

Dwight D. Eisenhower
Projects Approved for Funding, FY 1989-90

Institution (Program)	Funds Requested	Funds Recommended	Available Balance (cumulative)
			$430,000
Clemson (Math Specialist)	$ 61,884	$58,104	1 371,896
USC-Columbia (Problem Solving)	54,778	46,400	2 325,496
The Citadel (Use of Calculators)	29,786	26,763	3 298,733
Midlands TC (Collaborative Learn)	30,545	29,465	4 269,268
Clemson (Science in the 90's)	57,443	38,867	5 230,401
USC-Spartanburg (Project SCOPE)	111,465	72,761	6 157,640
USC-Columbia (Earth Science)	167,430	61,420	7 96,220
USC-Columbia (Physical Science)	36,733	30,469	8 65,751
Morris College (Science Teaching)	24,624	21,492	9 44,259
USC-Salkehatchie (Science & Math)	60,070	44,259 ¹⁰	-0-
Francis Marion (Chemical Safety)	50,529	-0-
TC of Lowcountry (Math/Science)	12,382	-0-
Coll of Charleston (Math/Reading/Sci)	69,894	-0-
Lander College (Mid Sch Math Instr)	51,049	-0-
Benedict College (Teach Enhancement)	186,285	-0-

Notes on agreed-upon reductions:

- 1) Reduce contractual services and supplies
- 2) Reduce contractual services and travel; eliminate purchase of calculators
- 3) Reduce number of calculators purchased
- 4) Reduce printing and duplication
- 5) Reduce participant stipends and eliminate travel
- 6) Reduce printing and postage, tuition and fees, room and board, and equipment; eliminate student assistant and participant travel
- 7) Eliminate full-time employment of teachers; reduce room and board, travel and tuition
- 8) Reduce participant stipends
- 9) Reduce administration; eliminate office supplies and travel
- 10) Eliminate personnel services