Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, bleeding disorders are conditions that interfere with the body's ability to effectively form blood clots; and

WHEREAS, ranging from mild to severe, bleeding disorders can be inherited or develop as a result of disease or as a side effect of medication; and

WHEREAS, most primary bleeding disorders can be managed through available treatment options; and

WHEREAS, the 2016 observance of Bleeding Disorders Month provides an opportunity to learn more about bleeding disorders and treatment protocols.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 2016 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to help raise awareness of these conditions and recognize the individuals and families they affect.
