South Carolina State Parks OK -- enough suspense, Gregory and Raymond, you are correct! It is Goodale State Park located just outside of Camden. This is a video of the spillway at Goodale.....but I agree with many of you, it does look like an upstate park at first glance. Find out more on Goodale at: <http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/park-finder/state-park/1199.aspx>
