Subject: Re: Draft: Gov. Nikki Haley To Host Annual Hurricane Tabletop Exercise

Added to the last sentence. Want to clarify that the focus is on hurricanes.

COLUMBIA, S.C. – With the beginning of Hurricane Season less than one month away, Governor Nikki Haley, emergency management officials, state agency directors and local officials will participate in the South Carolina's annual Hurricane Tabletop Exercise.

The governor leads the annual exercise to ensure that state agencies, local emergency management divisions and local governments are prepared to respond should a hurricane or natural disaster threaten South Carolina. This year's exercise will focus on pre-landfall and post-landfall coordination, focusing on evacuations and sheltering, but will also include discussion of lessons learned from October's unprecedented flooding.

WHO: Governor Nikki Haley, SCEMD officials, state agency directors and local officials

WHAT: South Carolina's Annual Hurricane Tabletop Exercise

WHEN: Friday, May 13 at 10:00 AM (media availability to follow at 12:00 PM)
