

When there was no person to report, then the father, householder, etc., should make this return. If a child becomes stillborn, it is to be reported as stillborn. No report is desired of stillbirths in the last month of pregnancy.