Dear Governor Haley,

2-23-'15

I'm an 84 year old lady, residing with my husband in Sun City, Bluffton, S.C., and just finishing the reading of your autobiography "Nikki Haley, Governor of South Carolina". We recently had the privilege of meeting personally, also, you and your husband, following your recent inauguration, in Columbia, at the State House. What an honor for us!

My Mother, now in Heaven with our Lord, my Grandmother, and Mother's two sisters, all S.C. natives, were all graduates of Limestone College in Gaffney, S.C. I went to S.C. two years, being a native of Georgia, I chose to attend and graduate from U.S.C.

for my final two years, and became a School Teacher, even getting a Masters in Special Education, the teaching of exceptional children. In this area, I spent most of my teaching career.

I so love children! Your precious two were the "apples of my eye" when seeing them at the night event before inauguration. They were having such a good time! How blessed are you and Michael!

In my reading "Can't Is Not an Option", I would grieve over some of your challenges, yet glory over your brilliant overcoming! You're such a beautiful person. I join all South Carolinians in claiming Nikki Haley as our marvelous governor! All blessings to you and yours,
Joanne Davidson Inness
