South Carolina State Parks

at 19:00:00 on 10/25/2017 UTC · 🌐

Have you wanted to learn more about the Civilian Conservation Corps and South Carolina's state parks? Join the York County Genealogical & Historical Society on Sunday, Nov. 5 at 3 p.m. at the Fellowship Hall of Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church in Rock Hill. The church is located at 421 Oakland Avenue. Please use the rear parking lot on Park Avenue. The speaker will be Daniel Newquist of Pawleys Island. While working with AmeriCorps, Daniel learned of the history of the Civilian Conservation Corps and took an immediate interest. He has served on the national CCC Legacy Board of Directors since 2014. <https://southcarolinaparks.com/education-and-history/ccc-history>

Civilian Conservation Corps History | South Carolina Parks Official Site

In South Carolina, the CCC created 16 state parks that preserve some of the state's most beautiful places. This work provided access to thousands of acres of public land to all South Carolinians. It also gave jobs to the unemployed and helped many families survive hard times during the Great Depress...
