

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, funded by Congress and administered by the United States Department of Labor, Job Corps is a self-paced education and career training program for people aged 16 to 24; and

WHEREAS, in addition to providing academic courses and ensuring that every qualified student earns a GED/high school diploma, Job Corps centers offer learning opportunities in independent living, driver education, and employability and social skills; and

WHEREAS, Job Corps centers provide career training in a variety of vocational areas from culinary arts and office administration to computer technology, carpentry, welding, and more; and

WHEREAS, during the week of August 18, 2014, Job Corps is celebrating its 50th Anniversary.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim August 20, 2014, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the Job Corps centers and students for their commitment to continued education, meaningful employment, and independent living.
