 years old, is a boat negro, speaks good English, and formerly belonged to Mr. Christopher Simmons, tallow chandler, and is well known in town. Dargues, Cato's wife, is a tall slim wench, about 17 years of age, country born, of a dark complexion, and speaks good English. Said slaves are supposed to be gone to the Southward, and were all clothed in homespun when they went off; the above Reward will be paid to whoever apprehends and delivers them to the subscriber or Warden of the Workhouse at Charles town, or fifty dollars, will be paid for the delivery of either of the men, and thirty for the Wench. ROBERT DANIEL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 15 July 1779.]

YORK

Daniel, Robert

One Hundred and Eighty Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, about 5 weeks ago, three Negro Men and one Wench, viz. John, York, Cato, and Dargues: John is a tall slim fellow, country born, is about 30 years old, of a black complexion, a down look, speaks well, and is very artful. York is near 5 feet 7 inches high, well made, about 45 years of age, and is of a yellowish complexion. Cato is about 5 feet 8 inches high, a stout well made fellow, near 35 years old, is a boat negro, speaks good English, and formerly belonged to Mr. Christopher Simmons, tallow chandler, and is well known in town. Dargues, Cato's wife, is a tall slim wench, about 17 years of age, country born, of a dark complexion, and speaks good English. Said slaves are supposed to be gone to the Southward, and were all clothed in homespun when they went off; the above Reward will be paid to whoever apprehends and delivers them to the subscriber or Warden of the Workhouse at Charles town, or fifty dollars, will be paid for the delivery of either of the men, and thirty for the Wench. ROBERT DANIEL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 15 July 1779.]

CATO; wife: Dargues, Dorcas?

Daniel, Robert; Simmons, Christopher

One Hundred and Eighty Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, about 5 weeks ago, three Negro Men and one Wench, viz. John, York, Cato, and Dargues: John is a tall slim fellow, country born, is about 30 years old, of a black complexion, a down look, speaks well, and is very artful. York is near 5 feet 7 inches high, well made, about 45 years of age, and is of a yellowish complexion. Cato is about 5 feet 8 inches high, a stout well made fellow, near 35 years old, is a boat negro, speaks good English, and formerly belonged to Mr. Christopher Simmons, tallow chandler, and is well known in town. Dargues, Cato's wife, is a tall slim wench, about 17 years of age, country born, of a dark complexion, and speaks good English. Said slaves are supposed to be gone to the Southward, and were all clothed in homespun when they went off; the above Reward will be paid to whoever apprehends and delivers them to the subscriber or Warden of the Workhouse at Charles town, or fifty dollars, will be paid for the delivery of either of the men, and thirty for the Wench. ROBERT DANIEL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 15 July 1779.]

DARGUES; DORCAS?; b. South Carolina; husband: Cato

Daniel, Robert

One Hundred and Eighty Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, about 5 weeks ago, three Negro Men and one Wench, viz. John, York, Cato, and Dargues: John is a tall slim fellow, country born, is about 30 years old, of a black complexion, a down look, speaks well, and is very artful. York is near 5 feet 7 inches high, well made, about 45 years of age, and is of a yellowish complexion. Cato is about 5 feet 8 inches high, a stout well made fellow, near 35 years old, is a boat negro, speaks good English, and formerly belonged to Mr. Christopher Simmons, tallow chandler, and is well known in town. Dargues, Cato's wife, is a tall slim wench, about 17 years of age, country born, of a dark complexion, and speaks good English. Said slaves are supposed to be gone to the Southward, and were all clothed in homespun when they went off; the above Reward will be paid to whoever apprehends and delivers them to the subscriber or Warden of the Workhouse at Charles town, or fifty dollars, will be paid for the delivery of either of the men, and thirty for the Wench. ROBERT DANIEL.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 15 July 1779.]

MUNGO; CAESAR; whipping scars

Howdowart, Stephen; Pencil, Em.; Skirving, James

Fifty Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscribers the 24th of June last, a negro fellow formerly named

Mungo, but since we purchased him, CAESAR: he is about twenty years of age, 5 feet 3 inches high, a little blick

[blink?] eyed, thin visage, and has the marks of an offender on his back; he had on when he went away, a Pale blue camblet coat and jacket, with steel buttons, and pair of brown breeches: He was formerly the property of James

Skirving, and is now supposed to be harboured about Ponpon. Whoever will deliver him to us, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall receive the above reward, but if he will return of his own accord, he shall be forgiven. Steph.

Howdowart & Em. Pencil, Timmen.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 21 July 1779.]

JACK; b. Jamaica; mustee

Fitzpatrick, Edmond

One Hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber in Charlestown, a mustee boy named Jack, about 17 years old, had on when he went away, a brown coat, and green jacket, check shirt, and striped trowsers, speaks thro' his nose, was born in Jamaica; likewise a mustee wench, this country born, big with child, and not a month to go, formerly belonged to Mr. Valk, and is well known about Goose-creek. The above reward will be given to any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the work-house or me in Charlestown, with all reasonable charges. Edmund Fitzpatrick.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 11 August 1779.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; b. South Carolina; mustee; pregnant*Fitzpatrick, Edmond; Valk, Jacob

One Hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber in Charlestown, a mustee boy named Jack, about 17 years old, had on when he went away, a brown coat, and green jacket, check shirt, and striped trowsers, speaks thro' his nose, was born in Jamaica; likewise a mustee wench, this country born, big with child, and not a month to go, formerly belonged to Mr. Valk, and is well known about Goose-creek. The above reward will be given to any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the work-house or me in Charlestown, with all reasonable charges. Edmund Fitzpatrick.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 11 August 1779.]

MARY ANN; b. Africa; Angola; filed teeth*Noddings, George; Butler, Major

RUN away from the subscriber, about six weeks ago, a Negro Wench named MARY-ANN; she has a smooth face, her teeth filed, and had on when she went away a brown woollen coat: She is about 5 feet two inches high, stout made, and of the Angola country. She has been seen in several parts of the town, and particularly on board Major Butler's schooner [schooner] with the boat negroes, and may be carried to the plantation, where the schooner is gone. I therefore offer the above reward, to any person that will apprehend her, and deliver her to me or to the Warden of the Work-house. All masters of vessels are cautioned not to carry her off the state, as they will be prosecuted to the utmost extent of the law. George Noddings.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 11 August 1779.]

JUDITH*Moses, Jacob

RUN away about a week ago from the subscriber, a negro wench named JUDITH, about 5 feet 6 inches high, smooth faced and small featured, with remarkable large feet, square built, about 17 years of age: She had on when she went away a brown stuff jacket and Coat, and an old black quilt. Whoever will deliver her to me, or the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have 20 Dollars reward and all reasonable Charges paid by Jacob Moses, King-street.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

BRUTUS; b. South Carolina*Abrahams, Joseph; Stanyarne, Mr., estate of

RUN away from the subscriber, a young negro fellow, named Brutus, this country born, about 18 years old; he had on when he went away, an Osnabrugs shirt, brown fustian breeches and Osnabrugs coatee with red cuffs and collar; he was formerly the Property of the estate of Mr. Stanyarne: He has a mother in Dorchester. Whoever takes up said negro and delivers him to me, shall receive a reward of one hundred Dollars, and charges paid. JOS. ABRAHAMS.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

JANE*Gough, John; Harvey, Mrs.

One Thousand Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, two Negro Wenches named Jane and Kate; the former late the property of Mrs. Harvey; she has a cast in one of her eyes, is short and thick, very sensible, and may endeavour to pass as free; she has a husband at Mr. Baker's at Ashley River, where there is reason to think she is harboured. Kate is a stout Wench, likely and sensible, of a yellow complexion, well known in Town and Country, formerly the property of Mrs. Clifford. Any person that will take up said Negroes, and deliver them to the warden of the work-house, or to the Subscriber at Stono, shall receive two hundred pounds currency for each, and a further reward of one thousand pounds currency to any person that will give information of their being harboured by a white person, and two hundred pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender. JOHN GOUGH. [Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

ANONYMOUS MAN; wife: Jane Baker, Mr.

One Thousand Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, two Negro Wenches named Jane and Kate; the former late the property of Mrs. Harvey; she has a cast in one of her eyes, is short and thick, very sensible, and may endeavour to pass as free; she has a husband at Mr. Baker's at Ashley River, where there is reason to think she is harboured. Kate is a stout Wench, likely and sensible, of a yellow complexion, well known in Town and Country, formerly the property of Mrs. Clifford. Any person that will take up said Negroes, and deliver them to the warden of the work-house, or to the Subscriber at Stono, shall receive two hundred pounds currency for each, and a further reward of one thousand pounds currency to any person that will give information of their being harboured by a white person, and two hundred pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender. JOHN GOUGH. [Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

KATE

Gough, John; Clifford, Mrs.

One Thousand Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, two Negro Wenches named Jane and Kate; the former late the property of Mrs. Harvey; she has a cast in one of her eyes, is short and thick, very sensible, and may endeavour to pass as free; she has a husband at Mr. Baker's at Ashley River, where there is reason to think she is harboured. Kate is a stout Wench, likely and sensible, of a yellow complexion, well known in Town and Country, formerly the property of Mrs. Clifford. Any person that will take up said Negroes, and deliver them to the warden of the work-house, or to the Subscriber at Stono, shall receive two hundred pounds currency for each, and a further reward of one thousand pounds currency to any person that will give information of their being harboured by a white person, and two hundred pounds if by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender. JOHN GOUGH. [Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; b. Africa; Ibo; ritual scarification

Harvey, Jacob W.; Withers, Francis; Legge, Edward

RUN away from the subscriber in the beginning of last month, a young Negro Wench, of the Eboe Country, rather low in stature, speaks exceeding good English, her country marks on her forehead, which will not appear unless closely examined; has a lump on the outside of one of her hands. She has been seen with a noted villain belonging to the estate of Mr. Francis Withers, and being an artful wench, I have reason to suppose she may have directed her course southwardly, where she may attempt to pass as free. Having taken away sundry clothes with her, it's needless to mention what she had on when she absconded. One hundred dollars will be paid to any person who will give information of her being harboured by a white person, on conviction, or twenty dollars if by a negro, in the like case. All persons are warned from employing of her at their peril. Ten dollars will be paid for her delivery to Mr. Edward Legge, jun., or the Warden of the work-house in Charles-Town, or in the Georgetown gaol. JACOB W. HARVEY. [Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

ANONYMOUS MAN

Withers, Francis, estate of

RUN away from the subscriber in the beginning of last month, a young Negro Wench, of the Eboe Country, rather low in stature, speaks exceeding good English, her country marks on her forehead, which will not appear unless closely examined; has a lump on the outside of one of her hands. She has been seen with a noted villain belonging to the estate of Mr. Francis Withers, and being an artful wench, I have reason to suppose she may have directed her course southwardly, where she may attempt to pass as free. Having taken away sundry clothes with her, it's needless to mention what she had on when she absconded. One hundred dollars will be paid to any person who will give information of her being harboured by a white person, on conviction, or twenty dollars if by a negro, in the like case. All persons are warned from employing of her at their peril. Ten dollars will be paid for her delivery to Mr. Edward Legge, jun., or the Warden of the work-house in Charles-Town, or in the Georgetown gaol. JACOB W. HARVEY.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

BRISTOL; b. Africa; ritual scarification; mutilated
Kinerd, Martin

RUN away on Sunday the 25th of July last, from the subscriber living on Grimes Creek, a stout, well-made negro fellow, named Bristol, about thirty years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has his country marks in his face, which are streaks down his cheeks, and has a piece off his left big toe; he had on when he went away, a striped homespun jacket and shirt and several other clothes and an old hat. Whoever takes up the said negro fellow, and brings him to me, or gives such information that I may get him again, shall receive a reward of Fifty Dollars, and reasonable expenses paid by me. MARTIN KINERD.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, S.C. 25 August 1779.]

JUDY; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification; housemaid; spinster; husband: Andrew Muckinfoos, George; Muckenfuss

RUN away from the subscriber on the 7th of August instant a Negro wench named Judy, about 18 years of age: She had on when she went away an Osnabrugs coat and wrapper; she is of the Guiney country and has her country marks on her face, she is of a yellowish complexion, well set, of middling stature, has been used to the house and spinning and speaks tolerably plain; she is supposed to have been carried off by a Negro man who calls himself Andrew and says he is free. He is of a black complexion, speaks good English, is very ragged in his dress, nor is it known where he came from or where he is gone. A reward of 70 dollars will be given for the fellow and wench; and whoever will bring or cause to be brought to the subscriber the wench alone shall have a reward of 50 dollars. George Muckinfoos.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 25 August 1779.]

ANDREW

Free?

RUN away from the subscriber on the 7th of August instant a Negro wench named Judy, about 18 years of age: She had on when she went away an Osnabrugs coat and wrapper; she is of the Guiney country and has her country marks on her face, she is of a yellowish complexion, well set, of middling stature, has been used to the house and spinning and speaks tolerably plain; she is supposed to have been carried off by a Negro man who calls himself Andrew and says he is free. He is of a black complexion, speaks good English, is very ragged in his dress, nor is it known where he came from or where he is gone. A reward of 70 dollars will be given for the fellow and wench; and whoever will bring or cause to be brought to the subscriber the wench alone shall have a reward of 50 dollars. George Muckinfoos.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 25 August 1779.]

OTHELLO

Harris, Tucker; Ferguson, Thomas, Esq.

RUN away on the 16th of August, a young, stout, very black fellow named Othello, near 5 feet and a half high and about 18 or 20 years of age: he has a scar on his right cheek and another over his eye; and had on a parson's grey coat with livery lace on the collar and cuffs, a white waistcoat and buckskin breeches, but he may vary his dress as he took with him other clothes: He has acquaintances at Thomas Ferguson's Esq's plantation at Stono and at camp, having lately been much with the army, though it is most probable that he is harboured in town. Those who conceal or harbour him may be certain of prosecution but any person who will deliver him to his master in Charlestown shall have twenty dollars reward. Tucker Harris.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 25 August 1779.]

NOVEMBER

Moncreef, Richard; Moncrieff; Cattell, Mr.

RUN away on the 11th of September instant a Negro boy named November, he had on when he went away Osnabrugs jacket, shirt and breeches, is supposed to be harboured by his father at Mr. Cattell's plantation in St. Andrew's parish, where the boy lived about two months ago, and was purchased in Charlestown; he stole and carried off with him three blankets, one pair sheets, one counterpane and some napkins, aprons and stockings. Whoever takes up said boy and delivers him to me or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown shall receive fifty pounds reward and all reasonable charges. Richard Moncreef.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 29 September 1779.]

ANONYMOUS MAN; son: November

Cattell, Mr.

RUN away on the 11th of September instant a Negro boy named November, he had on when he went away Osnabrug jacket, shirt and breeches, is supposed to be harboured by his father at Mr. Cattell's plantation in St. Andrew's parish, where the boy lived about two months ago, and was purchased in Charlestown; he stole and carried off with him three blankets, one pair sheets, one counterpane and some napkins, aprons and stockings. Whoever takes up said boy and delivers him to me or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown shall receive fifty pounds reward and all reasonable charges. Richard Moncreef.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 29 September 1779.]

WILL; saddler

Callaghan, John; Tearse, Captain

RUN away from the subscriber, the 12th instant a Negro fellow named Will, by trade a saddler, formerly the property of Captain Tearse; he had on when he went away, a blue jacket and a pair of overhauls, he is supposed to be on board some vessel in the harbour. Whoever will bring him to the subscriber shall receive fifty dollars reward and if harboured by a white person, on conviction of the offender, a reward of 200 pounds currency will be given. John Callaghan.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 29 September 1779.]

LUCY; b. Africa; Angola; ritual scarification

Clancy, William

RUN away last night (the 27th of September) from the subscriber, a Negro wench named Lucy, of the Angola country, about 20 years old and has her country marks on both cheeks. Whoever takes up said wench shall receive 30 dollars on delivering her at the workhouse or to Wm. Clancy.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 29 September 1779.]

SANDY; mutilated

Little, Samuel

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber, about a month ago, a Negro man named Sandy, an artful fellow about 5 feet 3 or 5 inches high, speaks English very well, of a black complexion and has lost his great right toe and the greatest part of the next to it; he formerly wore an iron which makes him walk rather lame. Any person who will deliver him to the subscriber at Santee in St. Mark's parish or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown shall have the above reward and if it can be made appear he has been employed by a white person, 100 dollars more, and if by a Negro, 50 more, with all reasonable charges. The said fellow has been out about 5 weeks. Sam. Little.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 6 October 1779.]

BOROUGH; mutilated; lame; whipping scars

Lafille, Nicholas

RUN away about 5 weeks since, two Negroes, a fellow and a wench, the fellow's name is Borough and is short and thick made, has no toes on either of his feet which makes him walk lame, generally wears shoes, and he has the marks of an old offender on his back. The wench's name is Hannah, she is about 5 feet high, her right eye is generally moist and a little swelled under it. Whoever will deliver them at the subscriber's house in Dutch Town or to the warden of the workhouse shall receive one hundred dollars. Nicholas Lafille.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 6 October 1779.]

HANNAH

Lafille, Nicholas

RUN away about 5 weeks since, two Negroes, a fellow and a wench, the fellow's name is Borough and is short and thick made, has no toes on either of his feet which makes him walk lame, generally wears shoes, and he has the marks of an old offender on his back. The wench's name is Hannah, she is about 5 feet high, her right eye is generally moist and a little swelled under it. Whoever will deliver them at the subscriber's house in Dutch Town or to the warden of the workhouse shall receive one hundred dollars. Nicholas Lafille.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 6 October 1779.]

JUPITER

Dawson, John; Monck, Mrs.

SIX hundred pounds reward. Run away about three months ago, three Negro men named Jupiter, Morris and Abram, they were bought of Mrs. Monck in St. John's parish, in whose neighbourhood they are well known and have a long train of acquaintance and relations, by whom they are supposed to be harboured and entertained. A reward of 100 pounds each will be given for delivering them to the warden of the workhouse or at my plantation on Wateree and the like reward to any person giving such information of their being harboured as to convict the offenders. John Dawson.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

MORRIS

Dawson, John; Monck, Mrs.

SIX hundred pounds reward. Run away about three months ago, three Negro men named Jupiter, Morris and Abram, they were bought of Mrs. Monck in St. John's parish, in whose neighbourhood they are well known and have a long train of acquaintance and relations, by whom they are supposed to be harboured and entertained. A reward of 100 pounds each will be given for delivering them to the warden of the workhouse or at my plantation on Wateree and the like reward to any person giving such information of their being harboured as to convict the offenders. John Dawson.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

ABRAM

Dawson, John; Monck, Mrs.

SIX hundred pounds reward. Run away about three months ago, three Negro men named Jupiter, Morris and Abram, they were bought of Mrs. Monck in St. John's parish, in whose neighbourhood they are well known and have a long train of acquaintance and relations, by whom they are supposed to be harboured and entertained. A reward of 100 pounds each will be given for delivering them to the warden of the workhouse or at my plantation on Wateree and the like reward to any person giving such information of their being harboured as to convict the offenders. John Dawson.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

QUASH

King, Hartwell; Smyth, John; Wakefield, Mr.; Dawson, John; Thomson, Colonel

RUN away, a Negro fellow named Quash, about 18 years old, lately purchased from Mr. John Smyth and formerly belonged to Mr. Wakefield; he is well known in and about Charlestown; fifty pounds reward will be given for delivering him to Mr. John Dawson, the warden of the workhouse or to the subscriber, near Col. Thomson's. Hartwell King.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

YORK; b. Africa; rum distillery worker; boatman; brother: Jack

Anonymous Planter; Smyth, John; Izard, Ralph

RUN away, about the 30th of June last, two Negro fellows named York and Jack--they are brothers, York is about 25 years old and about 6 feet high, likely and well made and very black. He has been used chiefly to work in a rum distillery, is a native of Africa but talks pretty good English. Jack is about 23 years old and is near as high as York, likely, well made and very black but doth not speak so well as York, used also to work in a rum distillery, till within these last twelve months; they have both been used to go to a schooner up Cooper River: At the time they ran away I had sold them to a back country planter; but if they will of themselves now come back to me, they shall be forgiven. Any person bringing them or either of them to me, shall be rewarded with a hundred dollars for each, besides reasonable charges; and one hundred dollars more will be paid to any person proving them to be harboured, concealed or employed by a white person, and fifty dollars for a Negro, to be paid on conviction. I suspect they are frequently at Goose Creek, at or near Izard's camp [Ralph Izard's plantation, called The Camp]. John Smyth.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

JACK; b. Africa; rum distillery worker; boatman; brother: York

Anonymous Planter; Smyth, John; Izard, Ralph

RUN away, about the 30th of June last, two Negro fellows named York and Jack--they are brothers, York is about 25 years old and about 6 feet high, likely and well made and very black. He has been used chiefly to work in a rum distillery, is a native of Africa but talks pretty good English. Jack is about 23 years old and is near as high as York, likely, well made and very black but doth not speak so well as York, used also to work in a rum distillery, till within these last twelve months; they have both been used to go to a schooner up Cooper River: At the time they ran away I had sold them to a back country planter; but if they will of themselves now come back to me, they shall be forgiven. Any person bringing them or either of them to me, shall be rewarded with a hundred dollars for each, besides reasonable charges; and one hundred dollars more will be paid to any person proving them to be harboured, concealed or employed by a white person, and fifty dollars for a Negro, to be paid on conviction. I suspect they are frequently at Goose Creek, at or near Izard's camp [Ralph Izard's plantation, called The Camp]. John Smyth.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

NANCY; lived Georgia

Habersham, Joseph, Esq.; Kershaw, Colonel; Habersham, James

FIFTY dollars reward. Run away from Colonel Kershaw's plantation, near Camden, about four weeks ago, a Negro wench named Nancy, belonging to Joseph Habersham, Esq, of the state of Georgia. Said wench is pretty lusty and has a remarkably large mouth, a very black complexion, is about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high and about 25 years of age; speaks good English and is very artful--had on when she went away an Osnabruks wrapper and petticoat--she has been lately seen on the Charlestown road near Neilson's Ferry. Whoever takes up said wench and will deliver her to Col. Kershaw at Camden or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown or to the subscriber at the High Hills of Santee shall receive the above reward. James Habersham.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 13 October 1779.]

FLORA

Simmons, Charles Howell; Wayne, Mr.

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber on Friday the 8th instant a Negro wench named Flora, speaks good English, about 27 years of age, short and well made, has a remarkable scar in the back of her neck and late the property of Mr. Wayne: had on when she went away a green woollen wrapper and an osnabruks coat. Whoever will give information of her being harboured by any white person shall receive the above reward: or if by a Negro fifty dollars; if gone into the country a handsome reward and all expenses will be paid on delivering her to the warden of the workhouse or to me in Charlestown. N.B. As she may endeavour to hire herself out, I forbid any person to employ or harbour her, as they may depend on being dealt with to the utmost rigour of the law. I will give her free pardon if she returns to her duty. Charles Howell Simmons.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 27 October 1779.]

JUDY; husband: Cato

Lockwood, J.; Dawson, Mr.

RUN away from me in Charlestown in August last, a well made wench named Judy, together with her husband, a stout well made fellow belonging to Mr. Dawson, whose name is Cato. Also run away from my boat near the mouth of the Santee in June last, a likely well made young fellow of the name of Stepney. Any one that will secure or bring home either of the above three slaves, shall receive one hundred dollars reward for each and all reasonable charges. Cato and Judy are undoubtedly together. J. Lockwood.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 27 October 1779.]

CATO; wife: Judy

Dawson, Mr.

RUN away from me in Charlestown in August last, a well made wench named Judy, together with her husband, a stout well made fellow belonging to Mr. Dawson, whose name is Cato. Also run away from my boat near the mouth of the Santee in June last, a likely well made young fellow of the name of Stepney. Any one that will secure or bring home either of the above three slaves, shall receive one hundred dollars reward for each and all reasonable charges. Cato and Judy are undoubtedly together. J. Lockwood.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 27 October 1779.]

STEPNEY

Lockwood, J.

RUN away from me in Charlestown in August last, a well made wench named Judy, together with her husband, a stout well made fellow belonging to Mr. Dawson, whose name is Cato. Also run away from my boat near the mouth of the Santee in June last, a likely well made young fellow of the name of Stepney. Any one that will secure or bring home either of the above three slaves, shall receive one hundred dollars reward for each and all reasonable charges. Cato and Judy are undoubtedly together. J. Lockwood.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 27 October 1779.]

JOE

Crouch, Joe; Smith, Reverend; Harleston & Bonneau; Skirving, James, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber in August last, a likely black fellow named Joe, about 6 feet high and well made, is well known about town, having been owned by the Rev. Mr. Smith, Messrs. Harleston and Bonneau, and James Skirving, Esq. Also in the afternoon of Sunday the 31st ult., a likely stout young wench named Nancy, of a yellowish complexion (with her female mulatto child of about a year old) formerly belonging to Roger Pinckney, Esq., and purchased of Mrs. Pinckney about two years ago. Five hundred dollars reward will be given for each of the above runaways, delivered to the warden of the workhouse. Henry Crouch.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 3 November 1779.]

NANCY; 1 daughter

Crouch, Joe; Pinckney, Mrs.; Pinckney, Roger, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber in August last, a likely black fellow named Joe, about 6 feet high and well made, is well known about town, having been owned by the Rev. Mr. Smith, Messrs. Harleston and Bonneau, and James Skirving, Esq. Also in the afternoon of Sunday the 31st ult., a likely stout young wench named Nancy, of a yellowish complexion (with her female mulatto child of about a year old) formerly belonging to Roger Pinckney, Esq., and purchased of Mrs. Pinckney about two years ago. Five hundred dollars reward will be given for each of the above runaways, delivered to the warden of the workhouse. Henry Crouch.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 3 November 1779.]

ANONYMOUS GIRL; mulatto; mother: Nancy; father: Roger Pinckney, Esquire?

Crouch, Joe; Pinckney, Mrs.; Pinckney, Roger, Esq.

RUN away from the subscriber in August last, a likely black fellow named Joe, about 6 feet high and well made, is well known about town, having been owned by the Rev. Mr. Smith, Messrs. Harleston and Bonneau, and James Skirving, Esq. Also in the afternoon of Sunday the 31st ult., a likely stout young wench named Nancy, of a yellowish complexion (with her female mulatto child of about a year old) formerly belonging to Roger Pinckney, Esq., and purchased of Mrs. Pinckney about two years ago. Five hundred dollars reward will be given for each of the above runaways, delivered to the warden of the workhouse. Henry Crouch.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 3 November 1779.]

HECTOR; lame; gardener

Dubertas, Dr., estate of; Dubertas, Mary; Haly, Dr.

RUN away about the middle of September last, an old Negro fellow named Hector, formerly the property of Doctor Haly: He is about five feet five inches high, a little lame and by trade a gardener, and now belonging to the estate of the late Doctor Dubertas. Whoever will deliver the said Negro to the subscriber in Charlestown or to any of the gaol-keepers in the state shall receive a handsome reward and all reasonable charges. Mary Dubertas.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

CHLOE

Butler, Thomas

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

See CHLOE in other newspapers.

HERCULES

Jacobs, Jacob

FOUR hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber on Sunday night last, two Negro fellows named Hercules and Romeo, the former is about five feet two or three inches high, very black, speaks good English and had on when he went away a blue coat and jacket with a red cape and white metal buttons: The latter is about five feet high, of a yellowish complexion, speaks good English and had on a great coat, red jacket and black or osnabrigs breeches. They both had hats and may perhaps change their dress having carried all their clothing with them. The above reward will be given for the taking of the said two Negroes and the half for either of them. All masters of vessels are forbid from carrying off the Negroes at their peril. Jacob Jacobs.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

ROMEO

Jacobs, Jacob

FOUR hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber on Sunday night last, two Negro fellows named Hercules and Romeo, the former is about five feet two or three inches high, very black, speaks good English and had on when he went away a blue coat and jacket with a red cape and white metal buttons: The latter is about five feet high, of a yellowish complexion, speaks good English and had on a great coat, red jacket and black or osnaburgs breeches. They both had hats and may perhaps change their dress having carried all their clothing with them. The above reward will be given for the taking of the said two Negroes and the half for either of them. All masters of vessels are forbid from carrying off the Negroes at their peril. Jacob Jacobs.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

ISAAC; carpenter

Weston, Plowden; Chandler, Dr.; Bellamy, Mrs.; White, Blake-Leay

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber, a likely young fellow of a yellowish complexion, named Isaac, by trade a carpenter; he had on a short brown coat, striped flannel jacket, leather breeches and woollen stockings. The above reward will be paid on delivery of said fellow to the warden of the workhouse and the same sum on proof of his being harboured or employed by any white person or Negro. The fellow has a wife belonging to Mrs. Bellamy and a mother and brothers belonging to Dr. Chandler, and relations at Mr. Blake-Leay White's plantation at St. John's, but it is supposed that he is in town. If he will return to his duty immediately he shall be forgiven. Plowden Weston.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; husband: Isaac

Bellamy, Mrs.

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber, a likely young fellow of a yellowish complexion, named Isaac, by trade a carpenter; he had on a short brown coat, striped flannel jacket, leather breeches and woollen stockings. The above reward will be paid on delivery of said fellow to the warden of the workhouse and the same sum on proof of his being harboured or employed by any white person or Negro. The fellow has a wife belonging to Mrs. Bellamy and a mother and brothers belonging to Dr. Chandler, and relations at Mr. Blake-Leay White's plantation at St. John's, but it is supposed that he is in town. If he will return to his duty immediately he shall be forgiven. Plowden Weston.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; son: Isaac

Chandler, Dr.

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber, a likely young fellow of a yellowish complexion, named Isaac, by trade a carpenter; he had on a short brown coat, striped flannel jacket, leather breeches and woollen stockings. The above reward will be paid on delivery of said fellow to the warden of the workhouse and the same sum on proof of his being harboured or employed by any white person or Negro. The fellow has a wife belonging to Mrs. Bellamy and a mother and brothers belonging to Dr. Chandler, and relations at Mr. Blake-Leay White's plantation at St. John's, but it is supposed that he is in town. If he will return to his duty immediately he shall be forgiven. Plowden Weston.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

ANONYMOUS MAN #1; brother: Isaac

Chandler, Dr.

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber, a likely young fellow of a yellowish complexion, named Isaac, by trade a carpenter; he had on a short brown coat, striped flannel jacket, leather breeches and woollen stockings. The above reward will be paid on delivery of said fellow to the warden of the workhouse and the same sum on proof of his being harboured or employed by any white person or Negro. The fellow has a wife belonging to Mrs. Bellamy and a mother and brothers belonging to Dr. Chandler, and relations at Mr. Blake-Leay White's plantation at St. John's, but it is supposed that he is in town. If he will return to his duty immediately he shall be forgiven. Plowden Weston.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

ANONYMOUS MAN #2; brother: Isaac

Chandler, Dr.

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber, a likely young fellow of a yellowish complexion, named Isaac, by trade a carpenter; he had on a short brown coat, striped flannel jacket, leather breeches and woollen stockings. The above reward will be paid on delivery of said fellow to the warden of the workhouse and the same sum on proof of his being harboured or employed by any white person or Negro. The fellow has a wife belonging to Mrs. Bellamy and a mother and brothers belonging to Dr. Chandler, and relations at Mr. Blake-Leay White's plantation at St. John's, but it is supposed that he is in town. If he will return to his duty immediately he shall be forgiven. Plowden Weston.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

PHEBE; PHOEBE

Ellis, Richard

RUN away, a Negro wench named Phebe, supposed to be harboured in town. I will give one hundred dollars reward to any person who will inform me where she is harboured. All masters of vessels are forewarned carrying the said wench off the state. Richard Ellis.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 24 November 1779.]

SOPHIA

Hunt, Ann; Smith, Henry, Esq.; Galphin, George

RUN away from the subscriber, a likely sensible country-born wench of a yellowish complexion named Sophia; as she has a husband at Mr. George Galphin's near Augusta, it is very probable she may be harboured there. Whoever will deliver her to me at Henry Smith, Esq.'s at Goose Creek, or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, shall receive one hundred dollars reward and all reasonable charges. Ann Hunt.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 1 December 1779.]

ANONYMOUS MAN; lived Georgia; wife: Sophia

Galphin, George

RUN away from the subscriber, a likely sensible country-born wench of a yellowish complexion named Sophia; as she has a husband at Mr. George Galphin's near Augusta, it is very probable she may be harboured there.

Whoever will deliver her to me at Henry Smith, Esq.'s at Goose Creek, or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown, shall receive one hundred dollars reward and all reasonable charges. Ann Hunt.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 1 December 1779.]

TONY

Pinckney, Thomas

ABSENTED themselves from the subscriber's plantation near the Fish-pond bridge on Ashepoo River, the 27th of October, the following Negroes; Tony, a sensible country born fellow about 23 years old, middle stature and well made; Dinah, a likely country born wench about 36 years of age, was big with child when she went away and had a young child in arms, Phillis, daughter to Dinah, about 13 years, they were all clothed in homespun cloth. Sixty dollars reward will be paid on the delivery of each of the said Negroes at the above mentioned plantation or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown. Thomas Pinckney.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 1 December 1779.]

DINAH; pregnant; daughter: Phillis; 1 other child

Pinckney, Thomas

ABSENTED themselves from the subscriber's plantation near the Fish-pond bridge on Ashepoo River, the 27th of October, the following Negroes; Tony, a sensible country born fellow about 23 years old, middle stature and well made; Dinah, a likely country born wench about 36 years of age, was big with child when she went away and had a young child in arms, Phillis, daughter to Dinah, about 13 years, they were all clothed in homespun cloth. Sixty dollars reward will be paid on the delivery of each of the said Negroes at the above mentioned plantation or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown. Thomas Pinckney.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 1 December 1779.]

PHILLIS; mother: Dinah; 1 sibling

Pinckney, Thomas

ABSENTED themselves from the subscriber's plantation near the Fish-pond bridge on Ashepoo River, the 27th of October, the following Negroes; Tony, a sensible country born fellow about 23 years old, middle stature and well made; Dinah, a likely country born wench about 36 years of age, was big with child when she went away and had a young child in arms, Phillis, daughter to Dinah, about 13 years, they were all clothed in homespun cloth. Sixty dollars reward will be paid on the delivery of each of the said Negroes at the above mentioned plantation or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown. Thomas Pinckney.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 1 December 1779.]

ANONYMOUS CHILD; mother: Dinah; sister: Phillis

Pinckney, Thomas

ABSENTED themselves from the subscriber's plantation near the Fish-pond bridge on Ashepoo River, the 27th of October, the following Negroes; Tony, a sensible country born fellow about 23 years old, middle stature and well made; Dinah, a likely country born wench about 36 years of age, was big with child when she went away and had a young child in arms, Phillis, daughter to Dinah, about 13 years, they were all clothed in homespun cloth. Sixty dollars reward will be paid on the delivery of each of the said Negroes at the above mentioned plantation or to the warden of the workhouse in Charlestown. Thomas Pinckney.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 1 December 1779.]

STEPHEN

Chapman, William; Ross, Peter; Stewart, Thomas

ONE hundred dollars reward. Run away last August, about the 23rd or 24th, a Negro boy named Stephen, formerly the property of Peter Ross, Barber; he is 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, has a small lump or wen on his breast, speaks good English and is very artful; he had on when he went off, an osnabrug shirt with camp sleeves, a pair of Russia drab breeches very much patched. Any person that will bring the said Negro to Thomas Stewart, sail-maker on Trott's Point or to the warden of the workhouse shall have the above reward and all reasonable charges. William Chapman. N.B. A further reward of 50 dollars if harboured by a white person and if by a Negro 30 dollars will be paid on conviction of the offender. All masters of vessels are forewarned from carrying him at their peril.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 8 December 1779.]

SAM

Gray, Henry; Brailsford, Joseph; Brailsford, John; Dunbar, Captain

TWO hundred dollars reward. Run away from the subscriber about two months ago, a likely Negro boy named Sam, about 14 years of age, had on a blue short jacket with red cuffs and cape, and osnabruks [osnaburg] under clothes; he was lately purchased of Mr. Joseph Brailsford, and is supposed to have made off for his plantation at Coosawhatchie or Mr. John Brailsford's on Ashley River, at both of which places he has relations. The above reward, besides lawful charges, will be paid to any person delivering him to the warden of the workhouse, Capt. Dunbar of the 2nd regiment at Sheldon, or to the subscriber in Charlestown. A further reward of 300 dollars for information by whom he is harboured. Henry Gray.

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 8 December 1779.]

STATE

Rusk, David

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 4 February, 1780.]

See STATE in South-Carolina and American General Gazette. Charlestown, SC, 4 February 1780.

DINA; DINAH

Sutcliffe, John

TWO hundred dollars reward. Run away, a Negro wench named Dina, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high; she is of a yellowish complexion and about 29 or 30 years of age. Whoever secures her in the workhouse or brings her to the subscriber shall receive the above reward. John Sutcliffe

[Gazette of the State of South-Carolina. Charlestown, SC. 9 February, 1780.]

Charlestown Gazette (Mary Crouch & Company)
Charlestown, South Carolina
3 November 1778 to 21 August 1784.

AARON

M'Kimmy, William

[Charlestown Gazette. 3 November 1778. Supplement.]

[See AARON, South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 27 August 1778.]

ROBIN

Young, Thomas; Rutherford, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber at the Four Holes, a Negro Man named ROBIN, about 5 feet 3 inches high, was lately purchased from Mr. Rutherford at Toogadoo, and was lately seen about two miles out of town. FIFTEEN POUNDS reward will be given on delivery of him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me at the Four Holes. THOMAS YOUNG.

[Charlestown Gazette. 3 November 1778, Supplement]

PETER; mulatto

Thomson, James H.; Chalmers, Dr. (d.); Motte, Jacob

Twenty Pounds Reward. RUN away on Saturday evening, the 17th of October instant, from the subscriber, an artful MULATTO FELLOW named PETER, formerly the property of the late Dr. Chalmers, well known in town, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, has bushy hair, had on when he went away, a Wilton coat with buttons covered with cloth of the same, Russia drab breeches, and an old brown jacket without skirts; but may change his dress. All masters of vessels are, at their peril, warned against carrying him off. The above reward will be given to any person delivering him to the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in King-street, nearly opposite Jacob Motte, Esq's. with a further reward of Twenty Pound, on conviction, if harboured by a negro, or Fifty if harboured by any white person. JAMES H. THOMSON.

[Charlestown Gazette. 3 November 1778. Supplement.]

FRANK

Deweese, William

RUN away from the subscriber the 10th of January instant, two negro men named FRANK and CHARLES. Frank is a well set fellow; Charles is a slim smooth face young fellow, and had on when he went away, a green broadcloth coat and a pair of canvas trowsers. It is supposed they are gone to Christ Church Parish, as they are well acquainted with the negroes thereabouts. Whoever delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive FIFTY DOLLARS reward, and all reasonable charges. WILLIAM DEWEES.

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779.]

CHARLES

Deweese, William

RUN away from the subscriber the 10th of January instant, two negro men named FRANK and CHARLES. Frank is a well set fellow; Charles is a slim smooth face young fellow, and had on when he went away, a green broadcloth coat and a pair of canvas trowsers. It is supposed they are gone to Christ Church Parish, as they are well acquainted with the negroes thereabouts. Whoever delivers them to me or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive FIFTY DOLLARS reward, and all reasonable charges. WILLIAM DEWEES.

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779.]

PETER

Eveleigh, Thomas

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779] See PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN, CHESHIRE, and SYLVIA, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 20 January 1779; South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 21 January 1779.

BACCHUS

Eveleigh, Thomas

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779] See PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN, CHESHIRE, and SYLVIA, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 20 January 1779; South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 21 January 1779.

DUBLIN*Eveleigh, Thomas

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779] See PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN, CHESHIRE, and SYLVIA, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 20 January 1779; South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 21 January 1779.

CHESHIRE*Eveleigh, Thomas

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779.] See PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN, CHESHIRE, and SYLVIA, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 20 January 1779; South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 21 January 1779.

SYLVIA*Eveleigh, Thomas

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779] See PETER, BACCHUS, DUBLIN, CHESHIRE, and SYLVIA, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 20 January 1779; South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 21 January 1779.

HOMUS*Farrell, William; Wright, Governor, estate of; Leeson, James

One Hundred Pounds Reward. RUN away from the subscriber the first day of January instant, at Monck's Corner, a NEGRO FELLOW named HOMUS, 17 years of age, about 5 feet 5 inches high, knocked in one knee, owing to his right leg being broke when young, which makes it crooked: He is of a dark complexion, has a small bump under one of his eyes, and had on when he went away, a new wool hat, a pair of leather breeches, and a pair of shoe boots. As he was purchased at the sale of the estate of Governour Wright in Georgia, it is probable he will make for that place. The above reward of One Hundred Pounds, and all reasonable charges, will be paid to any person that will take him up, and put him into the Work-house in Charlestown, or deliver him to JAMES LEESON there. WILLIAM FARRELL. 5th January, 1779.

[Charlestown Gazette. 26 January 1779.]

WILLIAM; literate*Blake, Edward; Spencer, Captain; Grimball, Thomas, Huger, Benjamin, Robinson, Mrs.; Rutledge, Mrs.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, two Negro Men, WILLIAM and COLONEL: William is about 5 feet 9 inches high, of a slender make, very artful and sensible, writes a tolerable good hand, and will, no doubt, forge passes for himself; he is well known in and about Charlestown, and is supposed to be harboured at Mrs. Rutledge's plantation at Wando: he did formerly belong to Thomas Grimball, Esq; Benjamin Huger, Esq; Mrs. Robinson, and a Capt. Spencer, from whom his present owner purchased him. Colonel is about 6 feet high, of a yellowish complexion, a stout raw-bon'd fellow, speaks good English; he run away from the Edisto saw mills, and is supposed to be harboured in that neighbourhood. One Hundred Dollars reward will be given to any person who will deliver either of said negroes to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the subscriber in Charlestown. EDWARD BLAKE.

[Charlestown Gazette. 23 November 1779.]

COLONEL; sawyer*Blake, Edward

Two Hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, two Negro Men, WILLIAM and COLONEL.... Colonel is about 6 feet high, of a yellowish complexion, a stout raw-bon'd fellow, speaks good English; he run away from the Edisto saw mills, and is supposed to be harboured in that neighbourhood. One Hundred Dollars reward will be given to any person who will deliver either of said negroes to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the subscriber in Charlestown. EDWARD BLAKE.

[Charlestown Gazette. 23 November 1779.]

WILL; mulatto*Bellamy, William

RUN away from the subscriber about three weeks ago, a mulatto boy named WILL, about 18 years of age, 5 feet

6 inches high, much pock marked, and may attempt to pass for a free fellow; had with him when he run away a blue cloth coat with white edging and anchor buttons, and a white negro cloth coat and trowsers of the same. I hereby forewarn all masters of vessels or others from carrying him off the State, or any person from harbouring him, on pain of being prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law; and a reward of Two Hundred Dollars will be paid to any person delivering him to me or the Warden of the Work house in Charles-town. WILLIAM BELLAMY.

[Charlestown Gazette. 11 January 1780.]

PHILLIS

Williams, Robert; Waring, Lloyd (d)

RUN away from the subscriber, in April last, a negro wench named PHILLIS, who is a short, thick wench, born in this country, aged about 35 years, has lost several of her fore teeth, and formerly belonged to Lloyd Waring, deceased, at the Indian Land. She had on when she absented herself, a chequed camelot gown, osnaburgh apron, &c. Also a negro wench named LAETITIA, who is likewise a short wench, born in this country, aged about 30 years, has a scar in the lower part of the right cheek, and formerly belonged to George Jackson, deceased, at Ponpon. She had on when she absented herself, a new chocolate coloured woolen gown, cheque apron, &c. but she, as well as the former, may have changed their dress, as they carried all their cloaths with them. Both the above negroes lived many years to the Southward, where they have a variety of relations, in Charlestown, it is probable they are harboured. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward are hereby offered to any person, who will apprehend and deliver either of the above negroes, to the Warden of the Work-house, or to ROBERT WILLIAMS.

[Charlestown Gazette. 11 January 1780.]

LAETITIA; LETITIA

Williams, Robert; Jackson, George (d)

RUN away from the subscriber, in April last, a negro wench named PHILLIS...Also a negro wench named LAETITIA, who is likewise a short wench, born in this country, aged about 30 years, has a scar in the lower part of the right cheek, and formerly belonged to George Jackson, deceased, at Ponpon. She had on when she absented herself, a new chocolate coloured woolen gown, cheque apron, &c. but she, as well as the former, may have changed their dress, as they carried all their cloaths with them. Both the above negroes lived many years to the Southward, where they have a variety of relations, in Charlestown, it is probable they are harboured. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward are hereby offered to any person, who will apprehend and deliver either of the above negroes, to the Warden of the Work-house, or to ROBERT WILLIAMS.

[Charlestown Gazette. 11 January 1780]

See LAETITIA in other newspapers.

BETTY; FREE BETTY; b. Africa; Guinea

King, Benjamin

One Hundred Dollars Reward. RUN away on Thursday night, Nov. 18, 1779, a negro wench named BETTY, about 5 feet some odd inches high, of the Guinea country, about 30 years old, remarkable spare, speaks very good English, very artful and cunning, and may attempt to pass by the name of free Betty, she took with her two brown jackets (Bath coating) and petticoat, a black callimanco ditto, well acquainted with town and country, and not unacquainted with coasting schooners. I will give the above reward and all reasonable charges, to any person who will deliver the said wench to me in Charlestown, or the Warden of the Work-house; and on proper information given of her being harboured by a white person, 200 dollars, and 50 if by a negro. BEN. KING.

[Charlestown Gazette. 11 January 1780]

DINAH

Fabian, John; M'Gillivray, Mr., estate of; Matthews, Benjamin, Captain; O'Hear, James

RUN away from the subscriber in September last, a likely, young black wench, named DINAH, this country born, is remarkable in the set of her eye-teeth jutting considerably out from the others, and is very observable when she smiles; she has likewise a large scar near one of her elbows. This wench was purchased near two years ago at the sale of the estate of Mr. M'Gillivray's on Wadmelow [Wadmalaw Island] and had then a father living on John's Island, and belonging to Capt. Benjamin Mathewes, where it is supposed she may be harboured, or about some part of Wadmelow, being well known thereabouts. Whoever apprehends said wench, and delivers her to me at Tobadoo [Toobadoo], or JAMES O'HEAR in Charlestown, shall receive Fifty Dollars reward, and a further reward of Two Hundred Dollars will be paid to any person giving proper information of her being harboured as I am determined to prosecute, with the utmost severity, any so offending. JOHN FABIAN.

[Charlestown Gazette. 11 January 1780.]

JOE

Hinds, Patrick

[Charlestown Gazette. 18 January 1780.]

See JOE, South-Carolina and American General Gazette, 4 February 1780.

SABY; father: David Wilson

Daniel, Robert; Laurence, Jonathan; Lynch, Thomas, estate of

RUN away from the Subscriber, a negro man named SABY, who lately went in a schooner, he is well known in Charlestown, where he has many friends, and a wife belonging to the Estate of THOMAS LYNCH Esq; deceased. He is also known in St. Thomas Parish, where his Father a negro named DAVID WILSON now lives, whoever will deliver said negro to the WARDEN of the work house in Charlestown, JONATHAN LAURENCE or to me, shall receive One Hundred Dollars Reward, or whoever will give information of his being harboured by a white person or free negro, shall have Four Hundred Dollars, or one Hundred Dollars, if by a slave, to be paid on conviction of the offender. All persons are forbid carrying said negro off the State or harbouring him on pain of being prosecuted by ROBERT DANIEL. Cainhoy January 21st 1780.

[Charlestown Gazette. 18 January 1780.]

DAVID WILSON; son: Saby

Free?

RUN away from the Subscriber, a negro man named SABY, who lately went in a schooner, he is well known in Charlestown, where he has many friends, and a wife belonging to the Estate of THOMAS LYNCH Esq; deceased. He is also known in St. Thomas Parish, where his Father a negro named DAVID WILSON now lives...Cainhoy January 21st 1780.

[Charlestown Gazette. 18 January 1780.]

Royal South-Carolina Gazette

Charlestown, South Carolina. 1780 and 1782 excerpts.

TITUS; b. Africa

Atkins, Charles

RUN-AWAY, two negro men named Titus and Joe, both natives of Africa: Titus went off about a week before the town surrendered. He is short and well set, down look, the whites of his eyes are reddish or blood-shot, about 35 years old. He may probably alter his name, speaks bad English, and can (tho' very cunning and artful) pass for a fool. I am told he is in town; I have constantly offered among negroes of his acquaintance, to forgive him if he returned of his own accord. Joe, just gone away, having of late been guilty of repeated thefts, and of beating a valuable elderly negro woman of mine. He is about 18 years of age, near 5 feet 7 inches high, ill made, flat nose, thick lips, his breast bones uncommonly high, very knock-kneed, and remarkable long feet and heels. Used to wait in a house; had on an oznabrig shirt and coarse red breeches. I will give two guineas to take them, or a guinea for each of them. When the courts of law are opened, I will prosecute any person, white or black, who harbours or employs them, and will give five guineas to convict such offenders. CHARLES ATKINS. Charles-Town, June 19, 1780.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 June 1780.]

See TITUS in other newspapers.

JOE; b. Africa

Atkins, Charles

RUN-AWAY, two negro men named Titus and Joe, both natives of Africa....Joe, just gone away, having of late been guilty of repeated thefts, and of beating a valuable elderly negro woman of mine. He is about 18 years of age, near 5 feet 7 inches high, ill made, flat nose, thick lips, his breast bones uncommonly high, very knock-kneed, and remarkable long feet and heels. Used to wait in a house; had on an oznabrig shirt and coarse red breeches. I will give two guineas to take them, or a guinea for each of them. When the courts of law are opened, I will prosecute any person, white or black, who harbours or employs them, and will give five guineas to convict such offenders. CHARLES ATKINS. Charles-Town, June 19, 1780.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 June 1780.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN

Atkins, Charles

RUN-AWAY, two negro men named Titus and Joe, both natives of Africa: Titus went off about a week before the town surrendered. He is short and well set, down look, the whites of his eyes are reddish or blood-shot, about 35 years old. He may probably alter his name, speaks bad English, and can (tho' very cunning and artful) pass for a fool. I am told he is in town; I have constantly offered among negroes of his acquaintance, to forgive him if he returned of his own accord. Joe, just gone away, having of late been guilty of repeated thefts, and of beating a valuable elderly negro woman of mine. He is about 18 years of age, near 5 feet 7 inches high, ill made, flat nose, thick lips, his breast bones uncommonly high, very knock-kneed, and remarkable long feet and heels. Used to wait in a house; had on an oznabrig shirt and coarse red breeches. I will give two guineas to take them, or a guinea for each of them. When the courts of law are opened, I will prosecute any person, white or black, who harbours or employs them, and will give five guineas to convict such offenders. CHARLES ATKINS. Charles-Town, June 19, 1780.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 20 June 1780.]

JACK; caulker; lumberjack

Russell, John

Twenty Dollars Reward. RUN-AWAY from the subscriber the 3d inst. a Negro man, named JACK, by trade a caulker, and understands a little axe work, about 22 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high; he is very remarkable for his great toe having grown over his second toe, speaks tolerable good English, had on when he went away a pair of duck trowsers and an Oznabrig shirt; supposed to have gone on board some vessel in the harbour: All masters of transports and other vessels are hereby warned not to harbour the said Negro, as they shall answer it at their peril. JOHN RUSSELL. No. 1, Bedon's-Alley. N.B. He is remarkably black.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 July 1780.]

TOM

Ramsey, James, Commander

RUN-away three days ago, from on board the Brigantine Polly, James Ramsey, commander, a negro boy named TOM, aged 20 years, about 5 feet 6 inches high, had on when he went away, a long red jacket, a pair of long trousers, and a small black hat or cap. Whoever will apprehend the said boy, and deliver him to the Printers, shall receive Three Dollars reward. Dec. 7.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 December 1780]

PHILLIS

Holmes, Doreas; Dorcas?

RUN-AWAY from the subscriber on Thursday the 14th instant, a tall Negro Wench, named PHILLIS, had on when she went away a white negro cloth jacket, with blue sleeves, a callico coat, an old red cloak, and a pair of large black ear bobs in her ears; she has a remarkable scar on her nose, and as she is well known in town, it is very probable she will hire to wash and cook. One Guinea reward will be paid on delivery of said wench to the subscriber. All persons are forbid harbouring her, as they will answer the same at their peril. DOREAS HOLMES. December 19, 1780.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 21 December 1780.]

TOBY; b. Africa; Angola

Royall, William, estate of; Royal; Smith, Janet SEVEN DOLLARS Reward. RUN away from the subscriber on the 12th instant, a Negro fellow named TOBY, belonging to the estate of Mr. William Royall, deceased: he is about 5 feet 4 inches high, about 30 years of age, well made, of the Angola country, has lately had the small-pox, is very black, and very artful in framing a story; the above reward will be given to any person who will apprehend and deliver him safe to me on James-Island, or put him into the Sugar-house in town: he is well known on James's-Island and in Charlestown. All masters of vessels and others are hereby cautioned from harbouring, entertaining, or concealing the said Negro, as they may depend on being prosecuted to the utmost rigor of law. JANET SMITH. March 26th, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 8 March 1782.]

CUFFEE; JACK; barber

Reeves, Henry

TEN GUINEAS REWARD. Said to have made his escape from his majesty's sloop Savage, on Saturday night of the 27th instant, a NEGRO MAN named CUFFEE, the property of the subscriber; he is about 20 years of age, and about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, and very black, has a scar or cut on his forehead, is a sensible and artful fellow and has attempted to pass for a free negro, under the name Jack; he was brought up as a barber. Whoever will deliver said negro to his master, shall be handsomely rewarded, and whoever will inform of his being harboured or concealed, shall receive TEN GUINEAS reward, and the informer's name, if required, kept a secret. I do therefore forbid all masters of vessels and others, from harbouring, concealing, or carrying off said negro out of this province, as they may be assured of being prosecuted to the utmost rigour of the law. HENRY REEVES. Charlestown, April 29, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1782.]

MOULTREY; MOULTRIE; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Stewart, Thomas, & Co.

RUN-AWAY from the Ship-Yard on Charles-Town Neck about three months ago; a negro boy named MOULTREY, about 17 years of age; he has his country marks on both cheeks. Also on Monday the 20th instant, a negro boy named PETER, (late the property of Mr. Thomas Cliffs, deceased) about 16 years of age, very black, has his country marks on his face, and had on when he went away, a white swanskin jacket. Whoever takes up said negroes, and lodges them in the Sugar-House of this town, will receive TWO GUINEAS, by applying to THOMAS STEWART, & CO.

No. 42, Bay. N.B. All persons are requested not to carry off said negroes; and those found harbouring or concealing them, will be prosecuted as the law directs. May 27, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 June 1782.]

PETER; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Stewart, Thomas; Cliffs, Thomas (d.)

RUN-AWAY from the Ship-Yard on Charles-Town Neck about three months ago; a negro boy named MOULTREY, about 17 years of age; he has his country marks on both cheeks. Also on Monday the 20th instant, a negro boy named PETER, (late the property of Mr. Thomas Cliffs, deceased) about 16 years of age, very black, has his country marks on his face, and had on when he went away, a white swanskin jacket. Whoever takes up said negroes, and lodges them in the Sugar-House of this town, will receive TWO GUINEAS, by applying to THOMAS STEWART, & CO.

No. 42, Bay. N.B. All persons are requested not to carry off said negroes; and those found harbouring or concealing them, will be prosecuted as the law directs. May 27, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 6 June 1782.]

TENAH; TINAH; TEANOR; TINA; b. Africa; Ibo

Fitzgibbon, Gerald; Butler, Elizabeth, Mrs.; Davies, John, Sheriff

RUN AWAY on Tuesday the 25th ultimo, a hearty young Negro Wench named TENAH, of the Hebo [Ibo] Country, about nineteen years of age, and yellow complexion; had on when she went away a white short gown and petticoat, a check apron and printed handkerchief. She was late the property of Mrs. Elizabeth Butler, and purchased at Public Sale the day before from John Davies, Esq; Sheriff. Any person who will deliver her to the keeper of the Sugar House, or to the Subscriber, at No. 89, Broad-street, shall receive TWENTY DOLLARS Reward from GERALD FITZGIBBON.

All persons are hereby cautioned against harbouring said Wench, as they shall answer the contrary at their peril.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 July 1782.]

FRANK; wife Hagar; daughter Molly

Cook, James

RUN-AWAY last night from the subscriber, a negro fellow named FRANK, his wife HAGAR, and daughter MOLLY. The fellow is about 5 feet 10 inches high, and had on a blue coat and trowsers; the wench is tall, and has sore eyes; the child is about seven years old, and very well look'd. I will give a reward of TEN GUINEAS to any person that will deliver the said three negroes, or in proportion for one or two of them, to the keeper of the Sugar-House, or to JAMES COOK, No. 3, St. Michael's Alley. Charles-Town, July 8, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 July 1782.]

HAGAR; husband Frank; daughter Molly

Cook, James

RUN-AWAY last night from the subscriber, a negro fellow named FRANK, his wife HAGAR, and daughter MOLLY. The fellow is about 5 feet 10 inches high, and had on a blue coat and trowsers; the wench is tall, and has sore eyes; the child is about seven years old, and very well look'd. I will give a reward of TEN GUINEAS to any person that will deliver the said three negroes, or in proportion for one or two of them, to the keeper of the Sugar-House, or to JAMES COOK, No. 3, St. Michael's Alley. Charles-Town, July 8, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 July 1782.]

MOLLY; mother Hagar; father Frank

Cook, James

RUN-AWAY last night from the subscriber, a negro fellow named FRANK, his wife HAGAR, and daughter MOLLY. The fellow is about 5 feet 10 inches high, and had on a blue coat and trowsers; the wench is tall, and has sore eyes; the child is about seven years old, and very well look'd. I will give a reward of TEN GUINEAS to any person that will deliver the said three negroes, or in proportion for one or two of them, to the keeper of the Sugar-House, or to JAMES COOK, No. 3, St. Michael's Alley. Charles-Town, July 8, 1782.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 9 July 1782.]

MOSES; ship's-carpenter

Bazley, Bartholomew; Bailey?; Shrewsbury, [Stephen?]

FIVE GUINEAS REWARD, RUN away from the Subscriber, the 5th inst. a Negro Man and Woman, the Man named MOSES, is a good Ship Carpenter, the Woman named ROSE, is very remarkable, by having the great toe of her right foot cut off; they were formerly the property of Mr. Shrewsbury, of Charlestown. Whoever will take up said Boy and Girl, and deliver them to the subscriber, at No. 8, Union-street Continued, shall receive the above Reward. BARTHOLOMEW BAZLEY.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 September 1782.]

ROSE; mutilated

Bazley, Bartholomew; Shrewsbury, [Stephen?]

FIVE GUINEAS REWARD, RUN away from the Subscriber, the 5th inst. a Negro Man and Woman, the Man named MOSES, is a good Ship Carpenter, the Woman named ROSE, is very remarkable, by having the great toe of her right foot cut off; they were formerly the property of Mr. Shrewsbury, of Charlestown. Whoever will take up said Boy and Girl, and deliver them to the subscriber, at No. 8, Union-street Continued, shall receive the above Reward. BARTHOLOMEW BAZLEY.

[Royal South-Carolina Gazette. Charleston, S.C. 10 September 1782.]

South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser
Charleston, South Carolina. 22 March 1783 through 1784

JENNY

Tanin, Daniel

Eight Dollars Reward. RUN away from the subscriber, a Negroe Wench, called Jenny, about 25 years old, remarkably short and thick, and of a dark complexion: she has lost her under jaw foreteeth, is a little pitted with the small-pox, speaks tolerably well, and is commonly dressed in a brown woolen habit, or in woolen blue coat and jacket, and sometimes in a blue and white callicoe jacket. She went away last Wednesday. This is therefore to offer the above reward to any person who will apprehend the said wench and deliver to me, or to the Warden of the Workhouse: And a further reward of eight dollars will be paid to any person who will inform of her being harbored by a white person, and four dollars if harbored by a negroe, on conviction of the offender or offenders, forbidding all persons at their peril from carrying her off. Daniel Tanin. Charlestown, March 9, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 March 1783.]

SALLY; b. Africa; ritual scarification; filed teeth

May, John; Druize, Mrs.

RUN away from the subscriber, Sept. 30, 1781, a Negroe Wench named Sally, formerly the property of Mrs. Druize of Charlestown; she is between 20 and 30 years of age, her country marks in her face, and her teeth filed. Whoever will apprehend the said wench, and deliver her to the subscriber at Ashepoo, or to the Keeper of the sugar-house, shall receive a reward of three guineas; and any person who will give information of her being harbored by a white person, so as the offender may be brought to justice, shall be entitled to a reward of ten guineas, and if by a negroe five. In case the said wench will return to the owner in the space of twenty days from the date hereof, she shall be forgiven. John May. March 29, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 5 April 1783.]

ANCRUM; gardener; market-man

Kershaw, Joseph; Bennet, Mr.; Bennett; Watson, Mr.; Kershaw, William

RUN away from the subscriber's waggon on the road to Camden, about two months ago, a Negro man named Ancrum, a gardener, formerly belonging to a Mr. Bennet of James Island, and well known about Charlestown, where he frequently attended the markets, and has been employed, under Mr. Watson, in several gardens about town, where he has lately been seen. A guinea reward will be given to any person who secure him in the Sugar-House, or deliver him to Mr. Wm. Kershaw on Greenwood's Wharf. If he will return he shall be forgiven for all past faults. Jo. Kershaw.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 April 1783]

STEPHEN; b. Georgia; house-servant; hairdresser; hostler

Owner unknown; Miller, Mr.

RAN away from his master in Charlestown, a few weeks ago, a likely negro fellow, called Stephen, about 20 years of age, born in Georgia; is a good house servant, understands taking care of horses, has learnt dressing of hair, and is inclined to follow that business. He is middle-sized and firm made, pitted with the small-pox, speaks good English, and wants one or two of his fore teeth. He was apprehended a little time ago, and escaped from the guard that was sent down with him before they got to Charlestown. He affects to be free, and is supposed to be gone to the Northwest: he is very specious and knowing, having been some time with the British, and will endeavour to deceive any one that apprehends him. Whoever will secure him, and give notice of it to Mr. Miller, the printer of this paper, so that he may be lodged in the Sugar-house at Charlestown, shall have five guineas reward. N.B. He was in possession of a good many cloaths when he made his escape, but from his having been once apprehended, 'tis supposed he may have lost them.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 April 1783]

SAM; b. Africa?; wife: Nanny (pregnant)

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

SABY; b. Africa?; wife: Harriet

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

SYFAX; SYPHAX

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

NANNY; b. Africa?; pregnant; husband: Sam

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

HARRIET; husband: Saby

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

TENAH; TINAH; TEANOR; TINA; b. Africa?

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

CAIN

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

AMOS

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

MARY

Wayne, William; Ball, Elias, confiscated estate of

Twenty Guineas Reward. RAN away from the subscriber last night, nine negroes, viz. Sam, Saby, and Syfax, with their wives Nanny, Harriet, and Tenah, also three children, two males and one female, the eldest of the children named Cain, the other Amos, the female child named Mary. The fellows Sam and Saby, also Nanny and Tenah speak broken English; Nanny is far advanced in pregnancy: All of whom formerly belonged to the confiscated estate of Elias Ball, and supposed they will make their way for Augustine. Fifty Guineas Reward if harboured by a white person, and Twenty-five Guineas if harboured by a negro, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offender, by WILLIAM WAYNE. Charlestown, March 25, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 April 1783.]

NEPTUNE; DANIEL; b. Africa; Grain Coast; fisherman

Trapier, Paul; Legare, Nathan (d); Severance, Mr.; Simons & Vanderhorst

RAN away from the subscriber's plantation, in Winyaw, two negro men, viz. Neptune, about 25 years old, of a yellowish complexion, 5 feet 8 inches, or thereabouts, in height, well made, of the Grain Coast country, speaks good English, deserted to the British in 1780. Was taken about a month since, at Mr. Severance's near Lemprieres ferry, by the assumed name of Daniel; he came home, stayed a few days, and went off again, supposed to have returned to his former haunts, or to the occupation of a fisherman in Charlestown, which business he followed most part of the time he was absent. The other, Cusack, a young country born fellow, black, stout and well made for strength, very bow-legged, about 5 feet and a half high, has been gone about 12 months, was seen, not long since, near the late Mr. Nathan Legare's plantation in Christ Church parish. Whoever apprehends either, or both of the above described negro men, and deliver them to me, at my plantation, near Georgetown, shall receive two Guineas for each, with reasonable travelling charges, and, if securely lodged in the Work house in Charlestown, one Guinea for each, by applying to Messrs. Simons and Vanderhorst. PAUL TRAPIER, Georgetown, 15 April.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

CUSACK

Trapier, Paul; Legare, Nathan (d); Simons & Vanderhorst

RAN away from the subscriber's plantation, in Winyaw, two negro men, viz. Neptune, about 25 years old, of a yellowish complexion, 5 feet 8 inches, or thereabouts, in height, well made, of the Grain Coast country, speaks good English, deserted to the British in 1780....The other, Cusack, a young country born fellow, black, stout and well made for strength, very bow-legged, about 5 feet and a half high, has been gone about 12 months, was seen, not long since, near the late Mr. Nathan Legare's plantation in Christ Church parish. Whoever apprehends either, or both of the above described negro men, and deliver them to me, at my plantation, near Georgetown, shall receive two Guineas for each, with reasonable travelling charges, and, if securely lodged in the Work house in Charlestown, one Guinea for each, by applying to Messrs. Simons and Vanderhorst. PAUL TRAPIER, Georgetown, 15 April.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

SARAH

Leibert, Henry; Main, Mrs.

RAN away from the subscriber in January last, a negro girl named Sarah, country born, about 17 years of age; about four feet four inches high, of a yellow complexion, full eyed, her nose very large, and a ring in one of her ears, had on a blue wrapper, was lately taken up at the Saltketchers [sic; Salkehatchie] with two other negro girls, on her way to Georgia and sent to Mrs. Main's Indian land, from whence she made her elopement: Whoever will deliver her to me, or the Warden of the work-house in Charlestown, shall receive three Guineas reward with reasonable charges.

HENRY LEIBERT.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

DINAH; 1 child

Putnam, Henry

RUN away, a Negro Wench named Dinah, about 38 years of age, walks very lame in her right leg, and her child about 9 years, also a negro fellow named Charles, about 28 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, much pitted with the small pox; formerly belonging to Hopson Pinckney, Esq; and sold to New-Providence. One Hundred Guineas reward will be given, if either of the Negroes are harboured by a white person and 20 Guineas if by a Negro.

HENRY PUTNAM. N.B. I have great reason to suspect the wench and child are harboured in some place in town.

This is therefore to forewarn all persons from harbouring said wench and child, as they may be assured the law will be put in force against them. HENRY PUTNAM.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

ANONYMOUS CHILD; mother: Dinah

Putnam, Henry

RUN away, a Negro Wench named Dinah, about 38 years of age, walks very lame in her right leg, and her child about 9 years, also a negro fellow named Charles, about 28 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, much pitted with the small pox; formerly belonging to Hopson Pinckney, Esq; and sold to New-Providence. One Hundred Guineas reward will be given, if either of the Negroes are harboured by a white person and 20 Guineas if by a Negro.

HENRY PUTNAM. N.B. I have great reason to suspect the wench and child are harboured in some place in town.

This is therefore to forewarn all persons from harbouring said wench and child, as they may be assured the law will be put in force against them. HENRY PUTNAM.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

CHARLES

Putnam, Henry; Pinckney, Hopson, Esq.

RUN away, a Negro Wench named Dinah, about 38 years of age, walks very lame in her right leg, and her child about 9 years, also a negro fellow named Charles, about 28 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, much pitted with the small pox; formerly belonging to Hopson Pinckney, Esq; and sold to New-Providence. One Hundred Guineas reward will be given, if either of the Negroes are harboured by a white person and 20 Guineas if by a Negro.

HENRY PUTNAM. N.B. I have great reason to suspect the wench and child are harboured in some place in town.

This is therefore to forewarn all persons from harbouring said wench and child, as they may be assured the law will be put in force against them. HENRY PUTNAM.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

CORK; mustee

Alexander, William; Martin, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber the 10th of April last, a Mustee Boy named Cork; is about 17 years of age, 5 feet high, long hair Indian-like; has a remarkable scar on his forehead. Whoever takes him up, and delivers him to Mr. Martin, No. 25, King-street, shall receive 10 dollars. WM. ALEXANDER.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 May 1783.]

O'CONNEL; b. Africa?

Hill, Josiah

RAN away on Sunday night, the 4th inst. a negro fellow named O'Connel, stout and well made, very black, has a squint eye, speaks bad English; whoever apprehend the said Negro, and will deliver him at the Sugar-house shall have one Guinea Reward. JOSIAH HILL. Charlestown, May 6, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 May 1783.]

HARRY WHITE; b. West Indies; Jamaica; Port Royal

Milhagen, Jacob; M'Crady, Mr.; McCready

RAN AWAY, on Wednesday last, a Negro Boy named Harry White, born in Portroyal, Jamaica, about 16 years of age, 4 feet 11 inches high, had on when he went away, a blue jacket, white shirt, and canvas trowsers; whoever secures him and brings him to Jacob Milhagen, Co. No. 106, Broad-street, or to Mr. M'Crady's on the Bay, shall have two Guineas reward, or if he will return he will be forgiven. N.B. He speaks good English, and has a broken skin, he is very artful and may attempt to pass for a free fellow.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 May 1783.]

STAFFORD; b. Virginia; shoemaker; waggoneer; striker; soldier

Budd, Dr. John; Trent

RUN Away from the Subscriber near Petersburg in Virginia, Stafford, a Virginia born fellow, 25 or 27 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, is lame in one hip, slim made, has very-fine teeth, is a very black fellow, smooth faced, wears his hair very high, is a tolerable shoemaker, is used to driving a waggon, and is a good striker; he is very artful, he inlisted as a soldier in Col. Ford's regiment of the Maryland troops. Any person who will deliver the above slave to Dr. John Budd, in Charlestown, shall receive three guineas reward. Pd. TRENT. Feb. 9, 1783

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1783]

TONEY; b. Africa

Adams, David, estate of; Adams, David, Jr.; Adams, Nathaniel; Adams, William; Adams, Bernard

RUN away from David Adams, now the estate of David Adams, a number of negroes, amongst which two have been frequently seen in Charlestown since the evacuation of the enemy, viz. Toney, a stout black fellow from Africa; Peg, a very black wench of this country born. Whoever will deliver them to Mr. David Adams in Charlestown, Tradd-street, No. 3, shall receive a reward of Ten Guineas for each of them. All persons are hereby forewarned against harboring said negroes, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law, and a further reward of Twenty Guineas will be paid on conviction, of any offender by, NATHANIEL ADAMS, DAVID ADAMS, BARNARD ADAMS, WILLIAM ADAMS.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1783]

PEG

Adams, David, estate of; Adams, David, Jr.; Adams, Nathaniel; Adams, William; Adams, Bernard

RUN away from David Adams, now the estate of David Adams, a number of negroes, amongst which two have been frequently seen in Charlestown since the evacuation of the enemy, viz. Toney, a stout black fellow from Africa; Peg, a very black wench of this country born. Whoever will deliver them to Mr. David Adams in Charlestown, Tradd-street, No. 3, shall receive a reward of Ten Guineas for each of them. All persons are hereby forewarned against harboring said negroes, as they will be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law, and a further reward of Twenty Guineas will be paid on conviction, of any offender by, NATHANIEL ADAMS, DAVID ADAMS, BARNARD ADAMS, WILLIAM ADAMS.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1783.]

MUNGO

Read, Jacob

ABSENTED himself from my service on the evening of Saturday last, a negro Fellow named MUNGO, well known in and about Charlestown, he is of a slender make, about 5 feet 5 inches high, a good deal pitted with the small pox, has a remarkable gloomy countenance and down look, his forehead projecting in a manner unusual in persons of his colour, and a flat nose. As he took with him several suits of cloaths he may vary his dress; his livery is of brown Yorkshire cloth lined with white, with a scarlet cape, he also frequently wears a blue surtout coat lined with scarlet shalloon in front, a flapped hat and band of broad gold lace. Whoever will apprehend and deliver the above described slave to the subscriber at No. 8, Bay-Continued, shall receive FIVE GUINEAS Reward. Masters of vessels are hereby cautioned against suffering such a slave to be harbored by their crews, concealed on ship board or carried off. A further Reward of TEN GUINEAS will be paid to any person who will inform where he is entertained or harbored, so that the offender (whether white or black) may be prosecuted to conviction. If Mungo will return to his duty this offence will be overlooked. JACOB READ. Charlestown, May 13th.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 20 May 1783]

JUNE (male)*Barksdale, Thomas; Chisholm, William, estate of; Rivers, Stephen

Christ Church Parish, May 1st. RAN away from the subscriber, a negro man named June, about forty years of age, six feet high, has a remarkable large beard, and speaks good English, lately purchased at the sale of William Chisolm, deceased. The said fellow has a wife at Mr. Stephen River's plantation on Stono, where there is sufficient reason to suspect he is harboured; whoever will apprehend and deliver him to the keeper of the Sugar-house, or to the subscriber in Christ-Church Parish, will be entitled to a reward of Four Guineas; a reward of Fifteen Guineas will be paid to any person that will give information of his being harboured by a white person, and five, if by a negro. THO. BARKSDALE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 24 May 1783]

SANDY*Simmons, James; Geffey, Mr.

RUN away a negroe fellow named Sandy, about 21 years of age, slim made, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, had on a light-brown great coat, blue negroe cloth trowsers, well known in this town and Savannah. Whoever delivers the said negroe to Mr. Geffey, at the Sugar house, or to the subscriber at Chas. Town, shall receive two guineas reward, and reasonable charges paid. JAMES SIMMONS.

All masters of vessels are hereby cautioned not to carry the above fellows [sic] off the State.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1783.]

SILVIA; SYLVIA

Toomer, Anthony ABSENTED herself from my service, in a few weeks after the evacuation of Charlestown a young negro wench, named Silvia, about 15 years of age. She is about 5 feet 5 inches high, pretty lusty, of a yellowish complexion. She is so well known in and about Charlestown, that she needs no further description. Whoever will apprehend the said negro, and deliver her to me or the Warden of the Sugar house, shall receive a reward of Two Guineas. All persons are hereby forbid from harbouring or employing her. A further reward of Four Guineas will be paid to any person who will give information of her being harboured, on conviction of the offender. ANTHONY TOOMER.

N.B. If the said negro will return in three weeks from this, she shall be forgiven.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 7 June 1783.]

ANONYMOUS MAN; speaks French only*Troup, George

RUN away from the subscriber last night, a negro man about 30 years of age, of a brown complexion, speaks nothing but French, is very much pitted with the small-pox, has long hair, is very short. A good reward will be given to any person who apprehends and delivers him to No. 2 in Elliot-street. GEO. TROUP.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 5 July 1783.]

CYRUS; fiddler; asthmatic; lived North Carolina

Moore, George, Jr.; Moore, George, Sr., estate of; Hooper, Thomas; Mitchell, Edward.

RUN away, and are now, it is probable, lurking at or near Hobcaw, Two Negroe Slaves, by name Cyrus and Lear; the former a fellow of about 35 years of age (the property of George Moore, Esq; of North Carolina) speaks good English, and plays on the violin, is rather short, of a thin habit of body, and subject to the asthma. The latter a likely tall wench, late the property of the estate of Geo. Moore, sen. deceased, but now belonging to Edward Mitchell, Esq; near George Town. Any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the subscriber, at No. 6 Legare-street, shall be intitled to a reward of five dollars for each slave so delivered; and in case of their being harboured by any white person, a further reward of Five Guineas will be paid on due conviction of the offender. THOMAS HOOPER.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 July 1783.]

LEAR; LEAH

Mitchell, Edward; Moore, George, Sr., estate of; Hooper, Thomas

RUN away, and are now, it is probable, lurking at or near Hobcaw, Two Negroe Slaves, by name Cyrus and Lear; the former a fellow of about 35 years of age (the property of George Moore, Esq; of North Carolina) speaks good English, and plays on the violin, is rather short, of a thin habit of body, and subject to the asthma. The latter a likely tall wench, late the property of the estate of Geo. Moore, sen. deceased, but now belonging to Edward Mitchell, Esq; near George Town. Any person that will deliver them to the Warden of the Work-house, or to the subscriber, at No. 6, Legare-street, shall be intitled to a reward of five dollars for each slave so delivered; and in case of their being harboured by any white person, a further reward of Five Guineas will be paid on due conviction of the offender. THOMAS HOOPER.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 July 1783.]

OTHELLO; b. Africa; Gola

Owner not named; see earlier ad by George Troup at 2 Elliott Street.

RUN away, a negro Boy named OTHELLO, about 5 feet high: had on an oznabrig jacket and trowsers, is very lusty, and his head bigger in proportion to his body than ordinary; also a negro Girl, answers to the name of MARIA, about 4 and a half feet high, both of the Gola country, and speaks very bad English. Any person that will secure them, shall receive SIX DOLLARS Reward, upon delivery to the owner, at No. 2 Elliot-street.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 July 1783.]

MARIA

Owner not named; see earlier ad by George Troup at 2 Elliott Street.

RUN away, a negro Boy named OTHELLO, about 5 feet high: had on an oznabrig jacket and trowsers, is very lusty, and his head bigger in proportion to his body than ordinary; also a negro Girl, answers to the name of MARIA, about 4 and a half feet high, both of the Gola country, and speaks very bad English. Any person that will secure them, shall receive SIX DOLLARS Reward, upon delivery to the owner, at No. 2 Elliot-street.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 July 1783.]

LUNAH; LINAH; LENA; LENA; LUNA

Bellinger, Edmond

RUN away the 1st inst. a young Negro Wench, named Lunah, about 25 years of age; she has a brand on her right shoulder like this †. Any person who takes up said wench, and delivers her to the Keeper of the Sugar House, or the subscriber at Stoney Point, near Ashley Ferry, shall receive one guinea reward. EDMD. BELLINGER.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 19 July 1783.]

JACK

Burnett, Dr.; Reanstone, Mary, Mrs.

RUN away, about ten days ago, from the subscriber at George Town, a likely Negro fellow named Jack, about 5 feet ten inches high; had on when he went away a check shirt and a fustian pair of breeches. Whoever apprehends and delivers him to the subscriber, or to Mrs. Mary Reanstone, No. 13, Tradd-str. shall receive two guineas. Dr. BURNETT.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 19 July 1783.]

MARSLEY

Graham, Hester

RUN away from the subscriber, about three months ago, a negro wench Marsley, about 18 years of age, and of a very black complexion; she has for some time past resided with the troops on James Island, and is now supposed to be hiding in the country. Whoever will apprehend and deliver her to No. 81, King-street, or lodge her in the Sugar House, shall receive a reward of Two Guineas.

HESTER GRAHAM. Charlestown, July 9, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 19 July 1783.]

PAUL

Tock, William

RUN away in September 1782, the following negroes from the subscriber, near the Euhaws; Paul, about 5 feet 8 inches high, black complexion, pitted with the small pox, bow leg'd, bends much in his knees when he walks; Dinah, and her child about 9 years of age, formerly the property of Oliver Cromwell, a small, well set woman, the third finger on her right hand by a hurt is stiff and useless. I will give a reward of Three Guineas for each, to any person giving such information as thereby they may be got. WILLIAM TOCK. Santee, June 24, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1783]

DINAH

Tock, William; Cromwell, Oliver

RUN away in September 1782, the following negroes from the subscriber, near the Euhaws; Paul, about 5 feet 8 inches high, black complexion, pitted with the small pox, bow leg'd, bends much in his knees when he walks; Dinah, and her child about 9 years of age, formerly the property of Oliver Cromwell, a small, well set woman, the third finger on her right hand by a hurt is stiff and useless. I will give a reward of Three Guineas for each, to any person giving such information as thereby they may be got. WILLIAM TOCK. Santee, June 24, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1783.]

ANONYMOUS CHILD; mother: Dinah

Tock, William; Cromwell, Oliver

RUN away in September 1782, the following negroes from the subscriber, near the Euhaws; Paul, about 5 feet 8 inches high, black complexion, pitted with the small pox, bow leg'd, bends much in his knees when he walks; Dinah, and her child about 9 years of age, formerly the property of Oliver Cromwell, a small, well set woman, the third finger on her right hand by a hurt is stiff and useless. I will give a reward of Three Guineas for each, to any person giving such information as thereby they may be got. WILLIAM TOCK. Santee, June 24, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1783]

NEPTUNE

Poaug, Charlotte

RUN away from the subscriber about two months since, a negro fellow named Neptune, so well known in town as to render a description needless. This is therefore, to warn all persons from harbouring, or captains of vessels from carrying him off, as they may depend on being prosecuted when found, and if the fellow returns, his conduct shall be overlooked; a reward of two guineas will be given to any person that will deliver him to the warden of the Workhouse or to me in Charlestown.

CHARLOTTE POAUG. July 28, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 30 July 1783, Supplement]

PETER

Dart, Amelia

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Ashley river, a middle aged negro fellow named Peter, about 5 feet 6 inches high; also a slim mulatto lad named Jemmy, about 11 years old; both well known about the country. Also a negro boy named Dick, who has lost the middle finger of one hand. A generous reward will be given to any person who will apprehend the said negroes and deliver them to AMELIA DART, No. 15 Tradd-street. Charlestown, July 28, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 30 July 1783, Supplement]

JEMMY; mulatto

Dart, Amelia

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Ashley river, a middle aged negro fellow named Peter, about 5 feet 6 inches high; also a slim mulatto lad named Jemmy, about 11 years old; both well known about the country: Also a negro boy named Dick, who has lost the middle finger of one hand. A generous reward will be given to any person who will apprehend the said negroes and deliver them to AMELIA DART, No. 15 Tradd-street. Charlestown, July 28, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 30 July 1783, Supplement]

DICK; mutilated

Dart, Amelia

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation on Ashley river, a middle aged negro fellow named Peter, about 5 feet 6 inches high; also a slim mulatto lad named Jemmy, about 11 years old; both well known about the country: Also a negro boy named Dick, who has lost the middle finger of one hand. A generous reward will be given to any person who will apprehend the said negroes and deliver them to AMELIA DART, No. 15 Tradd-street. Charlestown, July 28, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 30 July 1783, Supplement]

SANDY; waiting man

Glover, Joseph

ABSENTED himself, the beginning of April last, from my plantation near Goose creek road, a negro boy named Sandy, about 14 years old, thick set, stern look, his under lip thick, and hangs down very much; he is an artful villain, and to mark him for a rogue had a small iron put on one leg; he is well known by any, as he used to wait on one of my sons a campaigning; he had on when he went away, a negro cloth coat, jacket and overalls slightly dyed yellow; but his cloaths, iron and name he may alter; I strongly suspect he is gone off with some waggon or deserter, as he has once or twice attempted to go away with the waggons. Three guineas reward to any that will secure him so that I may get him, and shall be strongly obliged to the gentlemen in the upper part of this and North Carolina, to inspect their neighbourhood, and should such a boy come to their knowledge, to secure him and let me know, being sure he is gone up the country; or alternate service, in turn, shall be always regarded by JOSEPH GLOVER, Sen. June 23, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 30 July 1783, Supplement.]

ANONYMOUS MAN; Mustee; b. South America; Curaçao; sailor; lived West Indies; multilingual

Gregorie, James

RUN away on the 26th of May from the schooner Hannah, a mustee man slave, born in Caracoa [Curaçao] about 50 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high; had on a blue jacket and white trowsers, as he was employed in the West Indies as a coasting sailor, he speaks all the languages used there; he formerly lived in North Carolina, where it is probable he may be gone, or have gotten on board some vessel going to sea. All masters of vessels are desired not to employ him; and whoever takes him up, secures him in the Sugar-house, or brings him to James Gregorie, 26, Church-str. will receive a reward of eight dollars.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 16 August 1783.]

ILUS; b. North Carolina

Burnham, Thomas; Blount, Wilson

RUN away from the subscriber on Tuesday the 22 inst. a likely young negro man, named Ilus, much pock mark'd, about 25 years old, 5 feet 4 inches high, born in North Carolina, formerly the property of Mr. Wilson Blount of that State; had on when he went away an oznaburgh shirt, leather breeches and brown surtout coat. As he had other cloaths, he may probably change his dress. A reward of ten dollars will be given on his being delivered to the goaler [gaoler] of George Town, or to THO. BURNHAM. George Town, July 23.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 16 August 1783]

ABBY; daughter: Bridget; 1 son

Salters, Francis; Edwards, John

RUN away from the subscriber the 17th inst. a negro wench named Abby, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, northward born, and speaks with a tone peculiar to negroes brought from thence, is of a yellowish complexion, about 35 years of age, was formerly the property of Mr. John Edwards of this place; she carried with her also two children, one girl named Bridget; about 6 years old, and of the same favour and complexion as the mother; and a boy child now at the breast. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes, and deliver them to me, near Russells Wharf, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have eight dollars reward. FRANCIS SALTERS. Aug. 18.

South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 August 1783]

BRIDGET; mother: Abby; 1 brother
Salters, Francis; Edwards, John

RUN away from the subscriber the 17th inst. a negro wench named Abby, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, northward born, and speaks with a tone peculiar to negroes brought from thence, is of a yellowish complexion, about 35 years of age, was formerly the property of Mr. John Edwards of this place; she carried with her also two children, one girl named Bridget; about 6 years old, and of the same favour and complexion as the mother; and a boy child now at the breast. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes, and deliver them to me, near Russells Wharf, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have eight dollars reward. FRANCIS SALTERS. Aug. 18.
South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 August 1783]

ANONYMOUS BOY; mother: Abby; sister: Bridget Salters, Francis; Edwards, John

RUN away from the subscriber the 17th inst. a negro wench named Abby, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, northward born, and speaks with a tone peculiar to negroes brought from thence, is of a yellowish complexion, about 35 years of age, was formerly the property of Mr. John Edwards of this place; she carried with her also two children, one girl named Bridget; about 6 years old, and of the same favour and complexion as the mother; and a boy child now at the breast. Whoever will apprehend the said negroes, and deliver them to me, near Russells Wharf, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have eight dollars reward. FRANCIS SALTERS. Aug. 18.
South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 August 1783]

SALLY; b. Virginia

Bentham, James; Dubose, Isaac; Singleton, Kipley; Diggs, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber in the year 1780, a MULATTO WENCH named Sally, Virginia born, and remarkable by having lost two of her fore teeth; was brought into this state by Mr. Kipley Singleton, and sold by him to Mr. Isaac Dubose, of whom the subscriber purchased her. He has been informed that she is now in the possession of Mr. Diggs of Williamsburg, or Richmond in Virginia. Also a negro fellow named Cato, about 20 years old, and very near sighted. Likewise a negro boy in the year 1781, named Prince, about 17 years old. Whoever will deliver the said negroes, or either of them to the subscriber, or give information where they are, shall be handsomely rewarded, and all reasonable expences paid. JAMES BENTHAM.
South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 September 1783]

CATO

Bentham, James; Dubose, Isaac; Singleton, Kipley; Diggs, Mr.

RUN away from the subscriber in the year 1780, a MULATTO WENCH named Sally, Virginia born, and remarkable by having lost two of her fore teeth; was brought into this state by Mr. Kipley Singleton, and sold by him to Mr. Isaac Dubose, of whom the subscriber purchased her. He has been informed that she is now in the possession of Mr. Diggs of Williamsburg, or Richmond in Virginia. Also a negro fellow named Cato, about 20 years old, and very near sighted. Likewise a negro boy in the year 1781, named Prince, about 17 years old. Whoever will deliver the said negroes, or either of them to the subscriber, or give information where they are, shall be handsomely rewarded, and all reasonable expences paid. JAMES BENTHAM.
South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 September 1783]

PRINCE

Bentham, James

RUN away from the subscriber in the year 1780, a MULATTO WENCH named Sally.... Also a negro fellow named Cato, about 20 years old, and very near sighted. Likewise a negro boy in the year 1781, named Prince, about 17 years old. Whoever will deliver the said negroes, or either of them to the subscriber, or give information where they are, shall be handsomely rewarded, and all reasonable expences paid. JAMES BENTHAM.
South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 September 1783]

WALPOLE

Gray, Henry; Waring, B[enjamin?]; Waring, Richard

RUN away about 4 months ago from the subscriber, a Negro fellow named Walpole, middle aged, rather short, very firm made, short thick neck, and parrot-toed. Billy, a tall handsome fellow about 20 years of age, very strait and well made. Martin, an active, smart young fellow, about 30; the two latter have very near relations at the plantation of Mr. Richard Waring, near Dorchester, where no doubt they may be harboured at times; they were taken from thence about a month ago, and made off the next night. They were all purchased a few years past of B. Waring Esq. The subscriber promises to pass over all past faults, if they will return home within a month of their own accord, otherwise he will barter them when taken a great bargain for cattle, particularly to any gentleman residing in the back country; in the mean time 3 guineas each will be paid for delivery of them to the keeper of the Sugar-house, and the same reward to prove by whom they are harbour'd. HENRY GRAY. Goose-creek, August 14, 1783.

South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 September 1783]

BILLY

Gray, Henry; Waring, B[enjamin?]; Waring, Richard

RUN away about 4 months ago from the subscriber, a Negro fellow named Walpole, middle aged, rather short, very firm made, short thick neck, and parrot-toed. Billy, a tall handsome fellow about 20 years of age, very strait and well made. Martin, an active, smart young fellow, about 30; the two latter have very near relations at the plantation of Mr. Richard Waring, near Dorchester, where no doubt they may be harboured at times; they were taken from thence about a month ago, and made off the next night. They were all purchased a few years past of B. Waring Esq. The subscriber promises to pass over all past faults, if they will return home within a month of their own accord, otherwise he will barter them when taken a great bargain for cattle, particularly to any gentleman residing in the back country; in the mean time 3 guineas each will be paid for delivery of them to the keeper of the Sugar-house, and the same reward to prove by whom they are harbour'd. HENRY GRAY. Goose-creek, August 14, 1783.

South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 September 1783]

MARTIN

Gray, Henry; Waring, B[enjamin?]; Waring, Richard

RUN away about 4 months ago from the subscriber, a Negro fellow named Walpole, middle aged, rather short, very firm made, short thick neck, and parrot-toed. Billy, a tall handsome fellow about 20 years of age, very strait and well made. Martin, an active, smart young fellow, about 30; the two latter have very near relations at the plantation of Mr. Richard Waring, near Dorchester, where no doubt they may be harboured at times; they were taken from thence about a month ago, and made off the next night. They were all purchased a few years past of B. Waring Esq. The subscriber promises to pass over all past faults, if they will return home within a month of their own accord, otherwise he will barter them when taken a great bargain for cattle, particularly to any gentleman residing in the back country; in the mean time 3 guineas each will be paid for delivery of them to the keeper of the Sugar-house, and the same reward to prove by whom they are harbour'd. HENRY GRAY. Goose-creek, August 14, 1783.

South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 September 1783]

NANCY

Eustace, Thomas; Nisbet, Widow

RUN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 12th of September, 1783, a NEGRO WENCH, named NANCY; she is a tall, lusty, likely wench, about 19 years of age, speaks slow, her feet are large and long, parrot toed, one of her lower front teeth is out; she was formerly the property of the widow Nisbet, at Wadmelow. Had on when she run away an oznabrig short gown and petticoat, but perhaps she may change her apparel. All masters of vessels are forbid to harbour or carry her off. Whoever will deliver the said negro wench to the subscriber, or to the Warden of the Sugar-House, shall receive TWO GUINEAS reward, paid by the subscriber, at No. 186, King street. THOMAS EUSTACE.

South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1783]

TAYLOR; GUINEA TOM; b. Africa; Guinea?

Bowen, John

RAN AWAY from the subscriber about the middle of June last, a NEGRO FELLOW, named TAYLOR (but changes his name sometimes to GUINEA TOM) he is about 50 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high, his toes turn inwards very remarkably. Any person who will secure said fellow, and deliver him to me at my plantation, or lodge him in the Sugar-House in Charlestown, South Carolina so that I may find him, shall receive a reward of GUINEAS. JOHN BOWEN.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 September 1783.]

HAGAR; daughter: Mary
Moses, Bernard; Stoutenburg, William

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Wench called HAGAR, and her daughter called MARY, Hagar is about 40 years of age, speaks very good English. Mary about 12 years of age, speaks good English, had on when she went away a green frize [frieze] habit. Whoever apprehends and secures said negroes, so that the owner may get them, shall receive a Guinea reward for each. Any person or persons harbouring said negroes, may depend on being prosecuted according to law; a farther reward of Five Guineas will be given to any person who shall give information of either of the said negroes being harboured by any white persons, on conviction. BARNARD MOSES. N.B. I was since informed the above negroes crossed Ashley River a few days ago, and suppose they are gone to Mr. William Stoutenburg's plantation, as her relations belong to him. All masters of vessels are forbid to harbour, or carry them off.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783.]

MARY; mother: Hagar
Moses, Bernard; Stoutenburg, William

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro Wench called HAGAR, and her daughter called MARY, Hagar is about 40 years of age, speaks very good English. Mary about 12 years of age, speaks good English, had on when she went away a green frize[frieze] habit. Whoever apprehends and secures said negroes, so that the owner may get them, shall receive a Guinea reward for each. Any person or persons harbouring said negroes, may depend on being prosecuted according to law; a farther reward of Five Guineas will be given to any person who shall give information of either of the said negroes being harboured by any white persons, on conviction. BARNARD MOSES. N.B. I was since informed the above negroes crossed Ashley River a few days ago, and suppose they are gone to Mr. William Stoutenburg's plantation, as her relations belong to him. All masters of vessels are forbid to harbour, or carry them off.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783]

BILLY; butcher; wife: Sarah
Waring, Thomas

RUN AWAY from the subscriber, a negro Fellow named BILLY, of a yellowish complexion, has been accustomed to attend the markets as a butcher, and is well known about Charlestown. Also his wife Sarah, a short black Wench. Any person who will deliver either of the above negroes, at the Sugar House, shall receive one guinea for each. All masters of vessels are particularly cautioned against carrying off the said negroes. THOMAS WARING, jun.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783; Supplement]

SARAH; husband: Billy
Waring, Thomas

RUN AWAY from the subscriber, a negro Fellow named BILLY, of a yellowish complexion, has been accustomed to attend the markets as a butcher, and is well known about Charlestown. Also his wife Sarah, a short black Wench. Any person who will deliver either of the above negroes, at the

Sugar House, shall receive one guinea for each. All masters of vessels are particularly cautioned against carrying off the said negroes. THOMAS WARING, jun.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783; Supplement]

ANONYMOUS MAN; mustee Rivers, Joseph

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 11 November 1783; Supplement] See A MUSTEE FELLOW, In other newspapers, JOSEPH RIVERS.

PRINCE
Corbett, Thomas

RUN away the 30th of October, a negro boy named Prince; he is about 5 feet four inches high, has long prominent teeth, his voice is remarkably strong and loud, and he is very talkative and impudent He had on when he went away, a brown broad cloth coat with long skirts, black broad cloth breeches, and an old white negro cloth jacket. Whoever will deliver him to me, or the Warden of the Sugar House, or give information where he is harboured, shall receive a reasonable reward, from Thomas Corbett.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 18 November 1783; Supplement]

MARY

Colleton, Mr.

RAN-AWAY from Mr. Colleton, No. 84 Tradd-street, two Negro wenches, one named Mary, a short, thick wench, and has a very ill-tempered look. The other called Haebe, who took away her child named Jenney, of about twelve months old, well grown of its age; the latter wench is of a middling size, fat and very black, has a stupid look, and a little inflammation in her eyes. Whoever secures the above described wenches, and will either lodge them in the Sugar-House, or deliver them to Mr. Colleton in Tradd-street, shall receive a Guinea reward for each.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783; Supplement]

HAEBE; HEBE

Colleton, Mr.

RAN-AWAY from Mr. Colleton, No. 84 Tradd-street, two Negro wenches, one named Mary, a short, thick wench, and has a very ill-tempered look. The other called Haebe, who took away her child named Jenney, of about twelve months old, well grown of its age; the latter wench is of a middling size, fat and very black, has a stupid look, and a little inflammation in her eyes. Whoever secures the above described wenches, and will either lodge them in the Sugar-House, or deliver them to Mr. Colleton in Tradd-street, shall receive a Guinea reward for each.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783; Supplement]

JENNEY; JENNY; mother: Hebe, Haebe

Colleton, Mr.

RAN-AWAY from Mr. Colleton, No. 84 Tradd-street, two Negro wenches, one named Mary, a short, thick wench, and has a very ill-tempered look. The other called Haebe, who took away her child named Jenney, of about twelve months old, well grown of its age; the latter wench is of a middling size, fat and very black, has a stupid look, and a little inflammation in her eyes. Whoever secures the above described wenches, and will either lodge them in the Sugar-House, or deliver them to Mr. Colleton in Tradd-street, shall receive a Guinea reward for each.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 8 November 1783; Supplement]

MOON

Singleton, John

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 November 1783]

See MOON in other newspapers.

PHILIS; PHILLIS, PHILLICO

Harvey, Elizabeth

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 2 December 1783]

See PHLLICO or PHILIS in other newspapers.

FRANCK; FRANK; sailor

Owner not named; 32 Bay Street

FIVE GUINEAS REWARD. RUN away last Tuesday, a NEGRO MAN named FRANCK, is 19 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, speaks good English, and is handsomely built. Had on when he went away, a red sailor's jacket, a brown pair of trowsers, worsted stockings, and shoes. Took with him a white sailor's jacket, and a watch coat; he has been to sea about four years, and is a good sailor. The above Reward will be given to any person who delivers him at No. 32, Bay; or to the Warden of the Sugar-house. All Captains of vessels are hereby forbid to harbour him, or carry him out of this State.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 9 December 1783; Supplement]

MARIA; mulatto

Marshall, Alexander, Captain, estate of; Hill, Thomas

WENT OFF from the Subscriber, at the time of the British, with Lord Rawdon's army, a Mulatto Wench named Maria, BELONGING to the estate of Capt. Alexander Marshall, late of this city, deceased; she is a very likely wench, about 22 or 23 years of age, somewhat pitted with the small pox. It is supposed she is harboured somewhere in this State: It is very probable she pretends to pass as a free woman. Whoever apprehends and delivers her either to the Warden of the Work-House, or the Subscriber No. 8, Church-street, shall receive a Reward of Ten Guineas. Any persons harbouring her after this date, will be prosecuted according as the law directs. THOMAS HILL.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 December 1783]

ABRAHAM; carpenter

Owner not named; Smith, James; Stoutenburgh, Mr.; Stoutenburgh; Simmons, Mr.

Eight Dollars Reward. ABSENTED himself, about a month ago, a negro fellow named Abraham, a Carpenter, formerly the property of James Smith. Had on, when he went away, a long blue great coat. He is about five feet six or seven inches high, and has a very sulky look; speaks very good English; about 35 years of age. It is imagined he lurks about Mr. Stoutenburgh and Mr. Simmons's plantations on John's Island, as he has a father at Mr. Stoutenburgh's. Whoever will apprehend and deliver him to the Keeper of the Sugar House, or to No. 14, Guignard Alley, in Charlestown, shall receive the above reward.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 December 1783]

ANONYMOUS MAN; son: Abraham

Stoutenburgh, [William?], Mr.; Stoutenburgh

Eight Dollars Reward. ABSENTED himself, about a month ago, a negro fellow named Abraham, a Carpenter, formerly the property of James Smith. Had on, when he went away, a long blue great coat. He is about five feet six or seven inches high, and has a very sulky look; speaks very good English; about 35 years of age. It is imagined he lurks about Mr. Stoutenburgh and Mr. Simmons's plantations on John's Island, as he has a father at Mr. Stoutenburgh's. Whoever will apprehend and deliver him to the Keeper of the Sugar House, or to No. 14, Guignard Alley, in Charlestown, shall receive the above reward.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 December 1783]

SAMPSON; CUT; b. South Carolina; lived Georgia & Florida; ship's-carpenter

Penman, James; Fenwick, Mr.; Hazard, Richard; Houston, George; Man, Spencer

TEN GUINEAS REWARD. WENT OFF from the Subscriber's Plantation (late Mr. Fenwick's) on John's Island, on the 11th instant, in an old black two-oared canoe, with very clumsy timbers, small stern sheets, and no fore-castle, and a piece of iron chain about two yards long fixed to her bow,

TWO NEGRO-MEN, viz. SAMPSON, commonly called by the name of Cut; a square-built, smooth-faced fellow, about 33 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, country born, speaks remarkable good English, and is very artful and sensible; he formerly belonged to Mr. Richard Hazard; is by trade a ship-carpenter, but can turn his hand to any plantation business. Having been born in the neighbourhood of Indian Land, and having lived several years in Georgia and East-Florida, it is supposed he is gone southwardly, and may probably be lurking either about Beaufort, Savannah, or some of the plantations on St. Mary's, Nassau, or St. John's River, East Florida, where he is well known. He is supposed to have had on when he went away, a white negro-cloth jacket and breeches, with white metal buttons, a scarlet waistcoat with mohair buttons, and a round hat; and took with him a blue painted box, in which was a blue coat with black buttons, and a black thickset waistcoat and breeches. And, POMPEY, a slender-made fellow, about 5 feet 6 inches high, about 50 years of age, his hair very grey, and his face much wrinkled; of the Gola country, but speaks very good English, and is by trade a gardener. He several years ago lived with George Galpheid, at Silver-Bluff; but lately belonged to Mr. David Holmes, of West-Florida. From his connections in Georgia, it is probable he will either make for Savannah, or St. Augustine. When he went away he was dressed in a white negro-cloth jacket, with green cape and cuffs, a white robin, white breeches, and wore a round hat. The above reward will be given to any person or persons who shall secure the above negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Sugar House, or the Subscriber at Charlestown; GEORGE HOUSTON, Esquire, at Savannah; or to SPENCER MAN, Esquire, at St. Augustine. Any person giving information of the above negroes being harboured by a white person, shall, upon conviction, receive the same reward. JAMES PENMAN. Charlestown, December 6, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 December 1783; Supplement.]

POMPEY; b. Africa; Gola country; Angola?; gardener

Penman, James; Fenwick, Mr.; Holmes, David; Galpheir, George

TEN GUINEAS REWARD. WENT OFF from the Subscriber's Plantation (late Mr. Fenwick's) on John's Island, on the 11th instant, in an old black two-oared canoe, with very clumsy timbers, small stern sheets, and no forecastle, and a piece of iron chain about two yards long fixed to her bow, TWO NEGRO-MEN, Viz. SAMPSON, commonly called by the name of Cut; a square-built, smooth-faced fellow, about 33....And, POMPEY, a slender-made fellow, about 5 feet 6 inches high, about 50 years of age, his hair very grey, and his face much wrinkled; of the Gola country, but speaks very good English, and is by trade a gardener. He several years ago lived with George Galpheir, at Silver-Bluff; but lately belonged to Mr. David Holmes, of West-Florida. From his connections in Georgia, it is probable he will either make for Savannah, or St. Augustine. When he went away he was dressed in a white negro-cloth jacket, with green cape and cuffs, a white robin, white breeches, and wore a round hat. The above reward will be given to any person or persons who shall secure the above negroes and deliver them to the Warden of the Sugar House, or the Subscriber at Charlestown; GEORGE HOUSTON, Esquire, at Savannah; or to SPENCER MAN, Esquire, at St. Augustine. Any person giving information of the above negroes being harboured by a white person, shall, upon conviction, receive the same reward. JAMES PENMAN. Charlestown, December 6, 1783.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 December 1783; Supplement.]

OXFORD

Gray, Henry; Postell, Mr. (d.); Valk, Jacob

Five Guineas Reward. WENT OFF from the Subscriber's plantation on Goose-Creek about six months ago, a likely middle aged NEGRO MAN named OXFORD, little knock-kneed, middling stature, and very black; his dress was white and blue negro cloth cloaths, and a red great coat. He was originally the property of a Mr. Postell, living formerly, and purchased of Jacob Valk, in 1779, with his wife and child. The above reward will be paid immediately on his being delivered either to the Work-House, or to the Subscriber; and the same sum paid on proof of his being harboured or employed by a white person. HENRY GRAY. Goose-Creek, Jan. 5.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1784.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; husband: Oxford; 1 child

Gray, Henry; Postell, Mr. (d.); Valk, Jacob Five Guineas Reward. WENT OFF from the Subscriber's plantation on Goose-Creek about six months ago, a likely middle aged NEGRO MAN named OXFORD, little knock-kneed, middling stature, and very black; his dress was white and blue negro cloth cloaths, and a red great coat. He was originally the property of a Mr. Postell, living formerly, and purchased of Jacob Valk, in 1779, with his wife and child. The above reward will be paid immediately on his being delivered either to the Work-House, or to the Subscriber; and the same sum paid on proof of his being harboured or employed by a white person. HENRY GRAY. Goose-Creek, Jan. 5.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1784.]

ANONYMOUS CHILD; father: Oxford

Gray, Henry; Postell, Mr. (d.); Valk, Jacob Five Guineas Reward. WENT OFF from the Subscriber's plantation on Goose-Creek about six months ago, a likely middle aged NEGRO MAN named OXFORD, little knock-kneed, middling stature, and very black; his dress was white and blue negro cloth cloaths, and a red great coat. He was originally the property of a Mr. Postell, living formerly, and purchased of Jacob Valk, in 1779, with his wife and child. The above reward will be paid immediately on his being delivered either to the Work-House, or to the Subscriber; and the same sum paid on proof of his being harboured or employed by a white person. HENRY GRAY. Goose-Creek, Jan. 5.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1784.]

CATE; KATE

Smith, John H. W. D.; Quelch, Andrew, Captain, estate of; Whiteside, Mr., estate of

RUN AWAY, in the month of April last, a Negro Woman named CATE, about 4 feet 10 inches, or 5 feet high, of a yellowish complexion, middle aged, was formerly the property of Whitesides's estate, but lately belonged to Capt.

Andrew Quelch, deceased, of Hobcaw, at the sale of the whole estate I purchased him [purchased for Quelch?; or should this read “her”?]. She has numerous connections in the Parish of Christ-Church, and is very well known. As I have reason to believe she was persuaded to elope by some persons residents in said Parish, I do hereby offer a reward of Ten Guineas to any white person who will prove her being harboured by a white person; and if by a negro, Five Guineas, to be paid on conviction of the offender or offenders. Whoever apprehends said Negro Woman, and delivers her to the Warden of the Sugar-House, in Charlestown, or to the Subscriber in said Parish, shall be entitled to a reward of Two Guineas. If she will return shortly of her own accord, her past offence shall not be noticed. JOHN H. W. D. SMITH. Christ-Church Parish, Dec. 30.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1784.]

ABRAM

Bee, Joseph

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 January 1784.]

See ABRAM in other newspapers.

DAVY; carpenter; chair-maker; fiddler

Middleton, Thomas; Cooke, Mr.; Hart, Mr.; Hasell, Andrew

RAN AWAY A NEGRO MAN named DAVY, by trade a Carpenter, formerly the property of Mr. Hart, the chairmaker, and lived some time with Mr. Cooke the Carpenter. He is a stout fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, 35 or 40 years of age, stoops a good deal, wears a long beard, and is well known in Charlestown as a fiddler. He is supposed to be skulking about Mr. Andrew Hasell's plantation in St. Thomas's, where he has a wife, or at Irish-town. Ten Guineas will be paid to any person who will deliver him to the Subscriber at Goose-Creek, or to the Keeper of the Work-House in Charlestown. THOMAS MIDDLETON. Jan. 15.
[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 17 January 1784]

BILLY

Pritchard, Paul; Wigfall, John

RUN AWAY FROM the Subscriber some time in February last, a Negro Boy about 15 years of age, country born, named Billy, late the property of Mr. John Wigfall, and supposed to be harboured somewhere about his plantation. Whoever will secure him, and deliver him to the Subscriber, shall receive five guineas reward, or, on conviction of his being harboured by a white person, 20 guineas will be paid to the Informer. PAUL PRITCHARD. Charleston Neck, Ship Yard, January 8, 1783.
[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 20 January 1784]

JEMMY; branded M

Bellinger, George; Bellinger, Edmund

Run away, the 2d of January, 1784, a short, well-made Black Fellow, about thirty-five years old, branded on his left breast with an M. His name is JEMMY. His clothes, and other things belonging to him, which he carried off, consist of a new blanket, a hat, a pair of shoe-boots, two isnauburg shirts, a corduroy waistcoat and breeches, a homespun waistcoat and leather breeches, and a riding jacket of coarse blue cloth, with silver-gilt buttons. Ten Dollars will be paid to any person who will deliver the aforesaid negro to the Subscriber, or to EDMUND BELLINGER, Esq. near Ashley-Ferry.

GEORGE BELLINGER.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 20 January 1784]

LYDIA

Rout, George

ONE GUINEA REWARD. RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, a young negro Wench named LYDIA, about 5 feet 2 inches high, is very sensible, and well acquainted in and about this City. She had on when she run away a calico wrapper, and a white dimity coat; but was seen a few days ago dressed in a jacket and coat of blue negro cloth. Whoever delivers the said Negro Wench to me, shall receive the above Reward. GEORGE ROUT, Charleston, Jan. 20, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1784]

MINGO

Browne, Charles

Run Away from the Subscriber, MINGO, a short Black Fellow, about eighteen; has many pimples on his face. HANNAH, a short Wench, a little on the yellow cast. Also VENUS, a short Wench; with her Daughter PHILLIS, a Mulatto Girl, about fourteen years old. Whoever will take them up, and secure them in the Sugar-House; or deliver them to me at Cummings's Point, shall receive a Reward of Two Dollars for each. And as it is supposed they are employed in this City, a further Reward of Ten Dollars to the informer, on conviction of the offenders being harbored by a white person, and half the sum if by a negro. CHARLES BROWNE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1784; Supplement]

HANNAH

Browne, Charles

Run Away from the Subscriber, MINGO, a short Black Fellow, about eighteen; has many pimples on his face. HANNAH, a short Wench, a little on the yellow cast. Also VENUS, a short Wench; with her Daughter PHILLIS, a Mulatto Girl, about fourteen years old. Whoever will take them up, and secure them in the Sugar-House; or deliver them to me at Cummings's Point, shall receive a Reward of Two Dollars for each. And as it is supposed they are employed in this City, a further Reward of Ten Dollars to the informer, on conviction of the offenders being harbored by a white person, and half the sum if by a negro. CHARLES BROWNE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1784; Supplement]

VENUS; daughter: Phillis

Browne, Charles

Run Away from the Subscriber, MINGO, a short Black Fellow, about eighteen; has many pimples on his face. HANNAH, a short Wench, a little on the yellow cast. Also VENUS, a short Wench; with her Daughter PHILLIS, a Mulatto Girl, about fourteen years old. Whoever will take them up, and secure them in the Sugar-House; or deliver them to me at Cummings's Point, shall receive a Reward of Two Dollars for each. And as it is supposed they are employed in this City, a further Reward of Ten Dollars to the informer, on conviction of the offenders being harbored by a white person, and half the sum if by a negro. CHARLES BROWNE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1784; Supplement]

PHILLIS; mulatto; mother: Venus

Browne, Charles

Run Away from the Subscriber, MINGO, a short Black Fellow, about eighteen; has many pimples on his face. HANNAH, a short Wench, a little on the yellow cast. Also VENUS, a short Wench; with her Daughter PHILLIS, a Mulatto Girl, about fourteen years old. Whoever will take them up, and secure them in the Sugar-House; or deliver them to me at Cummings's Point, shall receive a Reward of Two Dollars for each. And as it is supposed they are employed in this City, a further Reward of Ten Dollars to the informer, on conviction of the offenders being harbored by a white person, and half the sum if by a negro. CHARLES BROWNE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 22 January 1784; Supplement]

SOPHY; SOPHIE; b. Bermuda

M'Call, James; McCall; Smith, DeSaussure & Darrell

EARLY on Tuesday morning the 17th instant, absented herself a Negro Wench named SOPHY, only 15 years of age, but is full grown; she is remarkable by having the sinews of her left foot contracted, occasioned by a scald when a child. Had on when she went away, a gown made of blue longells, an Osnaburgh and a red woollen coat, the latter under the former; also an Osnaburgh apron, newly patch'd with white dowlas, and carried with her a pair of mens shoes, and large white buckles; on her head she wore a white handkerchief with a red border. She was lately purchased of Messrs. Smiths, DeSaussure and Darrell, and was brought here from Bermuda, where she has a mother, and in all probability will endeavour to get back; therefore all masters of vessels, particularly those bound to that island, are strictly forbid carrying her off; and all others are cautioned against harbouring of her, as they may depend the utmost rigour of the law will be put in force against them. A generous reward will be given, and all reasonable charges paid, to any person delivering the said negro to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber. JAMES M'CALL. No. 77, Tradd-street. Charleston, 23d Feb, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 February 1784]

BEN; b. Bermuda?; caulker

Putnam, Henry; Darrell, Captain; Smith, DeSaussure & Darrell?

RAN AWAY last night, Supposed to have got on board some vessel for Bermuda, or St. Augustine,
A NEGRO Fellow, named BEN, about 20 years of age, a caulker by trade, has been from Bermuda about four months, was brought here by Capt. Darrell, in the Ship [illegible], and sold by auction. As I have reason to suspect he is endeavouring to get back again, all masters of vessels and others are forewarned harbouring or carrying off the said negro, as they must answer the consequence.

Whoever will lodge the said negro in the Sugar House, or deliver him to me at No. 9, Stall's Alley, shall receive 15 dollars reward. HENRY PUTNAM. February 24, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 February 1784]

SAM; ritual scarification?; possibly Indian

Bommer, Jacob

RUN AWAY FROM the Subscriber, on FRIDAY the 20th instant, a NEGRO FELLOW, named SAM, this country born, about five feet eight inches high, and twenty years of age, well made, and of a black complexion, each of the calves of his legs marked with a fish bone [this is a Creek Indian practise, marking with a fish-bone]. Whoever will apprehend and deliver the said fellow to the subscriber, or to the keeper of the Sugar-House, shall receive a reward of five Guineas; and whoever will give information of his being harboured by any person or persons in this city, shall receive a reward of ten Guineas. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harbouring, or carrying the said fellow off the State. JACOB BOMMER. No. 8, Meeting-street. Feb. 24, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 February 1784]

PRIMUS

Price, William; Wilson, John; Bremar, John; Leigh, Sir Egerton

TWO GUINEAS REWARD. RAN away, a negro man named PRIMUS, about twenty-five years old, five feet six inches high, stoops remarkably as he walks; has thick ugly lips, the under one hanging very much; had on when he went away, a short green whitney jacket and corduroy breeches, and carried with him a pair of long brown woollen trowsers, and white Russia drab coat, which he probably may put on. He formerly belonged to Sir Egerton Leigh and John Bremar, and lately to John Wilson of whom the Subscriber bought him; and as Mr. Wilson lived at or near Camden, when the British came here in 1780, it is probable the said negro may go up to that part of the Country, he having contracted an acquaintance there. Two Guineas reward will be given, and all reasonable charges paid, to any person delivering the said negro to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber; and the utmost rigour of the law will be inflicted on conviction of any person harbouring the said negro. WILLIAM PRICE, No. 39, Tradd-street, Charleston, Feb. 16, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 28 February 1784]

SHOREHAM; mustee

Clark, James

Six Guineas Reward. RAN away from the Subscriber, in October last, two negroes, viz. SHOREHAM, a stout mustizoe [mestizo] fellow, about 3(?) years old; has a blemish on one of his eyes, a large scar on his thigh, halts in his walk, and is very hard of hearing. FRANK, a country-born fellow, of a dark complexion, about 50 years of age, near six feet high, is artful and cunning, and carries the marks of a great offender. I am informed, that they have bent their course to the back part of this state. Whoever will apprehend and deliver the said negroes to the Warden of the Sugar House, in Charleston, or to the Subscriber shall receive the above reward, or in proportion for the recovery of either of them, besides reasonable charges. JAMES CLARK. March 5, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 March 1784]

See SHOREHAM in other newspapers.

FRANK; whipping scars

Clark, James

Six Guineas Reward. RAN away from the Subscriber, in October last, two negroes, viz. SHOREHAM, a stout mustizoe [mestizo] fellow, about 3(?) years old; has a blemish on one of his eyes, a large scar on his thigh, halts in his walk, and is very hard of hearing. FRANK, a country-born fellow, of a dark complexion, about 50 years of age, near six feet high, is artful and cunning, and carries the marks of a great offender. I am informed, that they have bent their course to the back part of this state. Whoever will apprehend and deliver the said negroes to the Warden of the Sugar House, in Charleston, or to the Subscriber shall receive the above reward, or in proportion for the recovery of either of them, besides reasonable charges. JAMES CLARK. March 5, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 March 1784]

ABRAHAM; b. Africa; ritual scarification

Bolan, Richard; Lee, William; Cuthbert, John, Esq.

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber in January last, TWO NEGROES; a Fellow named Abraham, dark complexion, five feet five inches high, with his country marks in his face; and a Wench named Byna, yellowish complexion, a blemish in one of her eyes, tall and slim. Whoever delivers the above negroes to Mr. William Lee in Charleston; to John Cuthbert, Esq., Pocotaligo; or to Richard Bolan, at Beaufort, shall have the above Reward, and all reasonable charges paid. RICHARD BOLAN. 16 March 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1784.]

BYNA; BINAH; BYNAH

Bolan, Richard; Lee, William; Cuthbert, John, Esq.

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber in January last, TWO NEGROES; a Fellow named Abraham, dark complexion, five feet five inches high, with his country marks in his face; and a Wench named Byna, yellowish complexion, a blemish in one of her eyes, tall and slim. Whoever delivers the above negroes to Mr. William Lee in Charleston; to John Cuthbert, Esq., Pocotaligo; or to Richard Bolan, at Beaufort, shall have the above Reward, and all reasonable charges paid. RICHARD BOLAN. 16 March 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1784.]

JUPITER; lived Florida; St. Augustine

Hooper, G.

Run Away from the Subscriber, A NEGRO FELLOW, named JUPITER; he is about 5 feet 8 inches high, 22 years old, had on a blue jacket, and has the appearance of a sailor, he is country born, and speaks with good voice. Carried with him a Box containing some parts of pieces of linen, a pink stuff petticoat, and sundry other stolen articles. It is supposed he will endeavour to get away by sea; therefore all masters of vessels are cautioned against receiving him. Two Guineas will be paid to any one who will lodge him in Sugar-House, or deliver him to G. HOOPER, No. 2, Tradd-street. As he was lately brought from St. Augustine, it is probable he may endeavour to return there.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1784]

BESS

May, John; Wright, John, Captain

RUN AWAY, A Country-born NEGRO WENCH, named BESS, 28 years of age, about 5 feet 3 inches high, thin visaged, and dark complexion; had on a striped linen jacket, and blue homespun petticoat. She was late the property of Mr. John May of Charleston, who purchased her at the sale of Capt. John Wright's slaves. It is probable she is either laking about this City, or gone to Wassamsaw. Whoever apprehends said Wench, and secures her in the Sugar-House, shall receive a reward of TWO GUINEAS, and all reasonable charges, by applying at No. 168, King Street. N.B. Whoever will give information of her being harboured by any white person, shall receive a Reward of Two Guineas, by applying as above. Charleston, March 18th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 16 March 1784]

PETER

Clifts, Thomas, estate of; Pritchard, Paul, administrator

Run away from the Subscriber the 8th inst. TWO NEGROES belonging to the Estate of Thomas Clifts, deceased. PETER, a boy about 18 years old, of a black complexion, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has remarkable large feet. BRISTOL, about 50 years old, of a yellow complexion and thin visage, about 5 feet 9 inches high. Peter had on a blue jacket and white trousers, negro cloth; Bristol, a white negro cloth jacket and trousers. Whoever will deliver the said negroes to me, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have TEN Dollars reward, and all reasonable charges. Any person harbouring the aforesaid negroes, on proof thereof, will be dealt with the utmost rigour of the Law. PAUL PRITCHARD, Administrator. March 21, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 March 1784]

BRISTOL

Clifts, Thomas, estate of; Pritchard, Paul, administrator

Run away from the Subscriber the 8th inst. TWO NEGROES belonging to the Estate of Thomas Clifts, deceased. PETER, a boy about 18 years old, of a black complexion, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has remarkable large feet. BRISTOL, about 50 years old, of a yellow complexion and thin visage, about 5 feet 9 inches high. Peter had on a blue jacket and white trousers, negro cloth; Bristol, a white negro cloth jacket and trousers.

Whoever will deliver the said negroes to me, or to the Warden of the Workhouse, shall have TEN Dollars reward, and all reasonable charges. Any person harbouring the aforesaid negroes, on proof thereof, will be dealt with the utmost rigour of the Law. PAUL PRITCHARD, Administrator. March 21, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 March 1784]

SYLVIA; b. Africa; Guinea; ritual scarification van braam Houckgeest, A. E.; Graham, Arthur

RUN AWAY FROM the Subscriber the third inst. a Negro Wench named SYLVIA, formerly the property of Arthur Graham, late Waggon Conductor of the Southern Army: She is about five feet eight inches high, of the Guinea country, and has the marks on both cheeks, also a deep hollow in the left one; she is of a dark complexion, and had on when she went away a white woollen wrapper, green coat, and a check handkerchief round her head. As she has lately been seen a few miles out of town, it is supposed she will attempt to conceal herself in the country therefore all persons are hereby cautioned of harbouring or employing the said Negro, under the penalty of being prosecuted as the law directs. A reward of Three Guineas will be paid to whoever takes up and delivers the said Wench to me at No. 51 Tradd-street. A.E. VAN BRAAM HOUCKGEEST. Charleston, March 20.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 23 March 1784]

PHOEBE; daughter: Belinda

Lee, W.; Taylor, Peter, forfeited estate of; Tharin, Daniel

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber's Plantation at Wassamsaw, the 15th of September last, THREE NEGROES [sic], a WENCH named PHOEBE, about 45 years of age, has a blemish in one eye. Her daughter named Belinda, is about 9 months old. The above negroes were bought last March from the Commissioners of forfeited estates, and by information, to be gone to Mr. Peter Taylor's plantation at Hobcaw, whom they formerly belonged to. TWO GUINEAS reward will be given to any person who will bring them to DANIEL THARIN in Charleston, with all reasonable charges. If they will return of their own accord they shall have a ticket to choose their own master by applying as above. All persons are forewarned harbouring the said negroes, as they may depend on being prosecuted as the law directs. W. LEE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 25 March 1784]

BELINDA; mother: Phoebe

Lee, W.; Taylor, Peter, forfeited estate of; Tharin, Daniel

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber's Plantation at Wassamsaw, the 15th of September last, THREE NEGROES [sic], a WENCH named PHOEBE, about 45 years of age, has a blemish in one eye. Her daughter named Belinda, is about 9 months old. The above negroes were bought last March from the Commissioners of forfeited estates, and by information, to be gone to Mr. Peter Taylor's plantation at Hobcaw, whom they formerly belonged to. TWO GUINEAS reward will be given to any person who will bring them to DANIEL THARIN in Charleston, with all reasonable charges. If they will return of their own accord they shall have a ticket to choose their own master by applying as above. All persons are forewarned harbouring the said negroes, as they may depend on being prosecuted as the law directs. W. LEE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 25 March 1784]

JENNY; market-woman

Armstrong, John; Thomson, Mrs.; Thomson, John

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber at the Ten Mile House, A NEGRO WENCH named Jenny, much marked with the small pox, about 4 feet 9 inches high, 36 years old, speaks good English; she has been a market wench in Savannah and Charleston, when the property of Mrs. Thomson, now living in Union street, who sold her the day before she ran away. She had on when she went off, a grey jacket, and blue petticoat. A reward of one Guinea will be given to any who will take and deliver her to Mr. John Thomson, Butcher in Union-street, or the warden of the Sugar-House; and a reward of Three Guineas, if harboured by any white person. JOHN ARMSTRONG.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 1 April 1784]

DINAH; b. North Carolina

Eve, Oswell

RUN AWAY ON MONDAY the 23d instant, a stout likely NEGROE WENCH named DINAH, very black, born in North-Carolina, and it is supposed she has gone that way. A reward of TWO GUINEAS will be given to whoever delivers her to the Subscriber at the Ship-yard, Charleston Neck.

OSWELL EVE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 1 April 1784]

JACOB; lived North Carolina; sawyer; boatman

Saltus, Francis; Gordon, William

Run Away from the Subscriber the 30th of March last, A Remarkable stout Fellow by the name of JACOB, about 28 years of age, of a yellowish complexion, northward born; is a good sawyer, and a middling good boatman; was formerly the property of Mr. William Gordon, of Edenton, in North-Carolina. Whoever will apprehend said negro, and secure him in any county goal [gaol], or deliver him to the Warden of the Work-house in Charleston, shall receive a Reward of FIVE GUINEAS, and all other reasonable charges. FRANCIS SALTUS. Charleston, 2d April, 1784

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 6 April 1784]

CUPID

Rowand, Mary

RUN AWAY From the Subscriber, at No. 4, Lambull-street, [sic; Lamboll] TWO NEGRO Fellows, named CUPID and SAMBO, well known in the City of Charleston by their working out. Whoever will deliver the said Negroes to me, or lodge them in the Sugar-House, shall receive a Reward of one Guinea for each. If those fellows will return to the subscriber, they will be forgiven. Also, to be sold by private sale, a NEGRO WENCH. MARY ROWAND. Charleston, April 9th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1784]

SAMBO

Rowand, Mary

RUN AWAY From the Subscriber, at No. 4, Lambull-street, [sic; Lamboll] TWO NEGRO Fellows, named CUPID and SAMBO, well known in the City of Charleston by their working out. Whoever will deliver the said Negroes to me, or lodge them in the Sugar-House, shall receive a Reward of one Guinea for each. If those fellows will return to the subscriber, they will be forgiven. Also, to be sold by private sale, a NEGRO WENCH. MARY ROWAND. Charleston, April 9th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1784]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN

Rowand, Mary

RUN AWAY From the Subscriber, at No. 4, Lambull-street, [Lamboll] TWO NEGRO Fellows, named CUPID and SAMBO, well known in the City of Charleston by their working out. Whoever will deliver the said Negroes to me, or lodge them in the Sugar-House, shall receive a Reward of one Guinea for each. If those fellows will return to the subscriber, they will be forgiven. Also, to be sold by private sale, a NEGRO WENCH. MARY ROWAND. Charleston, April 9th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1784]

JOE; cooper

Singleton, John; Singellton

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber's Plantation at Peedee, THREE Negro Fellows, viz. JOE, a cooper, of a yellow complexion, and one fore-tooth out; is thought to be harbored in Bottle Alley. TOM, a black fellow, about 5 feet 9 inches high, plays the fiddle. JACK, a fisherman, has a wife in town. One Guinea will be given for each of them that is delivered to me at Peedee, with all reasonable charges. JOHN SINGELLTON. Charleston, 12th April 1784 .

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1784]

TOM; fiddler

Singleton, John; Singellton

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber's Plantation at Peedee, THREE Negro Fellows, viz. JOE, a cooper, of a yellow complexion, and one fore-tooth out; is thought to be harbored in Bottle Alley. TOM, a black fellow, about 5 feet 9 inches high, plays the fiddle. JACK, a fisherman, has a wife in town. One Guinea will be given for each of them that is delivered to me at Peedee, with all reasonable charges. JOHN SINGELLTON. Charleston, 12th April 1784 .
[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1784.]

JACK; fisherman

Singleton, John; Singellton

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber's Plantation at Peedee, THREE Negro Fellows, viz. JOE, a cooper, of a yellow complexion, and one fore-tooth out; is thought to be harbored in Bottle Alley. TOM, a black fellow, about 5 feet 9 inches high, plays the fiddle. JACK, a fisherman, has a wife in town. One Guinea will be given for each of them that is delivered to me at Peedee, with all reasonable charges. JOHN SINGELLTON. Charleston, 12th April 1784 .
[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 April 1784.]

QUASH; b. Africa; Guinea; fled to Provost's army

Leesen, Joseph, estate of; Gregg, John, administrator

Twenty Guineas Reward WILL be given to any Person who will apprehend and deliver to the Subscriber, or the Warden of the Work-house, TWO NEGRO MEN belonging to the estate of JOSEPH LEESEN, deceased -- QUASH, a likely young fellow, about 20 years of age, of the Guinea country, about 5 feet 6 inches high when he went away with Provost's army. SAMBO, this country born, bout 18 years of age, very artful and cunning, and perhaps may attempt to pass for a free fellow; speaks good English, and used to driving a waggon; went away about the time General Green's army marched northwardly, and is supposed to be harbored in the back parts of this State, or in North-Carolina. The above Reward will be paid, with all reasonable charges, or Ten Guineas for each, by JOHN GREGG, Administrator, No. 196, King-street, Charleston, South Carolina, 10th April, 1784.
[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1784.]

SAMBO; waggoner

Leesen, Joseph, estate of; Gregg, John, administrator

Twenty Guineas Reward WILL be given to any Person who will apprehend and deliver to the Subscriber, or the Warden of the Work-house, TWO NEGRO MEN belonging to the estate of JOSEPH LEESEN, deceased -- QUASH, a likely young fellow, about 20 years of age, of the Guinea country, about 5 feet 6 inches high when he went away with Provost's army. SAMBO, this country born, bout 18 years of age, very artful and cunning, and perhaps may attempt to pass for a free fellow; speaks good English, and used to driving a waggon; went away about the time General Green's army marched northwardly, and is supposed to be harbored in the back parts of this State, or in North-Carolina. The above Reward will be paid, with all reasonable charges, or Ten Guineas for each, by JOHN GREGG, Administrator, No. 196, King-street, Charleston, South Carolina, 10th April, 1784.
[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1784.]

TOM

deSaussure, D.; Garpier; John (d); Bailey, Ralph

Absented from my service, A NEGRO-MAN named TOM, formerly the property of John Garpier, deceased, of Prince William's Parish; said Negro is of a middle stature, much pitted with the small-pox, and speaks good English; it is supposed he is on Edisto Island, having a wife at Mr. Ralph Bailey's; or probably he may go to Prince William's Parish, where he is well known. A Reward of Eight Dollars will be paid to any person apprehending said negro, and delivering him to me in Charleston. D. DESAUSSURE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1784.]

ANONYMOUS WOMAN; husband: Tom

Bailey, Ralph

Absented from my service, A NEGRO-MAN named TOM, formerly the property of John Garpier, deceased, of Prince William's Parish; said Negro is of a middle stature, much pitted with the small-pox, and speaks good English; it is supposed he is on Edisto Island, having a wife at Mr. Ralph Bailey's; or probably he may go to Prince William's Parish, where he is well known. A Reward of Eight Dollars will be paid to any person apprehending said negro, and delivering him to me in Charleston. D. DESAUSSURE.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 17 April 1784.]

SARAH

Clarke, Francis

RUN AWAY FROM the Subscriber, a NEGRO WENCH named SARAH, of a yellowish complexion; had on when she went away, a dark striped linsey petticoat, and a brown woollen wrapper, a spotted red and white handkerchief on her head, and a blue cloak. She is about 18 years of age, and talks good English. Any person that brings said Negro Wench to FRANCIS CLARKE, Cutler, at the Sign of the Cross Swords, on the BAY, shall receive Eight Dollars Reward.

N.B. All persons are forewarned to harbour [sic] said Slave.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 20 April 1784.]

NANNY; NANCY; b. South Carolina

Hanahan, John; Maybank, Mr.; Jenkins, Parson

RUN AWAY FROM the Subscriber, on the 18th instant, A CAROLINA BORN NEGRO WENCH named NANNY, who calls herself NANCY, about 5 feet 4 inches high, aged about thirty years; who absented herself from my service in May 1779, and went with the British from Savanna (S.C.) to St. Augustine, from whence she was just brought, and made her escape before she reached her master. She is very artful, and says she belongs to a Mr. Maybank, and sometime to Parson Jenkins. Had on a striped India calico gown, and striped flannel petticoat, with a handkerchief around her head. Whoever will apprehend said Wench, and either deliver her to the Subscriber on Edisto Island, or to the Warden of the Sugar-House in Charleston, shall receive Two Guineas Reward, and all masters of vessels and others, are hereby cautioned from carrying her off the State, or from harbouring, or concealing her on pain of being prosecuted as the law directs. JOHN HANA[H]AN.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 24 April 1784]

CATO

Mathews; Matthews, George; Sansun, John

Run away from the subscriber some time last month, A NEGRO BOY, named Cato, formerly the property of Mr. John Sansun [this may be a phonetic spelling of a Huguenot name]. Whoever will deliver the said boy to the subscriber, at No. 26, 1-half Church-street, shall receive Two Guineas reward. If any person will prove his being harboured by a white, shall receive Five Guineas; if by a negro Two Guineas on the conviction of the offender. GEORGE MATHEWS.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 April 1784]

KITT; lamp-lighter

Ross, George; Elliott, Mr.

RUN AWAY from the Subscriber last Sunday afternoon, A NEGRO BOY named KITT, very much pitted with the small-pox; has been for some time past employed in lighting the City Lamps, particularly on the Bay. Had on when he went away, a striped woollen jacket, and osnaburgh trowsers. He formerly belonged to [illegible] Elliott's estate at the Round-O, and it is supposed he is gone that way, as some of his relations belong to the said owner at the same place. All Masters of Vessels are warned not to take the said negro away. A Reward of Twelve Dollars will be paid to any person who will deliver the said Negro to the warden of the Sugar-House, or to me at 25, Tradd-street. GEORGE ROSS. Charleston, May 11th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 11 May 1784]

WILL

Nazer, Phillip

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 11 May 1784]

See WILL, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 13 May 1784.

SARAH

Pritchard, Paul

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1784]

See SARAH in other newspapers.

ABRAHAM; b. Africa; "Corpaira Country"

Willeman, Jacob

RAN AWAY FROM the Subscriber's Plantation at Cow-Savanna, the 11th April last, TWO NEGRO MEN, one named ABRAHAM, and the other CATO, of the Corpaira Country. Had on when they went away red drawers and white jacket. Whoever will deliver them to my Plantation, or the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in Charleston, shall have a Reward of ONE GUINEA for each, and all reasonable charges paid by me. JACOB WILLEMAN. Charleston, May 11, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1784]

CATO; b. Africa; “Corpaira Country”

Willeman, Jacob

RAN AWAY FROM the Subscriber’s Plantation at Cow-Savanna, the 11th April last, TWO NEGRO MEN, one named ABRAHAM, and the other CATO, of the Corpaira Country. Had on when they went away red drawers and white jacket. Whoever will deliver them to my Plantation, or the Warden of the Work-house, or to me in Charleston, shall have a Reward of ONE GUINEA for each, and all reasonable charges paid by me. JACOB WILLEMAN. Charleston, May 11, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 May 1784]

GUY

Lynah, James

RUN AWAY About the middle of MARCH last, A NEGRO MAN named GUY, a short, thick well made fellow, about five feet five inches high; had on when he went away a new check shirt, blue cloth coat, and black velvet breeches. A Reward of TWO GUINEAS will be paid upon delivery of the said fellow to the subscriber at No. 99, Meeting-street, or to the Warden of the Sugar House, and TEN GUINEAS if harbored by a white person, upon conviction of the offender. He has been frequently seen about Rose’s wharf. JAMES LYNAB. Charleston, May 13.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 25 May 1784]

JOHNNY

Wragg, Judith, Miss, estate of; Gadsden, Christopher, Gen.; Ladson, J., executor

Absented himself from the Subscriber, the beginning of APRIL, A NEGRO MAN named JOHNNY, about 5 feet 11 inches high, of a yellow complexion. He belongs to the Estate of the deceased Miss Judith Wragg, and is supposed to be lurking about General Gadsden's Plantation called Dacveau [sic], or harboured in Charleston. A reward of TWENTY DOLLARS will be given to any person who will deliver him to the Warden of the Workhouse in Charleston, and a like reward will be given to convict any person of harbouring him. J. LADSON, Executor.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 25 May 1784]

JACOB

Fitzsimmons, Christopher; Ward, John

RAN AWAY on the 11th Instant, from the Subscriber, A NEGRO BOY named Jacob, twelve years old, about four feet eight inches high; he had on when he went off, a blue and white linen jacket and breeches. He was bought a few months ago from John Ward, the Taylor; it is supposed he is gone to his Plantation. Any person that will deliver him to the Owner shall have Ten Dollars Reward. Christopher Fitzsimmons.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 May 1784]

TOM

Pritchard, Paul; Bowen, Mr.

RUN AWAY From the Subscriber, about ten days since, A SHORT strong-made NEGRO FELLOW named TOM, late the property of Mr. Bowen. Whoever takes up and delivers him to me, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall receive One Guinea Reward: And all persons are forbid harbouring or employing said Negro, at their peril. PAUL PRITCHARD. Ship-Yard, June 8, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 18 June 1784]

CUFFEE; CUFFE; bricklayer

Hooper, Thomas; Huger, Benjamin, estate of; Oliphant, David, Dr.

RUN AWAY, A Negro Bricklayer, named CUFFE, who formerly belonged to Doctor Olyphant [sic], and was lately purchased by the subscriber from the estate of Benjamin Huger. The fellow is stout and well made, has a cast in one eye, and generally dresses in a blue coat; he is well known and it is supposed is now in town. A handsome reward will be given to any person who will lodge him in the Sugar-House, or deliver him to THOMAS HOOPER.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 June 1784]

JOE

Smith, Henry, estate of; Smith, Benjamin; Smith, Thomas

RUN AWAY FROM the plantation of the late Henry Smith, Esq; at Goose Creek, a Negro Fellow named JOE, country born, about 28 years of age, late from St. Augustine, it is expected he will endeavour to get back again. All Captains of vessels are cautioned against carrying him off. A reward of Two Guineas will be given to any person that will deliver him to the Warden of the Work-House, to Thomas Smith, Esq; at St. George's, or to the subscriber at Goose-creek. BENJAMIN SMITH.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 12 June 1784]

SCIPIO; blind in right eye

Butler, James H.; Ham, Captain; Singleton, John

One Hundred Dollars Reward. WHEREAS the subscriber's negro-man Scipio left his service last Saturday evening, he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, a likely black, high bushy forehead, blind in his right eye, and has a remarkable gait in his walk. He is supposed to be in company with four negroes belonging to Capt. Ham, who left him the same evening, they being met by some persons above Moncks-Corner, who knew and examined them, they said Captain Ham had sold them all to Mr. John Singleton, who was about settling at Camden, and in consequence of which, they said, they followed his waggon; by this plausible story they were suffered to pass on. I will forgive the fellow if he will return of himself. I will pay Five Guineas and reasonable charges if taken over Murray's Ferry and delivered to me or the Warden of the Work-house--and One Hundred Dollars to any person who will inform, so as the negroe is recovered, and prosecute to conviction the harbourer of the said Scipio.

JAMES H. BUTLER. Moore-Street. June 26, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 June 1784]

ANONYMOUS MAN #1

Ham, Captain; Singleton, John; Butler, James H.

One Hundred Dollars Reward. WHEREAS the subscriber's negro-man Scipio left his service last Saturday evening, he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, a likely black, high bushy forehead, blind in his right eye, and has a remarkable gait in his walk. He is supposed to be in company with four negroes belonging to Capt. Ham, who left him the same evening, they being met by some persons above Moncks-Corner, who knew and examined them, they said Captain Ham had sold them all to Mr. John Singleton, who was about settling at Camden, and in consequence of which, they said, they followed his waggon; by this plausible story they were suffered to pass on. I will forgive the fellow if he will return of himself. I will pay Five Guineas and reasonable charges if taken over Murray's Ferry and delivered to me or the Warden of the Work-house--and One Hundred Dollars to any person who will inform, so as the negroe is recovered, and prosecute to conviction the harbourer of the said Scipio. JAMES H. BUTLER. Moore-Street. June 26, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 June 1784]

ANONYMOUS MAN #2

Ham, Captain; Singleton, John; Butler, James H.

One Hundred Dollars Reward. WHEREAS the subscriber's negro-man Scipio left his service last Saturday evening, he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, a likely black, high bushy forehead, blind in his right eye, and has a remarkable gait in his walk. He is supposed to be in company with four negroes belonging to Capt. Ham, who left him the same evening, they being met by some persons above Moncks-Corner, who knew and examined them, they said Captain Ham had sold them all to Mr. John Singleton, who was about settling at Camden, and in consequence of which, they said, they followed his waggon; by this plausible story they were suffered to pass on. I will forgive the fellow if he will return of himself. I will pay Five Guineas and reasonable charges if taken over Murray's Ferry and delivered to me or the Warden of the Work-house--and One Hundred Dollars to any person who will inform, so as the negroe is recovered, and prosecute to conviction the harbourer of the said Scipio. JAMES H. BUTLER. Moore-Street. June 26, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 June 1784]

ANONYMOUS MAN #3

Ham, Captain; Singleton, John; Butler, James H.

One Hundred Dollars Reward. WHEREAS the subscriber's negro-man Scipio left his service last Saturday evening, he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, a likely black, high bushy forehead, blind in his right eye, and has a remarkable gait in his walk. He is supposed to be in company with four negroes belonging to Capt. Ham, who left him the same evening, they being met by some persons above Moncks-Corner, who knew and examined them, they said Captain Ham had sold them all to Mr. John Singleton, who was about settling at Camden, and in consequence of which, they said, they followed his waggon; by this plausible story they were suffered to pass on. I will forgive the fellow if he will return of himself. I will pay Five Guineas and reasonable charges if taken over Murray's Ferry and delivered to me or the Warden of the Work-house--and One Hundred Dollars to any person who will inform, so as the negro is recovered, and prosecute to conviction the harbourer of the said Scipio. JAMES H. BUTLER. Moore-Street. June 26, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 June 1784.]

ANONYMOUS MAN #4

Ham, Captain; Singleton, John; Butler, James H.

One Hundred Dollars Reward. WHEREAS the subscriber's negro-man Scipio left his service last Saturday evening, he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, a likely black, high bushy forehead, blind in his right eye, and has a remarkable gait in his walk. He is supposed to be in company with four negroes belonging to Capt. Ham, who left him the same evening, they being met by some persons above Moncks-Corner, who knew and examined them, they said Captain Ham had sold them all to Mr. John Singleton, who was about settling at Camden, and in consequence of which, they said, they followed his waggon; by this plausible story they were suffered to pass on. I will forgive the fellow if he will return of himself. I will pay Five Guineas and reasonable charges if taken over Murray's Ferry and delivered to me or the Warden of the Work-house--and One Hundred Dollars to any person who will inform, so as the negro is recovered, and prosecute to conviction the harbourer of the said Scipio. JAMES H. BUTLER. Moore-Street. June 26, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 26 June 1784.]

TOM

Roche & Custer; Estes, Richard, Captain; Robinson, Mr.

From the Subscribers, the 28th of June, a short old negroe-man named TOM, marked with the small-pox, speaks very good English, late the property of Capt. Richard Estes; and having reason to believe that he is gone to the former plantation, or embarked himself for Bermuda, where he has children belonging to Mr. Robinson; therefore all captains of vessels, or others, are forbid harbouring or carrying off the said Negroe, on forfeit according to law. Whoever will send or deliver said Negroe to us, or the Warden of the Work-house, shall be generously rewarded. Roch & Custer. Charleston, June 29.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 1 July 1784.]

WILL; b. West Indies; St. Christopher; cooper; sailor

Marshall, William

TWO GUINEAS REWARD. RAN AWAY from the Subscriber a few days ago, a tall thin Negro-man of the name of WILL, about 20 years of age; remarkable by a cut or scar on the left side of his mouth; speaks good English. The fellow was born in the Island of St. Christopher, and has served some time to the cooper's trade, as well as having gone several voyages to sea. He had on when he ran off, a speckled waistcoat and breeches, and a snuff-coloured coat; but having took all his cloathes with him, it is proable he may have changed his dress. The above Reward will be paid to any person that delivers him to the Subscriber, or the Warden of the Sugar-House. Masters of Vessels are hereby warned at their peril not to harbour, or take him off. WILLIAM MARSHALL. No. 48, Queen street. [South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1784.]

JOE; b. Africa; "Carwally country"; filed teeth

Kelly, Timothy

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber, on the 20th of June, A NEGROE LAD, named Joe, about twenty years of age, of the Carwally country, low set, his teeth filed, speaks and understands a little English; had on when he went away, a red sailor's jacket, black silk waistcoat and breeches, striped shirt, and round beaver hat. Any person delivering him to the Warden of the Sugar-house, or his master, No. 58, Queen-street, shall have a reward of Twelve Dollars; and any person harboring said negroe will be prosecuted to the utmost rigor of the law. TIMOTHY KELLY. Charleston, ?? 1784

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1784]

TOM

You, Thomas (silversmith)

Run Away the 6th instant, TWO YOUNG NEGRO FELLOWS, one named TOBY, the other HERCULES. Toby is a stout well-made fellow, and has a grum look. Hercules is bow-legged, of a pleasant countenance, and is short. Whoever apprehends the said Fellows, so that I may get them again, shall receive one Guinea for each, and all reasonable charges paid. All masters of vessels are cautioned from carrying off the said slaves, by THOMAS YOU, King-street, No. 145.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1784]

HERCULES

You, Thomas (silversmith)

Run Away the 6th instant, TWO YOUNG NEGRO FELLOWS, one named TOBY, the other HERCULES. Toby is a stout well-made fellow, and has a grum look. Hercules is bow-legged, of a pleasant countenance, and is short. Whoever apprehends the said Fellows, so that I may get them again, shall receive one Guinea for each, and all reasonable charges paid. All masters of vessels are cautioned from carrying off the said slaves, by THOMAS YOU, King-street, No. 145.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 July 1784]

MONK; ship's-carpenter; wife: Phillis (pregnant)

Castell, Benjamin; Cattell?; Simmonds, Col.

Three Guineas Reward. RUN AWAY from the Subscriber, near the Quarter-House, twelve days since, THREE NEGROES, viz: MONK, a stout Black Fellow, country-born, near six feet high, pitted with the small-pox; a ship carpenter by trade; had on when he went away, a blue surtout coat, and white woollen trowsers; he is about 40 years old. PHILLIS, his wife, yellow complexion, short and big with child; about 25 years old, country-born. HAMPSHIRE, a yellow complexion, tall, and very slender, his country marks in his face, about 20 years old; has lately been used to mind cattle. The above Negroes were bought from Colonel Simmonds last March, and have been seen lurking about town. Whoever will apprehend and deliver them to the Warden of the Sugar-House, or to the Subscriber, shall receive the above Reward, or in proportion for either of them. If they return of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. BENJAMIN CASTELL. [Cattell?] July 13th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 July 1784]

PHILLIS; pregnant; husband: Monk

Castell, Benjamin; Cattell?; Simmonds, Col.

Three Guineas Reward. RUN AWAY from the Subscriber, near the Quarter-House, twelve days since, THREE NEGROES, viz: MONK, a stout Black Fellow, country-born, near six feet high, pitted with the small-pox; a ship carpenter by trade; had on when he went away, a blue surtout coat, and white woollen trowsers; he is about 40 years old. PHILLIS, his wife, yellow complexion, short and big with child; about 25 years old, country-born. HAMPSHIRE, a yellow complexion, tall, and very slender, his country marks in his face, about 20 years old; has lately been used to mind cattle. The above Negroes were bought from Colonel Simmonds last March, and have been seen lurking about town. Whoever will apprehend and deliver them to the Warden of the Sugar-House, or to the Subscriber, shall receive the above Reward, or in proportion for either of them. If they return of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. BENJAMIN CASTELL. [Cattell?] July 13th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 July 1784]

HAMPSHIRE; b. Africa; ritual scarification; cattle-minder

Castell, Benjamin; Cattell?; Simmonds, Col.

Three Guineas Reward. RUN AWAY from the Subscriber, near the Quarter-House, twelve days since, THREE NEGROES, viz: MONK, a stout Black Fellow, country-born, near six feet high, pitted with the small-pox; a ship carpenter by trade; had on when he went away, a blue surtout coat, and white woollen trowsers; he is about 40 years old. PHILLIS, his wife, yellow complexion, short and big with child; about 25 years old, country-born. HAMPSHIRE, a yellow complexion, tall, and very slender, his country marks in his face, about 20 years old; has lately been used to mind cattle. The above Negroes were bought from Colonel Simmonds last March, and have been seen lurking about town. Whoever will apprehend and deliver them to the Warden of the Sugar-House, or to the Subscriber, shall receive the above Reward, or in proportion for either of them. If they return of their own accord, they shall be forgiven. BENJAMIN CASTELL. [Cattell?] July 13th, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 13 July 1784]

STEPNEY; mutilated

Bonneau, Samuel

RAN AWAY this morning, from the Subscriber, A LIKELY NEGRO MAN, of a yellowish complexion, named STEPNEY, about 5 feet 10 inches high, has lost the first finger of his right hand, he went with the British away to Virginia, and was brought from thence about twelve months ago, I judge he will endeavour to get back. A Reward of THREE DOLLARS will be paid for said fellow if taken on this side Santee; if on the other side of the river TWO GUINEAS, with reasonable charges on his being delivered to the Warden of the Work-House in Charleston, or in St. John's Parish, to Samuel Bonneau. July 17, 1784. Who cautions all masters of vessels from carrying him off the State, and forbids others from harbouring him under penalty of abiding by the utmost severity the law directs in such cases.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 24 July 1784]

DICK; wife: Diana

Hendrickson, Jacob

Two Guineas Reward. RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, last Thursday morning, A NEGRO FELLOW named DICK, aged 50 years, about 5 feet four inches high, and speaks very broken English. Had on when he went away, a homespun jacket, negro-cloth trowsers, and a white hat, but will probably change his dress having several suits with him when he went off. At the same time Ran Away, A Negro Wench named DIANA, about 40 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, speaks broken English, she is pitted with the small pox, the marks are very large but not many of them. She went away with a red petticoat and a white wrapper; she is wife of the above-named negro fellow Dick.

Whoever will apprehend and deliver them to the Warden-of the Sugar-House, or to the Subscriber, at his Plantation on John's island, shall have the above Reward, or in proportion for either of them.

Jacob Hendrickson.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 July 1784]

DIANA; husband: Dick

Hendrickson, Jacob

Two Guineas Reward. RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, last Thursday morning, A NEGRO FELLOW named DICK, aged 50 years, about 5 feet four inches high, and speaks very broken English. Had on when he went away, a homespun jacket, negro-cloth trowsers, and a white hat, but will probably change his dress having several suits with him when he went off. At the same time Ran Away, A Negro Wench named DIANA, about 40 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, speaks broken English, she is pitted with the small pox, the marks are very large but not many of them. She went away with a red petticoat and a white wrapper; she is wife of the above-named negro fellow Dick.

Whoever will apprehend and deliver them to the Warden-of the Sugar-House, or to the Subscriber, at his Plantation on John's island, shall have the above Reward, or in proportion for either of them.

Jacob Hendrickson.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 27 July 1784]

JOHN; sailor

Behagen, Anthony; Legare, Samuel; Hall, Daniel; Hall, Mrs.

RUN AWAY from on board the Brigantine Friendship, from St. Croix, last from Jamaica, the following NEGROES belonging to the Subscriber, viz. JOHN, a stout fellow, American born, has a sister in town, is said to belong to Mr. Daniel Hall and his mother, either here or Savanna in Georgia; his former master being a pilot, by him he was brought and sold in Jamaica, is very well known in this town, speaks very good English, has a mark on his breast. JAMES, a stout fellow, born in St. Eustatius, very much cut in his face, his left ear entirely cut off, speaks broken English, has marks on both his shoulders, and one on his breast, has very neat legs and feet, wears a string on his right and left legs, one above and the other below his calves. CATO, a stout fellow, born in Port Antonio, Jamaica, has no marks, speaks tolerable good English, had on a white shirt and trowsers when he went away. Said negroes have been seen two days ago four miles distance from town. They are supposed to have gone to Savanna, as the canoe that crosses the river Ashley, was found stole away in the night. Whoever apprehends said negroes and delivers them to Mr. Samuel Legare, in this town, or lodges them in the goal [gaol] at Savanna, shall receive One Guinea Reward for each of them. All masters of vessels are forbid carrying them off. Anthony Behagen. Charleston, July 14, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1784]

JAMES; b. West Indies; St. Eustatius; cropped ear; ritual scarification or scars; sailor; voodoo? Behagen, Anthony; Legare, Samuel; Hall, Daniel; Hall, Mrs.

RUN AWAY from on board the Brigantine Friendship, from St. Croix, last from Jamaica, the following NEGROES belonging to the Subscriber, viz. JOHN, a stout fellow, American born, has a sister in town, is said to belong to Mr. Daniel Hall and his mother, either here or Savanna in Georgia; his former master being a pilot, by him he was brought and sold in Jamaica, is very well known in this town, speaks very good English, has a mark on his breast.

JAMES, a stout fellow, born in St. Eustatius, very much cut in his face, his left ear entirely cut off, speaks broken English, has marks on both his shoulders, and one on his breast, has very neat legs and feet, wears a string on his right and left legs, one above and the other below his calves. CATO, a stout fellow, born in Port Antonio, Jamaica, has no marks, speaks tolerable good English, had on a white shirt and trowsers when he went away. Said negroes have been seen two days ago four miles distance from town. They are supposed to have gone to Savanna, as the canoe that crosses the river Ashley, was found stole away in the night. Whoever apprehends said negroes and delivers them to Mr. Samuel Legare, in this town, or lodges them in the goal [gaol] at Savanna, shall receive One Guinea Reward for each of them. All masters of vessels are forbid carrying them off. Anthony Behagen. Charleston, July 14, 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1784.]

CATO; b. West Indies; Jamaica; Port Antonio; sailor Behagen, Anthony; Legare, Samuel; Hall, Daniel; Hall, Mrs.

RUN AWAY from on board the Brigantine Friendship, from St. Croix, last from Jamaica, the following NEGROES belonging to the Subscriber, viz. JOHN, a stout fellow, American born, has a sister in town, is said to belong to Mr. Daniel Hall and his mother, either here or Savanna in Georgia; his former master being a pilot, by him he was brought and sold in Jamaica, is very well known in this town, speaks very good English, has a mark on his breast.

JAMES, a stout fellow, born in St. Eustatius, very much cut in his face, his left ear entirely cut off, speaks broken English, has marks on both his shoulders, and one on his breast, has very neat legs and feet, wears a string on his right and left legs, one above and the other below his calves. CATO, a stout fellow, born in Port Antonio, Jamaica, has no marks, speaks tolerable good English, had on a white shirt and trowsers when he went away. Said negroes have been seen two days ago four miles distance from town. They are supposed to have gone to Savanna, as the canoe that crosses the river Ashley, was found stole away in the night. Whoever apprehends said negroes and delivers them to Mr. Samuel Legare, in this town, or lodges them in the goal [gaol] at Savanna, shall receive One Guinea Reward for each of them. All masters of vessels are forbid carrying them off. Anthony Behagen. Charleston, July 14,

1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 29 July 1784.]

CAESAR; b. Africa; Congo; wife: Flora; daughter: Sophia Ver Mounet, John; Moutro, Mr.; Williamson, General; Roberts, Mr.

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber, FIVE NEGROES, 2 WOMEN, 2 MEN, and one GIRL; one of the men a stout negro by the name of Caesar, the other by the name of Pompy, having his head shaved, and of a middling height; one of the negro women wife to Caesar, by the name of Flora, having a mark across her breast; the other Smal, wife to Pompy, is a short woman; the girl belonging to Caesar and Flora, is by the name of Sophia, all of them new negroes from Congo, each having a blanket, and hoe. Any person finding the said negroes, may bring them to me the Subscriber living in the Parish of St.

James's, on the estate lately belonging to General Williamson, or to Mr. Moutro's [a?] French Gentleman, in King street, No. 66, at Mr. Roberts.

JOHN VER MOUNET.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1784]

FLORA; b. Africa; Congo; husband: Caesar; daughter: Sophia
Ver Mounet, John; Moutro, Mr.; Williamson, General; Roberts, Mr.

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber, FIVE NEGROES, 2 WOMEN, 2 MEN, and one GIRL; one of the men a stout negro by the name of Caesar, the other by the name of Pompy, having his head shaved, and of a middling height; one of the negro women wife to Caesar, by the name of Flora, having a mark across her breast; the other Smal, wife to Pompy, is a short woman; the girl belonging to Caesar and Flora, is by the name of Sophia, all of them new negroes from Congo, each having a blanket, and hoe. Any person finding the said negroes, may bring them to me the Subscriber living in the Parish of St. James's, on the estate lately belonging to General Williamson, or to Mr. Moutro's [a?] French Gentleman, in King street, No. 66, at Mr. Roberts.

JOHN VER MOUNET.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1784]

SOPHIA; b. Africa; Congo; mother: Flora; father: Caesar
Ver Mounet, John; Moutro, Mr.; Williamson, General; Roberts, Mr.

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber, FIVE NEGROES, 2 WOMEN, 2 MEN, and one GIRL; one of the men a stout negro by the name of Caesar, the other by the name of Pompy, having his head shaved, and of a middling height; one of the negro women wife to Caesar, by the name of Flora, having a mark across her breast; the other Smal, wife to Pompy, is a short woman; the girl belonging to Caesar and Flora, is by the name of Sophia, all of them new negroes from Congo, each having a blanket, and hoe. Any person finding the said negroes, may bring them to me the Subscriber living in the Parish of St. James's, on the estate lately belonging to General Williamson, or to Mr. Moutro's [a?] French Gentleman, in King street, No. 66, at Mr. Roberts.

JOHN VER MOUNET.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1784]

POMPEY; POMPY; b. Africa; Congo; wife: Smal
Ver Mounet, John; Moutro, Mr.; Williamson, General; Roberts, Mr.

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber, FIVE NEGROES, 2 WOMEN, 2 MEN, and one GIRL; one of the men a stout negro by the name of Caesar, the other by the name of Pompy, having his head shaved, and of a middling height; one of the negro women wife to Caesar, by the name of Flora, having a mark across her breast; the other Smal, wife to Pompy, is a short woman; the girl belonging to Caesar and Flora, is by the name of Sophia, all of them new negroes from Congo, each having a blanket, and hoe. Any person finding the said negroes, may bring them to me the Subscriber living in the Parish of St. James's, on the estate lately belonging to General Williamson, or to Mr. Moutro's [a?] French Gentleman, in King street, No. 66, at Mr. Roberts.

JOHN VER MOUNET.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1784]

SMAL ?; b. Congo; husband: Pompey
Ver Mounet, John; Moutro, Mr.; Williamson, General; Roberts, Mr.

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber, FIVE NEGROES, 2 WOMEN, 2 MEN, and one GIRL; one of the men a stout negro by the name of Caesar, the other by the name of Pompy, having his head shaved, and of a middling height; one of the negro women wife to Caesar, by the name of Flora, having a mark across her breast; the other Smal, wife to Pompy, is a short woman; the girl belonging to Caesar and Flora, is by the name of Sophia, all of them new negroes from Congo, each having a blanket, and hoe. Any person finding the said negroes, may bring them to me the Subscriber living in the Parish of St. James's, on the estate lately belonging to General Williamson, or to Mr. Moutro's [a?] French Gentleman, in King street, No. 66, at Mr. Roberts.

JOHN VER MOUNET.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 7 August 1784]

ANONYMOUS GIRL; b. Africa; Angola

RUN AWAY, A NEGRO-GIRL about 16 years of age, she is lately from Africa, of the Angola Country, and had on when she went off an oznaburgh wrapper and petticoat. Whoever delivers her to her master at No. 46, Bay, or to the Warden of the Sugar-House, shall receive a Reward of One Guinea. Charleston, August 10, 1784 .

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1784.]

JUNE (male)

Capers, Charles; Wilson, Hugh

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber's plantation on St. Helena's Island, about the middle of June last, A Negro Fellow named JUNE. HAD on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket, and wide Hessian trowsers, of a yellowish complexion, his upper and lower fore teeth much scragled, has lost one of his toe nails when a boy, and no appearance of any other. Whoever will bring said negro to the Sugar-House in Charleston, or to the Subscriber on St. Helena Island, shall receive a Reward of SIX DOLLARS and reasonable charges. CHARLES CAPERS N.B. Said negro went away with a noted runaway of Hugh Wilson's.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1784.]

ANONYMOUS MAN

Wilson, Hugh; Capers, Charles

RAN AWAY From the Subscriber's plantation on St. Helena's Island, about the middle of June last, A Negro Fellow named JUNE. HAD on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket, and wide Hessian trowsers, of a yellowish complexion, his upper and lower fore teeth much scragled, has lost one of his toe nails when a boy, and no appearance of any other. Whoever will bring said negro to the Sugar-House in Charleston, or to the Subscriber on St. Helena Island, shall receive a Reward of SIX DOLLARS and reasonable charges. CHARLES CAPERS N.B. Said negro went away with a noted runaway of Hugh Wilson's.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 10 August 1784.]

JEMMY

Gadsden, Thomas

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 19 August 1784.]

See JEMMY, Gazette of the State of South-Carolina, 19 August 1784.

JACOB; b. Africa; Ibo

Lawton, Winborn

Absented himself, or stolen from the subscriber, A Likely NEGRO BOY named JACOB, of the Eboe country, speaks pretty good English, about four feet six inches high; had on when he went away an osnaburg shirt, and a striped homespun pair of breeches. Whoever will deliver the said Boy to the Warden of the Workhouse, or to the subscriber in Lynch's Lane, No. 1, shall receive ONE GUINEA Reward. N.B. All persons are forbid harbouring the said Boy, and masters of vessels from carrying him away, as they shall answer it at their peril. WINBOM [sic; Winborn] LAWTON. Charleston, 16th Aug. 1784.

[South-Carolina Gazette and General Advertiser. Charleston, S.C. 21 August 1784.]