Dear Friends:

You have been so generous to our campaign and I want to sincerely thank you for your support. We have clearly caught the attention of our opponent and his supporters, and that is why they are attacking me and my credentials. Their hope is that petty politics will distract the voters from the issues that matter in this campaign. I'm proud to put my broad experience as an attorney against my opponent's limited experience, as well as sharing the stark differences in how we will work to defend Nevada from the unprecedented federal overreach coming out of Washington.

As of today, with ten days left in the month, we have to hit our August fundraising goal. So, what you help us raise in the next ten days will help us begin our television advertising sooner and run it with more frequency throughout Nevada. As we have witnessed since entering this race, the more people learn of my background, my work ethic and my willingness to fight against the unprecedented overreach of Washington, the more support we receive in our campaign.

Your secure contribution right now, today, of $10, $25, $50, $100 or more will help us continue to campaign across the state, attend events, hand out yard signs and flyers, and of course, advertise on television and radio. Trust me, every contribution helps.

More and more, people approach our campaign requesting signs and other materials to demonstrate their support. As I prepare to attend dozens more events heading into Labor Day weekend and beyond, please consider investing in us so we can get our message out to all corners of our great state.

Keep in mind, when we first started this campaign, all the experts - as well as my opponent and his lobbyist friends - suggested we couldn't raise money. That we wouldn't raise money. Because of you, we proved them wrong, and we will continue to do so up until Election Day when we cross the finish line together.

If you haven't already, please donate today. If you have already, I hope you will consider another contribution. Also, please check in regularly on our web page,
